Sounds Warning

The Labor Defense Council today ssued a warning to all workers and workers' organizations against the deportation methods of the department of labor of the United States and particularly against the deportation bill which is now before the senate after having passed the house (House BIII No. 11796).

Recently the capitalist papers carried "news" based on the boast of the the department of labor that some 5,000 had been deported in the last year. News also leaked out in labor papers of the underhanded "deportation" of some transport workers from New York City. These workers had disappeared and it was only when they wrote their friends from Ellis Island that the "shanghaing" came to light.

Now however, the government in ends with the aid of a carefully prepared "legal" and "democratic" deportation bill to systematically deport 'undesirable" alien workers. Who are these undesirables and what is the purpose of the bill?

A Union Smashing Bill.

In calling upon the workers of New York City to attend a mass meeting April 3 at Manhattan Lyceum, the New York division of the Labor Defense Council says "This bill threatens the whole working class in a manner unknown in this country. The purpo of the bill is clear. The United Mine Workers, the needle workers, and the textile workers are primarily foreign born workers. The unskilled workers on the railroads are foreign born; many of the building workers are aliens. When depression comes, followed by wage slashes and longer hours for those who can still find jobs, the government will have a convenient weapon against the foreign born workers, viz., "deportation." They point out that the most active trade unionists in this country are, in great part, foreign born workers, (Continued on page 2)

It is not often, however, that one of them, comes out so openly as "Scrutator" the "radical" expert of the Chicago Tribune.

"Scrutator" is a renegade radical and while his slam at Marxism is about all that could be expected from a slimy creature who writes to suit his boss, his picture of the socialists in the role of conservatives is correct. In proportion as the yellow socialists turn to the right the masses, whose exploitation continues with greater intensity desert them and turn to the Communists. Scrutator's article in The Chicago Tribune of April 1, follows:

If any one had predicted ten years ago that the world's financial centers would feel reassured by an increase of the socialist vote in any country he would have thrown doubt upon his own sanity.

Yet the showing of the social democratic party in the German elections probably carries such reassurance, and a victory for the out and out conservatives would have caused alarm, as it would have been felt that the measure of European settlement already achieved would be imperiled. Yes, the world changes-and so

A German socialist today, like Vic- those out on strike and if our mem- textile barons. tor Berger, mostly imagined that he is a socialist, while in fact he has a most respectable bourgeois mentality.

A complete socialist government of Germany probably would amount to nothing more radical than a socialist government in Milwaukee, which has long ago become a commonplace.

A political platform usually is the last place to look for a change in a party's mind. Usually the old slogans are carried in the preamble and resolutions long after the stuff is dead. Witness the democratic party of dry southern states reaffirming Jefferson and Jackson after eight years of Wilsonian federal autocracy that would have shocked Hamilton.

But the present program of the socialist party of Germany reveals a great change. Adopted in 1921 on the reuniting of the party after the war split, it is conspicuous for its abandonment of many pet Marxian dogmas, including the disappearance of the middle classes and the impoverishment and expropriation of the working classes. Even a faith so fanatical as that of Marx couldn't retain these old formulas in the face of years and years of history that showed that they were not true, and that they were becoming less true as time passed. If German socialism has been thus weakened and diluted despite national defeat, poverty, and reduction of living standards resulting from the war, need we be surprised that everywhere else it is becoming more and more practical and opportunist-"yellow" instead of "red."

At its present rate of progress toward reformism and away from revolution socialism will be politically less radical than the populist party of 1892 the "pop" stuff is now the law of the were hit by flying embers, altho, in the deal.

But as insidious reformism, sapping jured. the springs of individual enterprise. socialism may prove more dangerous to civilization than in its older form, in which it caused alarm and stiffened

American Reds must be told that Leavenworth or Atlanta is a better living place for them than New York City." And "Reds" of course, are all workers who fight against reaction, wage cuts longer hours, open shop, company unions, and for better conditions, strengthening of unions thru amal gamation, etc.

Want Docile Slaves. What the government and the bos ses want is docile wage slaves. How do the bosses get around the immigration quota regulations when they want cheap labor in quantities in certain sections? Why, there is a convenient arrangement under which Mexican and other workers are brot into the United States under the contract system, and supposedly shipped back when the job is done.

