We Are Falling Behind---Speed Up to Keep The DAILY WORKER

DONATIONS are not coming in quickly enough and big enough to KEEP THE DAILY WORKER.

We have been pounding away in our appeals to get $10,000 by October 18. The readers, friends and supporters of The DAILY WORKER have not responded to this hurry call. Obviously, it's our fault. We have not been able to bring the point

The situation we are in is very far from good. There would be no use in throwing sand into your eyes. We must from today on double the rate of our income in the drive to KEEP THE DAILY WORKER.

Up to Monday, October 18, the total received in the campaign to KEEP THE DAILY WORKER was $8,504.32. This is good work, but not good enough, in view of the demands and difficulties The DAILY WORKER is facing.

We are sure our appeal is not going to fail and has not fallen on deaf ears. The last week's income has shown a surprising improvement. The KEEP THE DAILY WORKER army is certainly rallying and delivering results,

All one has to do to see that The DAILY WORKER has a real place in the hearts of thousands of our working men and working women is to look at the leap in the money turned in to us in the last week to KEEP THE DAILY WORKER:

Indeed this is an achievement worthy of genuine proletarian pride. What better proof could one look for to find that The DAILY WORKER really has an urgent need to fulfil and that It is meeting this need to the satisfaction of the class conscious

At this pace we will have the fifty thousand dollars in ten weeks more of campaigning to KEEP THE DAILY WORKER. But we surely can and will improve as the drive gains mo-

Rosenwald, of Sears & Roebuck, Behind Deal

A political deal by which Frank L. Smith, Samuel Insull's republican nominee for senator in Hilnois, would be tendered a federal appointment by President Coolidge's administration if he withdrew from the senatorial campaign was told to the senate B. Safford, state superintendent of the Anti-saloon League at the re-opening of the slush fund inquiry into the Illinois "million dollar" primary.

The deal was revealed to him, Safford said, by Rev. Robert O'Brien, a Chicago Presbyterian minister. It never went through Safford added, and O'Brien later supported the Republican independent candidacy of Hugh S. Magill. Safford also testified that O'Brien told him that Magill's backers had raised a campaign fund of "between $300,000 and $400,-000" in the senatorial race.

The witness added that O'Brien declared this money would be spen through "loopholes" in the federal corrupt practices act.

Julius Rosenwald Behind Deal.

The alleged deal to give Col. Smith a federal appointment was arranged by "Julius Rosenwald, multimillionaire head of Sears Roebuck," Safford said O'Brien had told him. The wit- be discontinued. ness added that O'Brien said Rosenwald had made a special trip to Washington to arrange the appointment with "The Coolidge administration."

Safford first told of "discussing the Illinois senatorial "race" with Rev. Robert O'Brien, the Chicago minister. Safford said O'Brien was interested in getting an independent candidate to run in place of Frank L. Smith, the republican nominee.

"Rev. O'Brien told me he repre sented Julius Rosenwald, Harold L. Ickes and Col. A. V. Smith of Washington." said Safford. BY MAX BEDACHT THE Russian Revolution has torn the mask of revolutionary integrity off many a petty bourgeois Philistine. In the storm of a revolution the sanctimonious sermons of "inallenable rights of humans" are buried under the inalienable rights of the revolutionary class.

The parlor revolutionists of old saw in the problem of the boheme the problems of the whole world. And now, when the problems of the whole world are accentuated in a real and unadulterated revolution the boheme is aghast for finding its own problems buried beneath

American capitalism also has made its contribution to the world of la boheme. One of the outstanding figures of that bohemian world was Max Eastman.

MAX EASTMAN was a liberal, petty bourgeois who saw in his own little conflicts with the American big bourgeoisie and its government the conflict of the ages. Max Eastman went to Russia. He hoped to appeal to the Russian Revolution against the big bourgeoisie which had wronged him. But Eastman came back appealing to the big bourgeoisie of the world

Eastman not only appeals. He also cashes in on the appeal. He "produces" evidence against the Russian Revolution. But he also produces evidence against the appellant and against the court of appeals. To prove its bias the court, the capitalist press, pays a fat fee to the appellant for the "evidence." And to prove his own rascallty the appellant pockets the (Special to The Daily Worker) CLEARFIELD, Pa., Oct. 18. - The miners' union must clean out the cor ruptionists who are more friendly to the coal operators than to the men, says John Brophy, president of the central Pennsylvania miners and candidate for International president of the United Mine Workers of America, in a press statement, replying to John L. Lewis' accusations of a Bolshevik plot. Lewis' charge that outside influences were behind the Brophy candidacy are branded as a "smoke screen" to hide the failure of the present administration to save the union. The statement follows:

"My attention has just been called to an article in the New York Times of October 13, relating to a letter alleged to have been read by one of the delegates at the American Federaion of Labor convention. This letter, purporting to have been written by Albert Coyle, editor, Locomotive Engineers Journal, to Powers Hapgood, coal miner of District No. 2, United Mine Workers of America, is concerned with plans for a labor paper and also with my candidacy for international president of the mine workers.

