

SOCIALISTS GAIN 5 NEW SEATS IN BELGAN HOUSE

New Chamber Will Be Composed of 35 Party Members; Increase 17 Per Cent

(Mail Correspondence.) Brussels, May 26.—The election which was held here yesterday has been a great victory for the Socialists.

Strength Grows 17 Per Cent This is an increase of the Socialist parliamentary strength of 17 per cent.

At Mons the Socialists received 49,745 votes, against 29,692 in 1904; at Liege, 79,000 votes, against 64,000 in 1904; at Charleroi the Socialist vote was 84,110, against 73,795 in 1904.

Laid to Waste Movement This victory is ascribed largely to the great increase in the trade union movement which has taken place under the inspiration and with the assistance of the Socialist party.

Snooks of Elkhart was nominated for congress in the Thirtieth congressional district who met in a convention at South Bend.

THE CLAIM OF SOCIALISM

"I have looked at this claim by the light of history and my own conscience, and it seems to me so looked at to be a most just claim and that resistance to it means nothing short of a denial of the hope of civilization. This then is the claim: 'It is right and necessary that all men should have work to do which shall be worth doing, and be of itself pleasant to do; and which should be done under such conditions as would make it neither wearisome nor over anxious.' Turn that claim about as I may, think of it as long as I can, I cannot find that it is an exorbitant claim; yet if Society would or could admit it, the face of the world would be changed; discontent and strife and dishonesty would be ended. To feel that we were doing work useful to others and pleasant to ourselves, and that such work and its due reward COULD not fail us! What serious harm could happen to us then? And the price to be paid for so making the world happy is revolution."—WILLIAM MORRIS.

TUNNEL CLAIMS ANOTHER LIFE

Conditions under which employes of the Illinois Tunnel company have to work, caused the death of a miner in the tunnel at the mine of Michael Finn, 18 years old, a strike breaker employed as motorman by the tunnel company the morning after he fell down a shaft at the J. A. Sells street station. The demand the tunnel workers' union intended to make upon the company was that the shafts at freight and mail stations be protected. For forming a union to make these demands the employes were discharged and a strike was called. They reported for work as usual at the La Salle street station this morning, and after waiting for the elevator to come up the shaft, they were employed and worked down. He lost his balance and fell seventy feet. The opening is about 100 feet deep. The boy was picked up in a dying condition and taken to Mercy hospital, where the tunnel company has a special ward for injured miners. His home is at 311 Broadway avenue. The strikers declare that several such accidents have happened.

SOCIALISTS SAY ELECTION OF WHARTON IS CERTAIN

(Special to the Daily Socialist.) Urbana, O., June 5.—Peculiar political conditions in the Eighth congressional district of Ohio have drawn attention to C. E. Wharton, Socialist candidate for congress will be elected. In view of this fact the members of Urbana local have taken up the campaign with a vim heretofore never known. The regular condition is brought about by the fact that the Republican candidate is after a third term and has foes in his own party. Realizing that energetic action will do much towards assuring Wharton's election, the local Socialists have drawn up resolutions, a copy of which is to be sent to each Socialist party member, urging them to make a campaign of the kind. A member is notified that only his and every other member's co-operation in the campaign will bring about the election of Wharton to the course to be pursued in the campaign.

PASTOR MAKES AUDIENCE GASP

Minister at Pekin, Ill., Preaches Remarkable Sermon

(Special to the Daily Socialist.) Pekin, Ill., June 5.—Rev. Thomas J. Thompson has set all Pekin agog with his Memorial day sermon, which has been published in the local papers. It was a straight-cut, class-conscious address, and was delivered at Lakeside cemetery before a large crowd.

After paying an eloquent tribute to the fighters of the civil war and the cause for which they fought, Rev. Thompson said: "Soldiers of the republic, comrades in arms for the preservation of the union, you preserved that union. You hastened the liberation of four million chattel slaves by at least two or three decades. But a far more subtle and degrading form of slavery remains. The American laboring men, their wives and children, white as well as black, are wage slaves."

Millions of Unemployed
"At this very time 3,000,000 unemployed men in this republic who fought to preserve are seeking in vain for masters that they might have bread. Nearly 2,000,000 children under the age of 15 years are toiling in the factories, mills, shops and mines of the United States, deprived of all the rights and pleasures of normal childhood. Thousands of women are toiling in the sweatshops of our cities for a miserable pittance scarcely sufficient to keep their souls in their tortured bodies."

Becoming Class Conscious
"But the wage slave is becoming class-conscious—beginning to realize his servitude. He is beginning to see that where a few own all the land and machinery of production that the many must sell themselves to the few. They may have bread, or in the vain hope that they, too, may rise from the laboring class to the capitalist or master class. He is becoming aware that the master class obtained its mastery and holds it largely through the possession of the machinery of government."

