

MARXISM AND FREEDOM

CONTENTS

6/57

PART I. FROM PRACTICE TO THEORY: 1776 to 1848

CH. I--THE AGE OF REVOLUTIONS: INDUSTRIAL, SOCIAL-POLITICAL, INTELLECTUAL

- 1) The French Revolution in Books and in Life.
- 2) The Parisian Masses and the French Revolution
- 3) The Philosophers and the Revolution: The Hegelian Dialectic
- 4) A New Philosophic Way of Knowing and Striving: Hegel's Dialectic Philosophy and the Absolute Idea
- 5) Three False Approaches to Hegel--and Marx's Approach

CH. II--CLASSICAL POLITICAL ECONOMY, THE REVOLTS OF THE WORKERS, AND THE UTOPIAN SOCIALISTS

- 1) The Continuous Revolts of the Workers and the End of Classical Political Economy
- 2) The Utopian Socialists and Pierre Proudhon: A Case of Mental Juggling

CH. III--A NEW HUMANISM: MARX'S EARLY ECONOMIC PHILOSOPHIC WRITINGS

- 1) Dialectical Materialism and the Class Struggle, or What Kind of Labor
- 2) Private Property and Communism
- 3) Communism's Perversion of Marx's Philosophic Writings

PART II: WORKER AND INTELLECTUAL AT A TURNING POINT IN HISTORY: 1848-1851

CH. IV--Worker, Intellectual and the State

- 1) The 1848 Revolutions and the Radical Intellectual
- 2) Ferdinand Lassalle: State Socialist

PART III: MARXISM: THE UNITY OF THEORY AND PRACTICE

CH. V--THE IMPACT OF THE CIVIL WAR ON THE STRUCTURE OF CAPITAL

- 1) The Abolitionists, the Civil War, and the First Int.
- 2) The Relationship of History to Theory
- 3) Critique of Political Economy: Limits of an Intellectual Work
- 4) The Working Day and the Break with the Concept of Theory

CH. VI THE PARIS COMMUNE ILLUMINATES AND DEFENDS THE CONTENT OF CAPITAL

- 1) The Despot's Plan of Capital vs. the Cooperation of Freely Associated Labor
- 2) The Paris Commune--A Form of Workers Rule
- 3) The Fetishism of Commodities and Plan vs. Freely Associated Labor and Control of Production

CH. VII: THE HUMANISM AND DIALECTIC OF CAPITAL, VOL. I, 1867-1868

- 1) The Split in the Category of Labor: Abstract and Concrete Labor, Labor and Labor Power
- 2) The Marxian Economic Categories and the Struggle at the Point of Production: Constant and Variable Capital, or the Domination of Dead over Living Labor
- 3) Accumulation of Capital, and the New Forces and Passions

CH. VIII: THE LOGIC AND SCOPE OF CAPITAL, Volumes II and III

- 1) The Two Departments of Social Production: Means of Production and Means of Consumption
- 2) Appearance and Reality
- 3) The Breakdown of Capitalism: Crises, Human Freedom and Volume III of CAPITAL

COPY

ORGANIZATIONAL INTERLUDE

CH. IX: THE SECOND INTERNATIONAL, 1889-1914

- 1) Achievements of the Second Int.: Trade Union and Political Organization of the Proletariat
- 2) The Beginning of the End of the Int.: New Form of Workers Organization--the Soviet

PART IV: WORLD WAR I AND THE GREAT DIVIDE IN MARXISM

CH. X: THE FALL OF THE INT. AND THE BREAK IN LENIN'S THOUGHT

- 1) Lenin and the Dialectic: A Mind in Action
- 2) The Irish Rebellion and the Dialectic of History

CH. XI: FORMS OF ORGANIZATION--Relationship of Spontaneous Self-Organization of the Proletariat and the "Vanguard Party"

- 1) What Was at Stake in 1902-3: The Activity of the Workers and the Discipline of the Intellectual
- 2) The 1905 Revolution and Political Tendencies in Russia After 1905
- 3) What Was New on the Party Question in the Great Divide and After: Relationship of Mass to Party

CH. XII: WHAT HAPPENS AFTER

- 1) The Famous Trade Union Dispute of 1920: the Positions of Lenin, Trotsky and Shlyapnikov
- 2) Lenin and His New Concept "Party Work to be Checked by Non-Party Masses"

PART V: THE PROBLEM OF OUR AGE: STATE CAPITALISM VS. FREEDOM

SECTION ONE: THE RUSSIAN SCENE

CH. XIII--RUSSIAN STATE CAPITALISM VS. WORKERS REVOLT

- A--The First Five Year Plan: Relations Between Planners and Workers, 1928-32
- B--The End 5 Year Plan: The One Party State Takes Full Totalitarian Form and Completes the Counter-Revolution
- C--The 3rd 5 Year Plan and Summation of All at Outbreak of War
  - 1) Crisis and Purges
  - 2) Labor Before the Law
  - D--The War and Assault on Marx's CAPITAL

CH. XIV: STALIN

CH. V: THE BEGINNING OF THE END OF RUSSIAN TOTALITARIANISM

- 1) East Germany, June 17, 1953
- 2) "Russia Is More Than Ever Full of Revolutionaries"--Yorkuta, July 1953
- 3) Hungary, Oct. 23, 1956--Freedom Fighters

SECTION TWO: THE AMERICAN SCENE

Ch. XVI Automation and the NEW HUMANISM

- 1) Different Attitudes to Automation
- 2) Workers Think Their Own Thoughts
- 3) Toward A NEW UNITY OF THEORY AND PRACTICE

Appendices: Unpublished Writings of Marx and Lenin

***

COPY