LaFollette's Attack Is Signal for Harder Work for Greater Convention at St. Paul

'COMMUNIST' CRY FAILS RENEGADE

Minneapolis Unionists
Repudiate Hartwell

(Special to The Daily Worker)
MINNEAPOLIS, May 29.—Organized labor of this city emphatically repudiates the action of Lewis Hartwell, former Socialist chief of police under the Van Lear administration, in deserting the Farmer-Labor party and supporting George Leach, Republican party candidate for mayor.

Machinists' local No. 477 has adopted a resolution severely censuring the action of Hartwell who is a member of their lodge. The machinists are solidly behind the coming June 17 convention and they state that Hartwell is not speaking for organized labor in supporting the old party candidate.

Ridicule His "Communist" Phobia. Hartwell's thin excuse that he is opposing the Farmer-Labor movement because of the presence of Communists in its ranks is severely castigated in the current issue of the Minneapolis Labor Review, official organ of the trade union movement of Minneapolis. Hartwell's assertion that he wants the Farmer-Labor party beaten this election in order to make it "clean house" and get rid of the Communists is held up to scorn by the trade union paper, and his allegation that the Communists are "burglars" attempting to steal the Farmer-Labor party is held up to ridicule.

Hartwell for Labor's Foes. "The Republican party," that Hartwell supports now, "is and has been the bitterest enemy of the organized workers and farmers," says the Labor Review. "During the years when Hartwell was active in the labor movement, he always bitterly censured persons leaving a labor organization because of their grievances, fancied or real, against any portion of the officers or membership, and his present position is very inconsistent in view of his past statements."

Referring to Hartwell's statement in the capitalist press that the Farmer-Labor victories were not won by union labor and league farmers alone, but with the aid of about 100,000 progressive voters, the Labor Review replies:

F.-L. Party Is Only Hope.
"The 100,000 progressive voters who Hartwell says vote the Farmer-Labor ticket would have no Farmer-Labor ticket to vote if it had not been for the organized effort of the farmers and workers on the political field. Hartwell, if he carries his reasoning to a logical conclusion, would now have the entire membership leave the Farmer-Labor party and become Republicans to save the Farmer-Labor party from the Communists. He would have Farmer-Laborites become Republicans."

This is the old erroneous balance of power policy stated in a shrewd way. A policy that brought defeat after defeat to the organized workers and farmers of Minnesota as long as they pursued it.

GERMAN WORKERS STILL REFUSE SHIP-BUILDING BOSSES' TERMS

(By Federated Press)
HAMBURG, Germany, May 29.—The lockout of the 45,000 workers in the ship building industry, which has been in progress ever since the middle of January in about a dozen coast towns, continues unabated. The workers simply will not return under the conditions outlined by the bosses, namely, a nine-hour day and no appreciable improvement in wages. The conflict is one of the most obstinately fought on both sides on record in Germany.

SILVER MINERS STRIKE FOR LABOR PRISONERS AND SHORTER WORKDAY

By Defense News Service.

CARSON CITY, Nev., May 29.—All workers in the Comstock mine at Gold Hill have gone on strike to register a protest against imprisonment of their fellows in labor cases and to compel an improvement in wages and working conditions for themselves. Their first demand is for the release of the Centralia defendants in Washington and of all criminal syndicalism prisoners in California and other states.

Other demands are: Abolition of the bonus and contract system; a $6-a-day flat scale for all underground workers; a six-hour day; that the Gold Hill store and the company boarding house boycott all food products from California; that unsanitary and dangerous conditions in the mine be eliminated.

MORE BAKERIES SURRENDER TO STRIKING UNION

Jewish Workers Carry Fight to the Rest

Two more boss bakers settled with the Jewish bakers' union yesterday. The strike goes on with greater energy than ever in the fifty shops which are still resisting the union demands for the one year agreement and a five dollar increase in weekly wages.

Strike meetings are held every day at noon at the union headquarters, 3342 W. Roosevelt road. The strikers are confident of winning. Scabs are few and the market for Jewish bread cannot be filled elsewhere in Chicago.

A statement just issued by the strikers' local No. 273, tells of the 9 to 11 hour day they have been working and the lack of pay for overtime. The bosses' use of scab labels is vigorously denounced and the workers pledge themselves to fight on until victory comes.

The two shops just signing are Joseph Horowitz's at 659 W. 12th street and Joseph Gurewicz's on Western avenue. Twenty others had previously signed.

RUHR INDUSTRY STOPS AS STRIKING MINERS CUT OFF FUEL SUPPLY

BERLIN, May 29.—All big industrial plants in the Ruhr district will be shut down completely by the end of the week for lack of fuel. The strike of the members of the Miners' Federation continues effectively.

