The Political Bureau has confirmed our Party's steadfast position to make all efforts to re-establish the unity of the international communist movement on the only basis on which it can truly be realized, on the Marxist-Leninist basis .

Our Party reaffirms that a Conference of Communist and Workers Parties, carefully prepared, can contribute to it .

It would have to imply the loyal comparison of the experience of the struggles of the classes in the different countries, sincere criticism and self-criticism, the rejection of all revisionist preliminary, the pursuit of the application of Marxist-Leninist principles in the present concrete conditions.

It would have to mean the repudiation of the lie and calumny practised by the revisionists, their methods of pressure and black-mail, the unalterable condemnation of the contemptible, counter-revolutionary, anti-communist methods practised against the Peoples' Republics of China and Albania, against other socialist countries, the disavowal of these procedures which did such great harm to the socialist camp and to the communist movement.

The revisionists do not want such an international Conference.

What they demand is an assembly of robots controlled by them, from which they would exclude by "collective measures" the lively forces of world communism, the parties, organizations faithful to Marxism-Leninism.

Their "Unity" implies abandoning the justification of the communist parties. It is "unity" with the bourgeoisie and its agents.

The very day of the adoption of the Declaration of the 81 Communist and Workers Parties of 1960, Khrushchev disavowed the revolutionary principles.

new and grave stage of the vast revisionist enterprise engaged in by the revisionists for years.

The Souslov report is calumny and the complete lie against the Marxist-Leninists.

It is a disgusting hotch-potch fabricated with the refuse of the old revisionists, Bernstein, Kautsky, Trotski.

It is national egoism which became chauvinism of great power, demanding the subordination of the communist parties to a foreign policy which plays into the hands of imperialism.

It is the cynical avowal of economic aggression against socialist China, and the liquidation of the dictatorship of the proletariat in the U.S.S.R.

All things considered, Souslov really contributed, without wanting to, to unmask crudely the true face of revisionist objection.

The delirious racist subjects of a Gafourov in Paris are within the line of the Souslov report. The churlishness, obscenities, the trivial buffoonery of a Khrushchev show that the revisionists have the leader they deserve.

The revisionists leaders multiply their amiability toward imperialism. The imperialists are in no way grateful to them. They despise them and show them a growing arrogance.

But they are animated by a ferocious hatred of the counter-revolutionaries for whom they have only insults and poor treatment.

It is the greatest betrayal in history!

The working class, the laboring classes of the entire world, including the workers of the Soviet Union, who are also victims of this, will sweep out these despicable people. These collaborators of American imperialism will undergo the same fate as the other "collaborators" which we knew in the past. But even more rapidly, for hard pressed capitalism can no longer arrest the victorious march of the Socialist revolution.

Yes, the international socialist movement will re-strengthen itself by purification from the revisionist betrayal.

Long live the unity of the communists of the entire world in the anti-capitalist, anti-imperialist combat, in the struggle for Socialism.

Long live the fraternal unity of the Marxist-Leninists!