Infamous Dick Law
"In a time of profound peace the infamous Dick military law, making every able-bodied man in the United States, between the ages of 18 and 45, subject to military service. The capitalist courts are busy enjoining the laboring man from striking, picketing and a thousand other innocent and harmless things. Laboring men are held to be conspirators. Laboring men are refused trial by jury and thrust into prison by judge-made law (called a violation)."

"A press censorship, having for its object the suppression of the facts, is gradually being established by the postmaster general, secretly aided by a subservient congress enacting laws to this end, known only to the masters and hidden away in appropriation bills. Unemployed masses of men and women—slaves seeking in vain for a master—are clubbed or ridden down by platoons of police while on peaceful parade, lest their miseries should come to the attention of the public. The right of free speech and of lawful assembly is degraded by the policeman's club and the press censor."

"What more did the slaveholding oligarchy of the south do in its palmy days than is now done by the oligarchy of capitalists? Your attitude toward the black slavery of the south is known to the whole world. What is our attitude as to the wage slave, both north and south, east and west?"

What Lincoln Said
"All thoughtful, earnest, god-fearing men must take the same position in the struggle of the wage slave for his freedom that Abraham Lincoln took with regard to the chattel slaves. It may seem strange, said he, that any man should dare to ask a just God's assistance in wringing their bread from the sweat of other men's faces. Again: 'We all declare for liberty; but in using the same word we do not mean the same thing. With some the word liberty may mean for each man to do as he pleases with himself and the product of his labor; while with others the word means freedom for man from some men to do as they please with other men and the product of other men's labor.' This latter idea he indignantly spurned as being the definition of the wolf's dictionary."

"Thus the lesson of the great struggle of the sixties is of vital import to us today in determining our attitude in the still more gigantic struggle for the emancipation of the wage slave. We must stand for freedom for man himself, for the abolition of the master class. But let us learn this further lesson: That the great physical struggle was as we have seen, both cruel and unnecessary. Even so now any shedding of blood—and physical conflict—is both cruel and unnecessary."

New Weapon Is Ballot
"The means for the peaceful settlement of the question of wage slavery is in the hands of the laboring man himself. The wage slave has the ballot. He is in the immense majority—more than 90 per cent. Shall he be not informed of the power that he holds in his hands? 'Workmen of the world, unite! You have nothing to lose but your chains! You have a world to gain!'"

PREFER SUGAR TO DIAMONDS
"The seed you sow, another reaps; The robe ye weave, another wears; The arms ye forge, another bears."
"Sow seed, but let no tyrant reap; Find wealth—let no impostor reap; Weave robes—let not the idle wear; Forge arms in your defense to bear."

RICH MAN'S SON TURNS BURGLAR

Away from Home, He Loses Patience Trying to Find a Job

What shall the son of a wealthy capitalist do who is away from home and out of work in an industrial crisis and hungry? One man, said to be Frank Stanley, who says he is a stepson of W. P. Case, the wealthy cutlery manufacturer of Bradbury, Pa., has answered it by stealing. Then he stole some more. Now he is in a cell at the Central police station. He had as an accomplice, the police say, a young man named Leonard, the son of a wealthy citizen of Colorado Springs.

World Not Notify Parents
"They would not notify their parents and tell that they had been guilty of the most unpardonable commercial sin, 'failing to make good,' so they took to theft. They committed some twenty burglaries, five in one night, and Stanley made his escape and came to Chicago. He was arrested, according to Burns and Mullins, in the latter Ocean hotel here."

Series of Holdups
Neither cared to tell their parents that they were down and out, and so they started in on a series of holdups. Among the places which Stanley said they visited and "shook down" on the night when they robbed fifteen places were: The Baltimore Dairy Lunch, on Welton street, Denver; the Glenn Optical company, the Laitner Optical company and Pierce & Co., dealers in curries. They visited some hardware stores, where they stole various things.

Among the effects which were found in the possession of Stanley were some pieces of hardware, which bore the trade mark of W. R. Case & Co., Bradbury, Pa. The detectives thought this a humorous incident in view of the story which the arrested man told.

ROBBERS CRACK SAFE IN OKLAHOMA; GET $10,000

ALDOCO BARN AND ROOF PAINT.
Aldoco Barn Paint for barns, roofs, sheds, fences, wind mills, tanks, and all out-buildings, is made in the five standard shades. It is manufactured from the most permanent and weather defying materials known, mixed liberally in pure linseed oil. Aldoco Barn Paints will not scale, peel or chalk off. It will stand the action of the elements for years. It dries quickly, with a hard, lustrous finish that always looks well and will not fade. It comes ready prepared for painting and is easily applied. One gallon will cover 250 square feet, two coats.

Aldoco Barn Paint is an unexcelled paint for roofs. It will stop small leaks, will preserve the shingles on tin roofs, and improve the appearance of your buildings 50 per cent. It contains no poisonous ingredients that will dissolve in water, hence rainwater caught from the roof painted with Aldoco Barn Paint can be used for washing, or drinking purposes.