Arbitration proposals, offering to continue the 8-hour day for underground work and the 9-hour day for work above ground, until October 1, were turned down by the miners. The strikers emphatically demand a reduction of one hour a day for all mine workers.

Miners are appealing to organized labor in France, England and America. The International Workers' Aid is a strong factor in the relief situation.

"Manage Your Own Affairs," Message to Nation's Workers and Farmers

(Special to The Daily Worker)

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 29.—Calling on all workers and farmers in the nation to rally more energetically than ever for "June 17th," the Committee on Arrangements has issued a statement in reply to the sinister attack of Senator LaFollette. The statement is in full as follows:

TO ALL WORKERS AND FARMERS:
A GREAT Farmer-Labor-Progressive Convention will be held at St. Paul on June 17th, 1924. This convention was born out of the intent and purpose to give to the farmers and workers and other progressive voters of America an opportunity to vote for candidates for President and Vice-President in the campaign of 1924, who would be absolutely free from the vicious influence that dominates the old party organizations.

But the ultimate purpose of inaugurating an independent national political movement in the campaign of 1924 was to lay the foundation for a permanent independent political organization which would represent the wealth producing elements of the nation. For this reason it must be evident that the movement cannot be built around any individual but rather must be founded on the economic interests of the great masses of the people who depend primarily on their labor for a living.

The sponsors for the June 17th convention were not oblivious to the strategic advantage of having prominent individuals of national character, who had the confidence of the people, lead in this movement. This is why Senator LaFollette has been, from the very inception, the choice of the active proponents of the convention.

At the same time, the danger of making Senator LaFollette the prime factor in the movement was not overlooked. From the very outset the point has been emphasized that this was to be an independent Farmer-Labor movement, and that if Senator LaFollette failed or refused to meet the call of leadership the place would necessarily be filled by a less prominent person.

Senator LaFollette's published statement gives no absolute assurance that he will be a candidate for president on any ticket; and that even a third party ticket is contingent on what the old parties may do. The concluding part of his letter is exceedingly vague and certainly cannot satisfy the aspirations of the millions of men and women of this nation who are willing to break their affiliations with the corrupt old parties and join in launching a clean independent movement which will stand for the interests of the common people.

Senator LaFollette's letter subordinates the tremendous issue of rescuing the government from plutocratic control, and the necessity for all honest progressive voters uniting in this crisis, by engaging in petty factional contentions.

On the face of his statement there is manifest certainty that it is not the result of original investigation and calm deduction. It is obviously the unfortunate decision that comes from unfair and unjust counsel.

No direct inquiries have come to the local committee of arrangements regarding the nature of the June 17th convention. Mr. LaFollette or his representatives have made no inquiries and his attitude as expressed in his statement must have been reached from adverse, ex-parte reports.

As expressed in the beginning of this statement the National Farmer-Labor Progressive Convention is not a LaFollette, or a one-man movement. It has come into existence in response to the call of millions of voters whose experiences under the lash of special privilege have driven them to seek relief thru independent political action. It cannot be diverted or destroyed by anything Senator LaFollette may do or say. The need for it continues to exist and there is no alternative but for it to proceed.

Fifty thousand invitations have been sent out and thousands of responses from farmer-labor and progressive political organizations have been received, filled with eagerness and enthusiasm. The responses are manifestations of loyalty to a great principle and not

"RED BOGEY" OF WISCONSIN SENATOR SHOT TO PIECES; HIS ALLIANCES QUESTIONED

(Special to The Daily Worker)

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 29.—The giant labor—in the cities and on the farms—has brushed aside, without hesitation for a single moment, the silly and mendacious attack of Senator LaFollette on the June 17th Convention of the national Farmer-Labor forces.

The spirit of the rising class farmer-labor movement, in replying to the political trickery of the Wisconsin senator, in behalf of the old Wall Street parties, was interpreted today in a rousing statement issued by the Committee on Arrangements of the June 17th gathering, and signed by its chairman, William Mahoney, and its secretary, C. A. Hathaway. It sounds its call to the oppressed thruout the land in stirring words as follows:

"Senator LaFollette's statement should be a signal to all members of the farmer-labor movement to come to the June 17th Convention and demonstrate their ability to manage their own affairs in building a great national movement in the same manner they have already built their state movements."

Labor's Reply Comes Quickly.
The statement was drawn up immediately the news arrived from Washington that LaFollette, who is vacationing at the fashionable Atlantic City seaside resort, had severed all relations with the farmer-labor movement, that he had repudiated the workers and farmers for his old associates in the Wall Street Republican party.