Not so long ago the American Civil Liberties Union reported "The fear of radicalism has very largely abated as a result of the sweeping conservative victory in the campaign and there will be less interference with their propaganda." In relation to this statement a religious weekly (!) asked 'Are we to judge that the failure of their cause is the only way to insure free speech for 'pink' lips?" But evidently the cause has not failed, and there will be continued interference in spite of the Civil Liberties Union's statement. The government now aims to divide the workers, and hopes to break this resistance by centering the attack on the foreign born. So the fight must and will go on.

Dropped One Case.

Only recently the Labor Defense Council has had to take up the cases of John Schedel, Blais Kuush, Thomas Klein, E. Vajtauer, John Lassen and the three Young Workers in New York City, all of whom are involved under existing deportation laws. On direct appeal to the Secretary of Labor, deportation proceedings against Klein were abandoned, due principal ly to the fact that Klein has a dependant wife and seven children in this country. It is hoped that the Schedel case, where the situation is NEW YORK, April 1.-A New York similar to that of Klein, will also be banking syndicate headed by Dillon, dropped. After long and unsuccessful efforts in the courts the defense was only able to get permission for Kuush to voluntarily deport himself to Russia. Workers Seeking Power BE COMBATTED Are Today's Victims of Labor Defense Council Class That Oppresses Mass Meeting in N

By J. LOUIS ENGDAHL.

CODAY, workers may well interest themselves in the activities of the state's attorney's office in the so-called Shepherd case. It is just an incident that the same terroristic methods are being used by Crowe's frame-up gang in this case, that feature every attack on labor.

There is this difference, however. William D. Shepherd has a million to back his fight. The newspapers are alternately friendly to him and to the state's attorney's office. Shepherd's case gets before, "the public" without prejudice, in fact, the Hearst press is pretty much on his side. Shepherd's case will get before the jury, without prejudice, in the promised murder trial. All of which is denied workers who threaten the employer's power.

This sensational murder case has developed into open warfare over witnesses who say they can "blow the whole Shepherd case out of the water." There is an Earl Clark who made an affidavit that he "had never seen any germs of any nature in Faiman's school." He is promptly arrested by Crowe's office. Then there is a Mrs. Luella Rhuebell, another former attache of Faiman's school, who claims she had "never seen a letter written by Shepherd" that Faiman said was sent to him inquiring about a course in bacteriology. Crowe's police are immediately put on her trail, but she eludes capture at her apartment by getting away via the fire

All of which will no doubt develop interesting clashes at the trial. But no one will get hurt.

It is different when a worker, like Salsedo, held captive in the federal offices of the capitalist state on a top floor of a New York skyscraper, is driven mad by the persecution to which he is subjected, and leaps from the window of his prison, being crushed to death on the pavement far below. That was during one of the "red raids" that had the endorsement, if not the actual participation, of both the Shepherds and the Crowes. In the Salsedo case, for instance, the kept press of the metropolis was all on one side, on the side of capitalist prosecutors.

But the piffle writers of the yellow dailies are also at liberty to expatiate at great length on the murder, by John Bircher, aged 73, of his wife, after which he committed suicide. Bircher had prayed publicly for the conversion of his wife to his religious views. When she refused to be converted he murdered her. None other than Arthur Brisbane, 'again of the Hearst press, finds comfort in the fact that:

"There was a time, not long ago, when nations and organized religions within the nations did on a gigantic scale exactly what this half-crazy man in Ohio did to his wife."

Which raises the question whether Bircher or Brisbane is insane; no doubt both. Bircher is a survival of the religious intolerance that is dying out, because religion feels itself powerful enough to get along without crucifying its opponents. One of the highest points in Chicago is the tip of a cross on top of a "loop" skyscraper owned by a church. All religious sects are backing one creed in New York City today in the building of a $15,000,000 cathedral. The church feels secure in its place under capitalism and it can afford to be tolerant of its enemies, at least for the time bring. Not so the capitalist state that protects it.

