

STATE POLICE ALWAYS USED TO BREAK STRIKES AND ARE NEVER ON RURAL PAROL AS CLAIMED

(Article 11)
By MANUEL GOMEZ.

Some women is writing a series of romantic fairy tales for the Chicago Daily News glorifying the "American coasts."
It is part of the propaganda referred to in these columns yesterday. Big Business admits openly that the state police force which it is trying to set up in Illinois thru the medium of the Dunlap bill is patterned after the mounted constabulary of Pennsylvania (known to all workers as "American coasts"), and it therefore is necessary for the prostitute publicity agents of capitalism to spread the word that the Pennsylvania troopers are the epitome of honor, integrity, kindness, courage and gallantry. But the workers do not know that "coasts" are for nothing.

AS WE SEE IT By T. J. O'FLAHERTY

The British working class have no reason to be proud of the accomplishments of the late Sir George Lloyd, who functioned as His Majesty's government. But it is an ill wind that does not blow some good, and one of the blessings that the elevation of MacDonald and company to the government brought to the British working class was the elimination of Frank Hodges from the official leadership of Great Britain.

OUTSIDE of the national workers' union in Germany, the M. F. of G. I. is the strongest industrial union in the world, at least nominally. It has the largest membership in the world, at least nominally. It has the largest membership in the world, at least nominally.

WHEN Hodges decided to become the nominal head of His Majesty's navy, the miners requested that he relinquish his post as secretary of the union. To this he refused. He wanted to keep his post as secretary of the union. To this he refused.

THE London Daily Herald carries a very interesting news item on the subject of the local reactionary opposition and the left wingers. A. J. Cook, is now in London as secretary of the miners. He is a fighter and a staunch supporter of the British miners' movement.

ONE of the biggest industrial battles in the history of Great Britain is expected to take place before the end of the year. The miners will be the first to step into the arena. It is leading the offensive. Like a good general he is seeking allies, among the transport workers and railway men. This is the Communist program, the program that the Communists have been advocating for the past few years.

A NEW Triple Alliance is the immediate aim of the militants who want to face the enemy with a united front. Therefore, a battle royal is being waged inside the ranks of the British trade unions. Frank Hodges is lined up with the coal operators and is fighting Cook and his supporters. Hodges wants a five-year's term like John L. Lewis of the I. M. W. of A. he does not mention the miners or show any concern for the workers. He talks of the "country" and the "industry as a whole." Cook says in effect, "To hell with the miners and (Continued on page 2)

In the March number of the American Federationist (appropriately printed with a yellow cover), the official organ of the executive council of the A. GENERAL LOCKOUT IN DENMARK AND SWEDEN AGAINST UNION LABOR

(Special to The Daily Worker)
COPENHAGEN, Denmark, March 19.—A general lockout against Denmark has been effected tonight following the failure of this morning's negotiations between the employers and workers.

There were already 50,000 out of work today, and it is expected that this number will be doubled by the end of the week.

A lockout in Sweden covering a large number of industries also went into effect today.

WORKERS (COMMUNIST) PARTY URGES
NEED OF CO-OPERATION BETWEEN AMERICAN AND CHINESE MASSES

The Central Executive Committee of the Workers (Communist) Party has issued a statement on the need for cooperation of the Chinese and American masses, and the problems of their great leader, as follows:

SUN Yat Sen, leader of the majority of the Chinese people, who is dying, is the cause of Chinese independence and no one in this world can fill the place left vacant by the late Sun Yat Sen in the ranks of the party of Chinese independence.

SUN Yat Sen was the son of the robber capitalist nations. He fought steadily and bravely against all the schemes of imperialism for the establishment of the Chinese masses.

He and the Kuomintang party was the staunchest bulwark of the Peking government against the plots of the imperialist bandits, also his (Continued on page 5)

MILLIONS SPENT HERE BY POLAND FOR AMMUNITION

Most of U. S. Loan Goes to Gunmakers

NEW YORK, March 19.—The government of Poland has contracted with the Colt Firearms company to buy $300,000 worth of machine guns and small arms equipment, Frank C. Nichols, vice-president of the company, announced here on his return from Europe.

Over twenty million dollars has been spent from the American loan on army supplies, and the army budget is being spent in the purchase of war supplies from American concerns.

The American loan is looked upon as an attempt of the American capitalists to compete with French imperialism for the domination of Poland.

MINERS HARDEST
HIT BY DEATH
DEALING STORM

Estimate 1,000 Dead; Workers Are Destitute

(Special to The Daily Worker)
WEST FRANKFORD, Ill., March 19.—The blackened figures of coal dust clung just as they were when they fell from the mine pits, waiting to find the bodies of their loved ones, or searching for food and blankets.

