

HENDERSON IN NEW AUTO CASE

Car of Man Who Started Glencoe War in a Fatal Collision

Theodore P. Henderson, who caused the Glencoe automobile war has once more got into trouble.

Carl Burton, 24 years old, recent graduate of the University of Chicago and newspaper man, living at the Beta Theta Pi fraternity house, 587 Washington avenue, was probably fatally injured in an automobile crash at Washington street and Michigan avenue at 2:45 a. m. today.

Henderson was taken into custody and after being held at the central jail for three hours, was released on account of the fact that he must face trial in Glencoe today on a charge of speeding which grew out of the shooting affair.

Henderson was driving today, known to the police as the "phantom" touring car, skidded when the chauffeur attempted to avoid a collision with a passing cab.

The Socialist Program

XII.—The abolition of the senate.

The American senate was copied from the English house of lords. It is today far worse than the original.

But in the United States the power of the senate has grown. It is today far more powerful than the house of representatives.

The indirect method of electing senators insures their control by the capitalist class, even after a majority of the people shall be in revolt.

There is no hope of reforming such a body. Even direct election would help but little.

The senate was established only as a CHECK ON POPULAR GOVERNMENT.

The Socialist party is opposed to all CHECKS ON popular government.

Sideways, Not Forward

The Socialists have been criticized because they have not welcomed the recent move of Gompers and some of the officials of the American Federation of Labor in the political field.

Socialists can easily admit these statements without mitigating to any degree their critical attitude toward those who are endeavoring to lead trade unionists into the Republican or Democratic camps.

Any sort of motion on the part of an apparently dead man is a sign of life. If a drowning man was laid upon the edge of the bridge his friends would welcome any movement that he might make.

That is what labor is now doing. It has been in a political trance for years. Socialists have sought in every way to arouse it to the recognition of its political power.

That the activity of the Socialists combined with industrial conditions have at last succeeded in developing signs of life is a cause of congratulation.

Viewed in this way, the present tactics of some of the officials of the American Federation of Labor are not so much a step forward as sideways.

A Word to the Farmer

For some time the Daily Socialist has looked forward to the time when it could make itself more effective as an organ among the farmers of the country.

It is well recognized that the farmer must work out his own problems, that the city worker cannot do that for him and can help little in the peculiar questions that will confront the farmer.

For that reason it is intended to make this a department in which the farmer shall speak for himself and discuss the questions that interest him.

This department will be entirely what the farmers of the country make it. Already many articles have been received from those who have learned of the work the daily is planning.

What will you do with this department? Ample space will be devoted weekly to the farmer. It now remains for the men who till the soil, and who are, like the wage earner of the city, feeling the crushing power of the present industrial system, to speak out their opinions.

THE MARBLE POOL

BY RICHARD WATSON GILDER. The marble pool, like the great sea, hath moods.

A COWARD OF CONSCIENCE

Tired and dusty the excursion was returning from the bank holiday trip, and Simkins, a little bald man with big ears, overcame with his day of happiness, dropped off to sleep.

AT THE WOMAN'S CONVENTION

ENGINES HITCHED TO TRAINS

Lizzie's Lot

IV—THE RESTAURANT

BY EVA OSLER NICHOLS

The waitresses are well organized and Lizzie has a comfortable sum left after she has paid her rent, and she gets her meals in the restaurant.

Hard Times

"I don't know what we'll do," said a thin, worn-out looking woman, as she turned away from the door of a mansion.

For Home Dressmakers

The color of the wall paper, the aspect and furniture, certain subjects must be chosen, also certain colors of frame, etc.

LADIES FIVE-GORED SKIRT

A charming model for the skirt of an entire costume, or as a separate garment to wear with shirt-waists is here shown.

Picture Hanging

Many persons think that in order to hang a picture, it is only necessary to drive a nail and suspend the picture therefrom, but it is by no means so simple.

INDIFFERENCE IS DEATH!

BY BEN HANFORD

Before the national convention I pointed out in the Daily Socialist that THIS was the year of opportunity in the Socialist Movement of America.

At that time I hoped to be strong enough to do a man's work in the campaign. But I am one of the crippled referred to, and can only fight with a crutch.

Yesterday's editorial says that "Indifference is Death." It is, comrades, and you sympathizers, do something and DO IT NOW.

Let all who can help now. Dollars are hard to get. True. They will be harder still to get if the Daily Socialist dies.

Let all who can, give a dime NOW. Dimes even are hard to get in such hard times as these. True, true. Think of it.

In a country with values of $110,000,000,000 (one hundred and ten BILLION of dollars), and hard to get one dime!

Send it to the Daily Socialist NOW. Then the Daily Socialist will not die. It will live and grow and work for you in the campaign and after the campaign.

Send that dollar, half, quarter, or dime NOW to the Daily Socialist. This to every comrade and to every reader. You who are not Socialists will share in the good done by the Socialist press. Send help NOW.

Then the Daily will continue to be your fortress for defense and your weapon for attack. And some day we shall have a country worth many times one hundred and ten BILLION dollars—and every dime and dollar of it in the possession of those whose labor produced them.

Then dimes and dollars will NOT be hard to get. That day will never come unless you work for it and give for it. So give, and give NOW.

We'll need the Daily Socialist when Taft or Bryan are elected to take care of the workmen for the people who own this country's one hundred and ten BILLION dollars.

PROBLEMS OF THE SOIL

BY CLYDE J. WRIGHT

John W. Brown, writing from McClain county, Oklahoma, says: "Ninety per cent of the farmers are renters and in debt. Land is valued at from $12.50 to $15 per acre and rents at from $2.50 to $4.75 per acre, and the landlord gets his first. Not only do they have to mortgage their crops in advance but nearly all of them have mortgages on their stocks and implements."

Oh, yes, capitalism spreads like a forest fire. Will you fellows that talk about farmers holding their harvests for better prices please tell us how these mortgage-eaten, trust-ridden, profit-seeking tenants can hold their crops against mortgage interest.

Of course such facts as the foregoing will make a few rural parasites bite their lips. They are the few landlords that profit at the expense of the many tenants.

You call him a genius, and you are right; and there are only a few of his kind. So long as genius works good for humanity he is commendable. Men will arise according to necessities. Make stealing necessary and the thief will appear as the genius of the hour.

John D. Rockefeller is an artist, and there are few that possess his art; but his is an art that blasts the hopes of other artists and closes the door of opportunity to those whose art would bless instead of curse the race.

The "Trust Question" dollars is the art of making paupers, widows, orphans, thieves, harlots and anarchists, because such an artist closes the door of opportunity to make an honest living and encumbers the earth from the willing and wise.

THE DREAM OF THE EMPTY DINNER PAIL

TO THE EDITOR

SOCIALIST AGITATOR IN OKLAHOMA. I had an amusing experience here yesterday afternoon which I think would be equally amusing to other comrades, so I write it up.
