PLAN MASSIVE GI-CIVILIAN ANTIWAR ACTIONS

Peace actions by GIs took place all over the country this fall. These actions confirmed that there are many things GIs can do to help bring peace that are perfectly legal and entirely within their rights. In San Francisco on October 12, more than 500 active-duty GIs led and organized a march against the war in Vietnam; 15,000 civilians joined in. On October 21-27 GIs in many areas spoke out at rallies, teach-ins, and demonstrations. This is just a beginning. Students and GIs are coming together to set the date for a major peace action by GIs and civilians in the spring. GIs stationed overseas, from Vietnam to West Germany and students around the world will take part in the spring action. The conference is being held in the Christmas period because many GIs will be on leave and able to attend. JOIN US! SUPPORT OUR GIS: BRING THEM HOME NOW! Pass this leaflet on to a serviceman.

GIs: Attend the TEACH-IN
FRIDAY EVENING, 8:00 P.M. -
DECEMBER 27 11:00 P.M.

GIs from bases around the country and Vietnam Vets will speak; also leading authorities on Vietnam; also legal authorities on GI rights. Get the facts on the war and how GIs can legally protest.

STUDENTS: Attend the Student Mobilization Conference

Plan out national student support for antiwar GIs. High schoolers: discuss coordination of the new explosion of high school antiwar organizing.