When the Brisbane-Hearst outfit called for the blood of Mooney and Billings, in California, as it did, it was not much different from Bircher, the religious fanatic turned murderer

It wasn't the catholic church in Poland that sought the blood of Stanislav Lanzutsky. But it was the church's best protector, the Polish capitalist state. It is capitalism that fears for its life today. It murders and throws into prison by the tens and hundreds of thousands the political dissenters of today, the Communists, just as surely as the Roman Caesars threw Christians to the lions in the arena twenty centuries ago, or the British church in the early 17th century drove dissenters across the Atlantic to find new homes on the unsettled shores of the American continent.

Brisbane isn't a Nero. But he would like to be one. He is just a little scribbler for the great capitalist Neroes of this day, who send workers to the gallows, or to prison, when they protest against the torture of labor today in the world's great industries of this century.

It is the dread of the destruction of this insane capitalist system that unites myriads of madmen like Brisbane, the journalist; Shepherd, the little capitalist; Mundelein, the churchman; Crowe, the prosecutor, in support of the capitalist state with its nominal heads like Coolidge, in the United States; Mussolini, in Italy; Horthy, in Hungary, or Grabski, in Poland. In the war against Communism all these defenders of capitalism are no more sane than Bircher, the Ohio murderer, crazed in defense of his religion. Every oppressing class breeds its own brand of madmen. Communism comes to rid the world of all oppressors. It comes to bring sanity to this earth.

FOREIGN-BO

York Friday Night

(Special to The Daily Worker.) NEW YORK, April 1.—Every ign-born worker in the United Sta is in danger owing to a new l The house of representatives passed Bill No. 11,796 which make it possible to deport any worker accused of a crime. This is a new stee in American "democracy." To be sure there is a constitution, to be sure every American capitalist is proud of the Declaration of Independence, to be sure we especially the capitalists -have welcomed every foreign-born worker who came to this country.

But things are different now. The country faces severe labor struggles. The decline of industry, the farming crisis, the increasing competition of foreign countries, the surplus production in American industry, all of these, things indicate without a doubt that the workers will be compelled to fight against the coming wage cuts, longer hours and worse conditions. The workers are not likely to submit.

Hence the government is forging a weapon to use against a large part of the working class of the country when the time comes. The foreign born are among the best militants of the country-both among the organized and unorganized workers. They are not afraid of a fight-and will not stand back when the struggle is on. They are a menace to capitalist power. The new law will make it possible for the government to hand any obstreperous foreign-born worker over to the immigration authorities and he will immediately be deported.

Do the workers intend to stand this? Does the entire working class of the United States contemplate accepting these new conditions which mean a splitting of the labor movement-something that the capitalists always plan and bring about? The workers must show their colors. The Labor Defense Council has called a meeting at Manhattan Lyceum, 66 E. 4th St., on Friday, April 3, at 8 p. m. The speakers will be Comrades Weinstone, Amter, Baron, Wexler, M. Epstein. Zam. Workers come and protest against the new law. Organize to protect yourselves against the new terroristic methods of the United States government.

The characteristic of the pre-war social-democratic trade union movement was the thought of the possibility of arriving at the new society by gradual transition, separate victories and separate changes of society. In this way, the overthrow of capitalism was not the aim of these unions, but the gradual change of society. And this development of socialist from a capitalist society they visioned as a develoned form of democracy, a developed

"General Strike is Party Business." The social-democratic trade union movement stands separate from the social-democratic party. It believes somewhat in a division of function: The party has to do with politics, we, the trade unions, have to do with economics. Cotton mills thruout the country are averaging 208 hours of operation per spindle, compared with 194 hours in February, 1924. But Secy. C. S. Green says: "Mills will soon reduce operations by a cut of approximately 25 per cent."

The sharp contrast between average hours in New England and the south during. February is shown in the department of commerce figures:

Southern states with 17,420,952 pindles reported 4,780,000,000 spindle hours operation while New England with a million more spindles reported only 2,770,000,000 spindle hours, about two million less. In 1924 New England lost nearly 400,000 spindles while southern states gained 570,000.

Better Move the Union Along. What this means is revealed in the in the annual report of the New England Southern Mills, a Massachusetts corporation. It says: "A year ago we had under way the moving of 35,-000 spinning spindles and 15,000 twister spindles from Lowell, LeRoy and Newburyport plants to a new building under construction at Hogansville, Ga., At Tucapau, S. C., we have installed the necessary machinery for the manufacture of crash toweling. These crashes were formerly made at the old Stark Mills in Manchester, N. H.'