The storm laid a trail of one thousand dead and mangled members of their families in its wake here, still burning today, added to the thousands of miners who have ever known.

Many Disaster Appals. Miners who are used to sudden death, visited without warning in the murky coal pits, miners who for years have known the hardship of unemployment, strikes and lockouts, were appalled today at the wreckage and death left by the cyclone.

Word reached here that 100 employees of the Hoinz pits factory at Princeton, Illinois, were killed or fatally injured. The factory was completely demolished, while the men were at work.

The C. and P. railroad shops at West Frankfort and the M. and O. railroad shops at Murphysboro have been entirely wiped out, with hundreds of employees killed or injured.

The towns of West Frankfort, with 18,000 population and Murphysboro, with 18,000 population, in the heart of the Southern Illinois coal mining district were almost completely wiped out, the fire which followed adding to the terrible scenes of horror and death. Here dead bodies were still visible in the wreckage houses, and dead strewn the streets.

Many Mine Towns Hit. Many were killed and injured in the coal mining and farming towns of Gorin, Gorham, Deo, Bush, Hurst, West Frankfort, Hopewell, Logan, Park, Thompsonville, McLeansboro, Carmi, Crossville, Illinois, and others in the Southern Illinois, Tennessee, Missouri.

Early reports said that the storm hit Downersville first, but later details were received from that town. Duquoin, Illinois, the coal mining center near Charleston, was said to be in the path of the storm.

TRADE UNION EDUCATIONAL LEAGUE CALLS FOR SUPPORT OF FIGHTING NOVA SCOTIA COAL MINE STRIKERS

Outlining the ultimate struggle that confronts the Nova Scotia coal miners with the British Empire Steel Corporation, the national committee of the Trade Union Educational League has called on all workers to come to their support in a statement issued as follows:

FOR years the British Empire Steel Corporation and the Canadian government have, by united effort, tried to crush the militant fighting miners of Nova Scotia. In 1923, with the aid of the reactionary John L. Lewis, they were able to break the Steel Workers' Union, and now all the powers of "BESCO" and the state are being mobilized to complete the job by reducing the miners to the same helpless position as the steel workers.

"BESCO" is brutally frank in its purpose and confident of the result. "We intend to have the best BESCO," says the head BESCO. "They can't stand the gaff. We hold the cards. Let them stay out two months for six months, it matters not. We will eventually win." Here is capitalism stark naked. We hold the cards. Only those who are starved, you, your wives and children are hungry, you will come to us at our terms, says the head BESCO. This is a challenge to the working class of North America. 'B. & O.' JOHNSTON TO SPEAK BEFORE 'PROGRESSIVES'

Tattered Remnants of C. P. P. A. Meet

(Special to The Daily Worker)
CLEVELAND, O., March 19.—The hopeful remnants of the local C. P. P. A., facetiously termed the "Collection of Tattered Remnants of America," are going to stage a commemorative ceremony here on Friday, where the latter and existing progressive party of Cuyahoga has invited his tattered majesty "B. & O." Johnston, to speak.

Because the sick man of Wisconsin carried this city, the petty bourgeois and labor bureaucracy of this section still think that they can wedge into power somehow if only they keep trying.

Respectable—But Ancient Mash. The roster of the party's executive committee is a list of very ancient hash. Albert Coyle is the chairman, while the rest are an assortment of yellow socialists and socialists, labor "leaders" and hungry office seekers in whose hands the party is present.

Max Hayes, of course, is present, with Henry Raise the publicity man for the Communist Federation of Labor and the Communist Party, and Charlie and Marie Wing of the "progressive" councilman.

Johns has fallen upon evil days of late, and since his February defeat at Chicago, and the ever-growing anarchy among the members of his class to his pet "B. & O." plan of class collaboration with the capitalist, he has not especially added to his popularity.

34 MINERS ARE STILL ENTOMBED IN N. W. A. MINE

Rescuers Believe They Will Be Found Dead

BARRACASVILLE, W. Va., March 19.—Not all 34 miners in a mine's everyday life staked in this little town today, leaving out despair its wails.

Thirty-four men are still entombed in the Bethlehem Mines corporation, where they were struck 300 feet below the surface by an explosion Tuesday night, and unless all signs found in the mine fail, the workers will be brought out dead, according to many of the rescue workers.

After which broke out in the mine late yesterday was holding back rescue work today.