The statement sets this forth quite clearly when it says that "LaFollette's published statement gives no absolute assurance that he will be a candidate for president on any ticket, and that even a third party ticket is contingent on what the old parties may do."

"The concluding part of his letter is exceedingly vague and certainly cannot satisfy the aspirations of the millions of men and women of this nation who are willing to break their affiliations with the corrupt old parties and join in launching a clean, independent movement which will stand for the interests of the common people."

Not "One-Man Movement."
The statement emphasizes again and again that the cause of the worst exploited farmers and workers is not a one-man movement.

It also replies, in no uncertain terms, to the "red" bogey that LaFollette, in common with Palmer, Daugherty and Burns and the worst reactionaries, seeks to raise at this late date, even after a high official of the department of justice at Washington has confessed before a senate committee that all the "red menace" propaganda sent out by government agencies was "mere bunk."

Concerning the Communists, the statement says:
Communists Have No Secrets.
"The Communists make no secret of their aims and frankly outline their method of procedure. They signify in their published statements that the program of the Farmer-Labor party represents the next step in progressive political development, and they are willing to co-operate in promoting every practical measure that will advance the interests of the wealth producing classes."

The statement then challenges the sincerity and purpose of the self-styled progressive senator from Wisconsin when it says:
"There is no more reason why sincere supporters of a national Farmer-Labor party should doubt the Communists than they should question the sincerity of Senator LaFollette."
Hits LaFollette's Allegiance.
"For many years he has maintained (Continued on page 4.)"

CAPITOL LABOR DENOUNCES BOSS U. S. PRINTER FOR HIS SLANDERS

(By The Federated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 29.—Resolutions denouncing Public Printer Carter for his charge that he had to clean out the printing office force, due to the existence of bootlegging, gambling and inefficiency, were adopted by the Central Labor Union here and sent to the White House.

SAMMY CASTS GLOOMY GLANCE AT ST. PAUL AND FEELS UNHAPPY

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Samuel Gompers, taking his cue from Senator LaFollette, is attempting to halt the movement toward a great party of workers and farmers which is coming to a head at the St. Paul convention, June 17.

In a formal letter against the St. Paul convention, signed by Gompers and other members of the federation's "nonpartisan" political committee, the "red menace" is flouted and the statement is made that a "plot has been made to trick you into injuring our labor movement and undermining our national institutions." Gompers adds that Moscow will direct the convention.

At the same time Gompers has addressed a communication to the capitalist Republican and Democratic committees, asking them to give favorable consideration to labor candidates. In the case of the Democrats this means an appeal for support for George Berry—post-war major, legionnaire and strike-breaking president of the pressmen's union, who seeks the vice-presidential nomination.

BLOW TO HOOVER FISH STEALING DEALT IN SENATE

Anti-Monopoly Bill For Alaska Passed

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Exposure of Secretary of Commerce Hoover's assistance to the Salmon Trust theft of the $60,000,000 a year fishing resources of Alaska, led to the passage of the Sutherland anti-monopoly bill in the senate.

Hoover was sharply rebuked. The bill instructs the commerce secretary never again to grant any exclusive rights of fishery to any corporation or favored interest. All American citizens are to have equal right to fish.

Senator King of Utah, charged Hoover with preaching conservation and then allowing corporations to monopolize and waste the fish resources.

The bill now goes to the house. Alaskans fear that the teeth of the bill will be drawn in conference. Publicly will be given to efforts of Hoover lobbyists to salvage their graft.

DAWES BOOMED AS COOLIDGE RUNNING MATE

Might Curse His Way to Victory

WASHINGTON, May 29.—While President Coolidge is not ready to shout "My kingdom for a horse," he is getting really anxious over a worthy running mate.

There are several senators who might hazard their political fortunes on a throw of the vice-presidential dice, provided Coolidge was a heavy eater and looked at his friends occasionally thru glasses darkly, but there is nothing human about him, in the generally accepted sense of the word, and even if he does take a drink occasionally, he lets his pet dog taste it before consigning the beverage to the presidential palate.

You said It! (No. 2)

The average judge is a sub-normal moron.—Attorney George W. Alger before the New York Bar Association.

They usually stop living.

There is one man, however in the United States so fitted by nature and environment to act a running mate for Calvin Coolidge that it is quite likely in spite of the abundance of his verbosity and the richness of his obsequy, the date of the Republican Party convention may find him up in the lead of the possible nominees for Cal's partner in the presidential marathon.

