

Are you with the revolutionary socialist youth of France?

In France, the Revolutionary Communist Youth (JCR) has played a central role in the barricades struggles of the French students and workers.

Here, the Young Socialist Alliance, American counterpart of the JCR, basing itself on the same program, is organizing and fighting for the same socialist goal.

THE LESSONS OF FRANCE

—A CLASS—

* Why are the French workers struggling for socialism?

* Why is the French Communist Party trying to maintain capitalism?

* Who led the student actions that precipitated the largest general strike in history?

* Why does the French Communist Party oppose the revolutionary students?

* Who is "Danny the Red"?

* How can this worker uprising take place without a depression in France?

* Why did the workers come to the aid of the students?

* What is the "Popular Front" that the Communist Party wants to establish?

* What are the international implications of the French strike?

* How will it effect Britain? Czechoslovakia? Cuba? Italy? Vietnam? Russia?