The fire was discovered in one of the headings of the No. 41 mine of the Bethlehem Mines corporation. R. M. Leach, chief of the West Virginia inspectors, declared tonight: "He added the blaze had not extended over a large area and was expected to be under control in a short time.

The fire was encountered in the right heading. It broke out where it killed twenty-two of the thirty-four missing miners, were working when struck by an explosion late night. The other twelve men are believed to have been working in the left heading.

Battle Tangled Wreckage. The rescue work has been hindered by tangled wreckage and fallen timbers which must be removed before the rescue workers can get to the right to distribute leaflets issued by the local A. C. W.

Against His Monstrous Despotism of control over the very lives of the workers, and the treacherous collusion with the bosses to wipe out all resistance to the class collaboration schemes which threaten the workers' standards, the members of the A. C. W. are storming by hundreds at the office of Lewis, pouring out resolutions, demanding that such tyranny shall be stopped and the members, all in good standing, be restored to their jobs in the shops.

The workers demand that no member of the union shall be robbed of his chance to make a living by any such means as the present. They demand that the mine owners be forced to drive the militant workers out of the mine, or to allow them to stay or to leave their trade, is so (Continued on page 2)

PHILADELPHIA POLICE BREAK UP COMMUNIST OPEN FUR ON THE PRETEXT OF WRONG SIZED FLAG

(Special to The Daily Worker)
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 19.—The Workers Party Open Forum conducted every Sunday evening at the Grand Fraternity Hall was disrupted by the Philadelphia police Sunday, March 15, on the flimsy pretext that the American flag that must be displayed at all public meetings was not the correct size.

The Pennsylvania law calls for a flag 66 by 92 inches, while the flag at the Workers Party Open Forum has about 10 inches under size. The city detective who ordered the meeting dispersed was offered a compromise by the committee to pin two flags together and make for the shortage which he unconditionally refused. It was pointed out that hundreds of meetings have been held in the same hall with the same size flag and they were never molested, but this made little difference to this righteous minion of the law.

A large audience was present to hear Comrade M. J. O'Connell speak on "General Staff of the World Revolution" when the disturbance was made by the police department.

The chairman of the evening, Comrade S. Sklaroff, explained the situation to the audience after all efforts were exhausted to borrow a proper sized flag, and assured them that the open forum would continue next Sunday in spite of this unwarranted and outrageous action of the police.

YOUNG WORKERS LEAGUE STIRS UP BALTIMORE

Umbrella Factory Has Rotten Conditions

By THOMAS N. AMERKING. (Special to The Daily Worker). BALTIMORE, Md., March 18.—Two members and one sympathizer of the Young Workers' League in this city employed at the Pollock and Rath umbrella factory were fired from their jobs because they dared to raise voices of protest against the rotten conditions and starvation wages as well as appealing to the workers to organize themselves into a trade union.

The workers of the umbrella factories here are miserably exploited and are compelled to work under most greedy conditions imaginable. Employees on time work are paid from $7.15 a week, and even those who really rush themselves to death at piece work can make no more than $15 to $17 a week.

The workers of the shop are supposed to work nine hours a day, the doors of the factory suppose to open at 5 o'clock in the morning. But one usually finds the workers slaving at their benches shortly after 7 a. m. One also finds the boys leaving the shop working during the half hour allowed for lunch.

The workers are compelled to put in this extra time in order to earn a starvation wage which is hardly enough to keep one from starving. The owners of the shop do not care to keep it clean and sanitary, the ventilation is poor, the machinery is swept for several days. It was against these rotten conditions that the members of the Young Workers' League called upon the shop to prepare to protest.

Y. W. L. Calls Meeting. A leaflet was issued by the shop nucleus of the Young Workers' League called all the workers of the shop to a mass meeting to discuss the question of organizing a union. The workers began to think and the bosses became alarmed. The members of the Young Workers' League were immediately called to the office and "busted."

The agents of the bosses were stationed at the doors of the hall to see who would come to the meeting. They were stationed at the factory gate to see that no leaflets or copies of the Young Workers' League were taken out of the factory.

Are We Disheartened? No! The action of the bosses did not in the least discourage the members of the league, but rather encouraged them to keep up the fight against exploitation and starvation wages.

The workers are called upon to support the Young Workers' League and Workers' Party, to elect their official organs—the Young Worker and the DAILY WORKER and to attend the Young Workers' League meetings that are held at 1135 East Baltimore St., second floor, every Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Shop Nucleus Number Five Functioning Well

Shop nucleus No. 5, Chicago made up printers, machinists, janitors and other workers with a membership of 150. It is functioning very well. The secretary, Comrade D. The agents of the bosses were stationed at the doors of the hall to see who would come to the meeting. They were stationed at the factory gate to see that no leaflets or copies of the Young Workers' League were taken out of the factory.