The man is General Hell-and-Maria Dawes, author of the Dawes plan and other well-known literary works, including a plan for breaking strikes. The fact that Dawes never refuses an opportunity to swear, is considered by friends of the president, to be a strong reason for urging the candidacy of the arm-chair general. Coolidge neither speaks nor swears, except very seldom and the American voters like to have their leaders act like he-men once in a while. Of course, Coolidge is handicapped coming from cultured Boston but Dawes has no such liability. He is a native of Chicago where the odor from the stockyards blights every budding genius not protected by the impenetrable intellectual hide of a Ben Hecht.

Hence two strikebreakers, one from the Hub of civilization, who says nothing, having nothing to say and is at least wise enough to know it; the other also a strikebreaker, who says nothing because he knows nothing and does not give a damn who knows it, are possible team mates in the coming election.

Hall the leaders of the Republican Party, Calvin Coolidge, the Silent and the Dumb, with General Hell-and-Maria-Dawes, the Dumb, but not the Silent!

THE POWER COLUMN

MORE CITIES GO OVER THE TOP

Kansas City, Portland, Miles City and Pittsburgh Making Serious Bids for Winner's Flag

With only two weeks remaining to the DAILY WORKER subscription campaign, the contests between the leading cities of the two divisions are still pretty well bunched. In spite of the fact that there is quite a number of points on the quota list between some of the leaders, uncertainty of the results of the next fortnight make it the toss of a coin to determine which city will finally pull down the banner.

Kansas City, Portland and Miles City are three cities which have brought glory to themselves during the week by passing the 100 percent mark on the quota list. All credits are due to Comrade J. H. Wilson of Miles City who brought his city across almost single handed. The comrades of Kansas City and Portland are not over many either and the work of a few loyal comrades is responsible for the splendid showings these cities have made.

Pittsburgh is making a strenuous attempt to overcome the lead gained by Toledo in the contest between the larger cities. The City-of-the-Steel-Trust gained a few points during the week and is far from resigning a permanent hold on the top to the Ohio town. Fully a dozen more ambitious burghs are freely predicted that they will show their heels to the rest of the pack before the drive is over and any one of them can do it if they make the best of the remaining time.

TOLEDO SLIDES A BUNCH UNDER THE WIRE AGAIN. The live wires in Toledo think they know just when The Power Column goes to press. Each week for the past three special delivery letters arrive just in time to get reported in the Friday Power Column. This time a catch of 28 new subs comes to bring their week's total up to 29 and their grand total to 155 or 150.4 per cent of their quota. If the Toledo comrades keep up their good work they will necessitate the printing of a special Toledo edition of THE DAILY WORKER to fulfill the seemingly limitless demand for the paper.

From Syracuse, N. Y. comes a belated complaint that the comrades there feel slighted because they have not been assigned a quota. Comrade Wodneff writes that Syracuse can make a record of at least 15 and requests that the quota be set at that figure. You and your comrades will have to get a move on, Comrade Wodneff but there is no question but what it can be done before June 15.

IS CHICAGO WAKING UP? Comrade Helen Lotoszynski of the Ukrainian Branch says so and turns in 16 subs to prove it. A few more like this young speed demon and Chicago would be out of its near cellar position. Comrade Lotoszynski says it's easy to sell subs but she never found out how easy it was until she tried it. There are a few thousands other readers of THE DAILY WORKER who also can be given a pleasant surprise if they will set themselves to the task of selling subscriptions to their friends shop mates and neighbors. Comrade Lotoszynski has demonstrated to the "It Can't be Done Club" the way it can and has been done.

REVOLUTIONISTS WILL FROLIC AT ALTENHEIM PARK

Lots of Fun at Affair This Friday

Final arrangements have been made for the May 30 picnic to be held jointly by the Trade Union Educational League and the Young Workers League.

The grove, at Altenheim, Forest Park, will be decorated in a novel manner. Booths will be trimmed and every effort made to add a gay, festive spirit to the occasion.

The facilities of the grove are well suited for the affair. Plenty of tables and benches, all in a deep shade and under large trees, will give comfort to the crowd. A large part of the grove is grass covered for those wanting to get closer to earth.

Swings and a merry-go-round promise a day's fun for the children and a dance pavilion will take care of those with an interest in another movement. A splendid (and union) orchestra has been hired for the occasion.

Food will be dispensed in a generous and efficient manner by the Amalgamated Food Workers, who will receive help from the Hungarian group of militants and young workers... as well as some waitresses mighty easy to look at.

Well-Known Rebels to Speak. Short talks by Bob Minor, Jack Johnstone and Max Schachtman will alone be worth while coming to hear.

The grove is easy to get to. The Forest Park L. (Metropolitan) will take you directly to the gates. Or one can take the Madison St. car and transfer to the suburban line.
