SUPPORT THE GREEK PEOPLE

The long-term struggle of the Greek students against state interference in the universities reached a new stage in mid-November with the occupation of the Athens Polytechnic. A radio station was set up which broadcast demands not only for 'academic' freedom but also more generalised anti-Junta and anti-American propaganda.

The revolt spread to other sectors of society. Peasants marched on Athens, and workers have been demonstrating along with the students against the repressive regime of the colonels. Faced with this widespread opposition, the Junta revealed its efforts towards 'liberalisation' for the sham that they are. Martial law was declared, tanks and armed troops were used against the demonstrators. In the first two days up to ten students and workers were killed and more than 200 seriously injured. Yet the struggle continues.

We in the CFB(ML) express our support and solidarity with the workers, peasants and students of Greece in their struggle against oppression. We shall be carrying a more detailed analysis of the situation in the next issue of Struggle.