The Manufacturers' Record reports that the equipment of the new Worth mills of Forth Worth, Tex., consisting of 16,000 spindles was moved from the airhaven mills of New Bedford, Mass. The company's statement decribes this as the transplanting of a ind gloats over the fact that 2,000 workers applied for the 350 jobs availble when the mill opened.

Gompers Was Sane Included LaFollette

WASHINGTON, D. C .- It appears that when the widow of Sam Gompers last week gave up her fight to get more from his estate than the legal minimum which he left her in his will, made just before he started to Mexico, some interesting developments were lost to mankind.

Samuel, Junior, who got the bulk of the estate, was prepared to bring witnesses to prove that Samuel, Senior, was in his right mind when he made the will. Among others, these witnesses included Senator LaFollette.

Samuel, Junior, has been and is getting along famously as a government piecard under the republican administration of both Harding and Coolidge. He is chief clerk in the U. S. department of labor, the chief function of which is to betray strikes with so-called "mediation," to prevent any "radicals" from getting into the country, and to deport them without trial if they get radical after they work for Judge Gary and the other open shoppers.

Samuel, Senior, leaves a $25,000 home in Washington, among other legacies, including bonds in some investment not revealed.

FEDERAL OFFICER PROPAGANDIZES AGAINST NEGROES

Rouses Protest

(Special to The Dally Worker) NEW YORK, April 1-Use of the department of labor's privilege of free malling (franking) for the purpose of spreading vicious anti-Negro propaganda has aroused vigorous protest and a demand for the dismissal of the department agent involved.

W. A. Plecker, the culprit, is a Virginian, and has been using his government franking privileges to distribute free of charge a pamphlet entitled "Eugenics in Relation to the New Family and the Law on Racial Integrity" of which he is a co-author and which describes our black fellow workers as members of a lower race who must be treated as inferior.

"Dr. Plecker is an avowed anti-Negro propagandist," says the protest to U. S. Secretary of Labor Davis. "What he has to say . . . is insulting to all colored American citizens, but when as an official of the United States department of labor he sends this matter out under government frank and at the expense of the common tax payers, his actions become a public outrage."

By TOM MATTHEWS.

"HE first warm days of summer will soon be here. The Young Workers Leaguers, like the live-wires that they are, will set out across the country on their annual hikes, many of them from coast-to-coast. The building tradesmen in the Workers Party and Trade Union Educational League will move about from town to town as their work may dictate. The agricultural workers will be out in the fields. Party members engaged in winter-season occupations will take their flivvers out on vacation tripe.

All of these will have the opportunity of their life to do ploneer work in building and extending the lines of the Communist movement in this country. Along with every tool box and every knapsack must go the DAILY WORKER—the tools of Communist BUILDERS. Every small town factory or railroad shop, every farmer's door or mail box must be visited with the DAILY WORKER. Every group of agricultural workers in the fields or orchards must be made acquainted with the DAILY WORKER.

If you are so fortunate as to possess an automobile, then LOAD IT UP WITH THE DAILY WORKER. You needn't wait for that crosscountry trip, but go out to those near-by towns or factories on your Saturday afternoons or Sundays with your bundle of the DAILY WORKER. Whether you sell them or give them away, see to it that they are placed into the hands of new readers whom you will find glad to make the acquaintance of a fighting labor daily.

Tools Are Important

Like an expert craftsman, a thoro Communist is very critical very careful in the choice of the tools he must work with.

He views closely every method that will better build the revolutionary movement. And for him, in addition to correct principles and practice, the means of their most efficient promotion is essential.

Carefully, closely, the Communist calculates every little item that aids to build for working class power.

The DAILY WORKER contributes to the Communist revolutionary craftsman a small tool that well serves his purpose:—a small leather binder.

Snuggly fitting your pocket, you may find in this binder the book for your shop-mate (perhaps the clinching argument to "make another Communist"); a descriptive catalogue of every Communist book and pamphlet; all Communist publications (in all languages)-more useful information and note paper for your convenience.

Rigid Rules Imposed."