Trachtenberg Speaks Sunday on United States Imperialism. (Special to The Daily Worker). NEW YORK, March 19.—What is the distinctive feature of our age? Is America an Imperialist Power? Alexander Trachtenberg will answer these questions in a lecture on "American Imperialism," at the new headquarters of the Workers' (Communist) Party, 1201 Park Ave., Brooklyn, on Sunday evening, March 22.

The lecture will be one of the series of lectures delivered under the auspices of the Brownsville section of the Workers' Party, which is conducting an open forum.

Urge American-Chinese Unity

When China was partitioned among the imperialist nations and the power of resistance of the Chinese masses seemed broken, Sun Yat Sen rallied them and placed his party in the vanguard of the struggle.

When Japan, at the beginning of the world war in 1914, demanded that China surrender her sovereignty, it was Sun Yat Sen who maintained to those darkest days the mass organization that was to become a great force not only in the Far East but in world politics.

The Russian revolution and the victory of the workers and peasants who had grown under the rule of the czar as the Chinese workers and peasants groaned under the yoke of imperialism, brot a flood of new comsciences to China. Sun Yat Sen was the first in China to see in the workers' and peasants' government of Russia a powerful ally of the Chinese people.

He understood the Russian revolution all he was not Communist. Starting his career as a preacher of peace and understanding as opposed to warfare, by the logic of events he came to the belief in the necessity for armed struggle if the masses were ever to work out their own destiny.

He organized the workers of Canton and fought the exactions of the merchant ship-owners. More than an exploiter of the Chinese workers and peasants against the British ship-owners in 1922.

It was under the protection of the Canton government that the All-Pacific Conference of Transport Workers was held in 1924.

Sun Yat Sen from the first was a champion of the recognition of Soviet Russia by the Chinese government and it was largely through his influence and activity that the treaty was signed.

He fought for the wresting of the Chinese Eastern Railway from the western capitalists and for its control jointly by China and Russia.

Not only have the workers and peasants of China lost a great leader but the working class of Soviet Russia and all the world as well.

The Workers' (Communist) Party of America joins with the (Communist) parties of the world and with the Communist International in expressing their sympathy for the death of Sun Yat Sen.

Long live the memory of Sun Yat Sen! The great liberator of China! Long live the memory of Lenin! The great liberator of the Russian workers and peasants and of the working class of the world! Long live the Communist International! The legacy of Lenin to the workers of the world!

It was organized July 15, 1897 to take over 14 enterprises engaged in the cotton business. In 1897 it acquired the entire preference and ordinary shares of H. F. & J. Alexander & Co. Ltd. and 1,197,500 common shares of the American Thread Co. It has a controlling interest in the following eighteen cotton manufacturing companies:

H. F. & J. Alexander & Co. Ltd. American Thread Co. Lawrence Arden Ltd. Sir Richard Arkwright & Sons Ltd. Edmund Ashworth & Sons Ltd. Bagley & Wright Ltd. Wm Clapperton & Co. Ltd. J. The office of the corporation is in the National Building, St. Marys Park Square, Manchester, England. The balance before dividends was in English pounds: 1919—2,533,743 1920—730,124 1921—599,745 1922—348,160 1923—625,778

Multiply these sums by five to get the approximate American equivalent in dollars.

Sure Profits! The workers produce dividends regularly. They see it to that the bond holders ($5,000,000 outstanding) get their 4 per cent a year. They are from the next to the best rating, "Aa," which signifies that they are still superior in all essential respects.

At to the ordinary shares, the rating is "B," which means that it is successully rated and paid its dividends during a period of depression.

Workers are subjected to unemployment, and wage reductions, but the Par value of a share of common is $1 or $5. The ordinary dividends paid for the year ending March 31: 1919—20 per cent. 1920—15 per cent. 1921—15 per cent. 1922—15 per cent. 1923—20 per cent. Feb-1924—Interim dividend of 5 per cent.

Such is the tale of prosperity for the English coupon clipper, like the absentee landlords who grow fat on the misery of the peasants.

The time has come for the workers of Williamite to write a new declaration of independence to declare their determination to free themselves from industrial slavery, not merely from the hands of Englishmen, but from American and other capitalist hostile barons as well.

The first step is to beat the company into submission, to get back the 10 per cent cut and to demand higher wages, until the life and happiness of a worker must stand before profits for parasites.