Candidacy Based on Program.

Communist Party of the Soviet Union as the Opposition Leaders Accept the Conditions that are Presented to Them

(Special to The Daily Worker)

MOSCOW, U. S. S. R., Oct. 18. - The Pravda, official organ of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union, published a statement today concerning the situation within the party. Among other things, the statement deals with the minimum demands of the Central Committee to the opposition.

to the committee regarding the expediency of restoring "harmony and co-operation." It also contained declarations signed by Zinoviev, Trotsky, Kamenev, Piatakoff, Sokolnikoff, Evdokimoff, accepting the conditions presented to them. The signatories of the statement declare that they will unconditionally abide by all decisions of the 14th Party Congress, all decisions of the Central Committee, as well as all decisions of the Central Control Commission.

"HEY agree to carry out all obligations put upon them by these committees and to call upon their followers to do the same. They reject categorically the theory and practice of "freedom of fractions and groupings." The leaders of the opposition declare resolutely to give up all factional methods in the defense of their views and call upon their adherents to dissolve immediately all factional groupings formed around the opposition. The signatories of the declaration recognize that their actions in Moscow and in Leningrad violated the decision of the Central Committee concerning the inadmissibility of discussion.

They also recognize that they have done wrong in mentioning at the 14th Congress about the Stockholm conference because altho Krupskaya certainly did not have it in her mind, yet mentioning it could be interpreted as a threat to split. The signatories further declare that they consider the views of Ossovsky, Medvedeff (advocating the liquidation of the Comintern and the Profintern, attempting to unite with the socialdemocracy, extending the policy of concessions beyond the limit set by Lenin, etc.) as basically wrong and completely contrary to their views.

THEY further subscribe completely to the estimation given by Lenin I to the platform of Shliapnikoff and Medvedoff. The signatories further declare that they consider absolutely Inadmissible any support direct or indirect of any factional groups within any of the sections of the Comintern whether it be the group of Ruth Fisher, Masloff, Urbans and Weber in Germany, Souvarine in France or Bordiga in Italy.

Assuming political responsibility for the actions of those of their adherents who were expelled from the party on account of their break of discipline by indulging in factional methods of struggle the signatories express their hope of a complete cessation of the factional struggle on the part of those expelled oppositionists, which would provide the possibility for all of the repenting members of the opposition to be reaccepted in the party. In conclusion, the signatories declare that they will undertake the obligations to assist the party by all means in the liquidation of the factional strife and in the prevention of a recurrence of a violation of party discipline.

THE statement of the Central Committee points out that the declaration of the opposition may be considered as the minimum prerequisites guaranteeing the party unity. It declares further that the next task consists of continuing the ideological struggle against the mistakes in principle of the opposition which were not repudiated, and in taking all measures to put into effect the minimum of understanding reached, thus giving life to the agreement and securing the party unity.

Brookwood Representative Describes Trip

(BLES)-The following letter has een written from Moscow, Russia, by Thomas L. Dabney, a graduate of Brookwood Labor College last year. Dabney is a member of the American student delegation to Russia. Other colleges and universities represented by the 12 members of the delegation include Columbia, University of Pittsburgh, Occidental College and Washington University.

Mocvow, July 9. The members of the American student delegation to Soviet Russia were most cordially received on our arrival at Moscow Saturday, July 2. A large reception committee of students met us at the station with cars and accompanied us to our hotel. We were confronted with cameras on every side. Pravda and other Moscow papers have carried news stories about the delegation every day since our arrival.

Russian Students Eager. The students whom we have me are not interested in the educational problems of Russia but they are eager to get all the information they can on the problems of education-in America I have never seen so many serious orward-looking students anywhere as I have seen in the three schools in Moscow which we have visited. Our delegation has visited the first Moscow State University, the Transport Engineers' College and the Timir jaseff Agricultural Academy. At each of these schools we were given a warm reception by an official of the school. Altho it is vacation time, a considerable number of students are still at these schools-some helping miners' union. Again and again I saved our delegation embarrassment by mentioning Brookwood and other labor schools.