Now comes the news that the entire senior class and a large number of other students at Fisk university have left the school with the intention of entering other and more liberal universities in the north-if they can get in.

Superficially, the revolt of these colored men and women may appear unimportant. And the officials of the university, using the white capitalist press and some of the more reactionary of the colored newspapers as their mouth-piece, have been doing all in their power to make it appear that the rebellion is based entirely on a desire of the girls to wear clothing more unconventional than the stringent rules of the school permit, or a desire of the men to read or write later than 10 o'clock on one or two evenings a week, at least.

Towards World Trade Union Unity

The question of unity of the working class organizations against the powerful attacks of European and American capitalism has become of pressing importance. It is more than important: it is fateful for the future of our movement and the movement of the organized workers of the world.

In the last few months the prospect of securing that unity has definitely come nearer. But unity will not be achieved unless the representatives of the trade unions (head offices, districts and branches) and the mass of the workers themselves are fully aware of the urgency of the question and the need of giving it our strongest backing. In this country one of our great difficulties in the past . . . has been . . . lack of the necessary news of what was going on in each separate country. . . . The so-called socialist press in continental countries cannot be relied upon at the present time (as I know from my personal experience all the time we were in Russia and also in Amsterdam) to give an unbiased presentation of facts.

The above are extracts from the preface written by A. A. Purcell, president of the International Federation of Trade Unions, to the first issue of the special supplement, devoted to international trade union unity, to the Monthly Circular of the labor research department of the British Trades Union Congress.

The publication of this bulletin has been made necessary by the sabotage of the unity drive by the right wing of Amsterdam and by the Second Inter-

the conduct of official representatives of the other trade union movements (with certain laudable exceptions) has been one of extreme hostility to proposals emanating from the General Council of our Trade Union Congress and that this hostility has led them into acts of trickery-it is best to speak plainly-towards our own trade union movement cannot be doubted. To see this it is only necessary to read some of the statements they made succeeding our I. F. T. U. meeting at Amsterdam this month. Both Oudegeest and Jouhaux (not to speak of Vorwarts) have made it plain that they regard the so-called "compromise" motion carried there as a smart piece of work that defeats our nine months' endeavor to attain international unity thru the medium of an "immediate unconditional conference."

More Polish Capitalist Brutality

The Polish government by shooting on their way to Soviet Russia two Communist prisoners who were to be exchanged has set the world a new precedent in studied brutality and disregard of all international agreements.

The theory of the Polish government seems to be that with the backing of France and America it can bathe in the blood of the workers to its heart's content. This theory may have some basis in fact as it is certainly true that Soviet Russia will not make war on Poland even to save the lives of devoted revolutionists.

But there are other matters that the Polish government would do well to consider, such as the former rather friendly attitude of the masses outside of Poland to her desire for national freedom. the interest with which her attempts to restore national unity were watched, the toleration with which the bloody excesses of her government were at first received. Even when she started war on Soviet Russia at the behest of allied imperialism she had the sympathy of millions of workers who

All this is changed. The Polish workers altho a rigid censorship exists and the jails are filled with trade unionists and revolutionists, have succeeded thru the Communist International, in getting the ear of millions of their fellow workers. It is a hopelessly ignorant worker who does not know today that the Polish government is a government of murderers, grafters and degenerates that first betrayed the Polish masses to the allied imperialists, slaughtered thousands in a counter-revolutionary war and that now crushes mercilessly trade unions and revolts alike.

Poland is caught between Germany and Russia. Her natural resources and factories are being plundered by French adventurers who plan on the the United States capitalists are existence of Poland for ten years only. The masses are poverty-stricken, but the landlords and capital ists have greatly enriched themselves. Economically, Poland cannot survive as a national entity. Politically she will go down beneath the feet of her working class when they can bear no more.

When that day comes the Polish ruling class will pay for every broken strike, for every torture, for every murdered worker and for such bloody at Orchestra Hall. He gave the first brutalities as that of shooting working class prisoners on their way to be exchanged.

The news from Germany following the indecisive election returns indicates clearly the hopeless bankruptcy of the social-democracy. The socialist press echoes the liberal press and announces its willingness to support a candidate of the catholic and revitalizes the too often dead and civilian guards and police shot at each center party to defeat the nationalists and monarchists.
