TO ALL COMRADES

Dear Comrades,

Socialist Activists and Educational Conference Tapes

The tapes of the educational sessions at the Oberlin conference are now available, in preliminary form, from the National Tape Service. These tapes have not been edited (i.e. they include announcements, delays, etc.) and are available in series (usually three talks per reel) of three talks only, on 4-track, 1-7/8 ips speed tape. They will cost a flat rate of $4.00 per reel. Edited versions at 3-3/4 ips or 2-track will be available sometime later.

The educational lectures which are now available are:

1. Prospects for the American Revolution: the Revolutionary Party in the 1970's -- six lectures (two reels). Speakers are:
 - a. Barry Sheppard: The International Roots of the New Radicalization
Derrick Morrison: The Combined Character of the American Revolution
Mary-Alice Waters: The New Radicalization, the Student Movement and the Women's Liberation Movement
 - b. Peter Camejo: Our Opponents and the New Radicalization