Bridging Gap. Russian students are eager to do what they can to bridge the present gap between themselves and the American students. They would welcome the opportunity to exchange stu dents with American colleges. After we paid a visit to Lunacharsky, a student told me that plans were on to send a student to Brookwood and they were glad to meet a representa tive from Brookwood and find out something about the school. When ever possible I have assured Russian students that the few liberal students in America are interested in the progress of education in the Soviet Union and regard themselves as a part of the great movement of liberal students in all countries .- Thomas L. # Truth Is Trickling Thru in Spite of Every Effort of the New England Gang

By J. LOUIS ENGDAHL.

"FOR Christ's sake, tell him the truth!"

This appeal, in the dark of the Dedham, Mass., jail to the self-confessed payroll bandit, Celestino Madeiros, came instinctively from the lips of Nicola Sacco.

Sacco evidently thought that it was the only kind of an appeal that would get across to the convicted youth, Madeiros, who, at the age of 26, stands in the shadow of death because of his part in the Wrentham, Mass., National Bank robbery.

Madeiros has confessed to his part in the South Braintree holdup and robbery that is charged against Sacco and Vanzetti and for which they have been convicted and sentenced to death. Madeiros says Sacco and Vanzetti are not involved in the crime. But Madeiros has so far refused to give the full names of those associated with him in the

William G. Thompson, attorney for Sacco and Vanzetti in their demands for a new trial, signs the affidavit telling of the visit with Madeiros on May 20, this year. The visit was secured thru permission granted by Prosecuting Attorney Ranney. Thompson urged upon Madeiros the importance of disclosing the full names of his associates in the South Braintree affair. This Madeiros still steadfastly declined to do. The loyalty of the underworld, that forbids one criminal to "peach" upon another, held as ada-

Thompson did the talking to Madeiros. The sole purpose of having Sacco present, said Thompson, was that he thought that Madeiros might be willing to make a full disclosure if he were in the actual presence of the man, Sacco, in danger of suffering from the South Braintree affair, with which Madeiros knew Sacco had had absolutely no connection.

Thompson, in his affidavit, now on file with Judge Webster Thayer, who has the power to grant a new trial, declares that the only contribution that Sacco made to his talk with Madeiros was a remark, frequently repeated by Sacco to Madeiros, "For Christ's sake, tell him

But the appeal to "the Christ" is a common one, bantered hither and thither in murky places in jails and prisons, often spat upon. It fell same picture. with no effect upon the calloused Madeiros, who evidently thought he had already done enough to help Sacco and Vanzetti escape the electric chair.

Yet the convicted criminal, Madeiros, who made death for himself so much more certain because of the aid he has already given Sacco and Vanzetti in their fight for their lives, stands out sky-high against the grovelling politician, John Garibaldi Sargent, attorney-general of the United States government, member of Coolidge's cabinet, who even refuses to answer letters requesting that the government reveal secrets it has in its possession that would prove the innocence of the two Italian worker victims of New England greed.

Yet in spite of the New England gang,-Senator Butler, Attorney-General Sargent and Cal Coolidge himself-the truth is trickling thru.

Thus the conscience-stricken. Feri Felixus Weiss, department of justice agent, writes to the Boston Globe, as reported in The DAILY WORKER yesterday, verifying the affidavit of John Ruzzamenti, to the effect that the latter was to be used as a spy against Sacco. Thus the net tightens about the department of justice as it loosens about Sacco and Vanzetti.

Thus Attorney Thompson also tells of an interview he had with the late Captain William H. Proctor, in which the latter revealed details of the manner in which the Sacco-Vanzetti frame-up had been prepared. Proctor said that a number of the government's identification witnesses who subsequently identified Sacco as doing the shooting, had previously, in his office, identified the photograph of another man as being the murderer. PROCTOR DECLARED THAT HE WAS SATISFIED THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD GOTTEN THE WRONG MEN, AND HE HAD SO NOTIFIED THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY BEFORE THE TRIAL.

Proctor had declined to put this statement into his affidavit, but said he would be obliged to make it if put on the witness stand and examined orally. It is just such testimony as this that the Sacco-Vanzetti defense forces wish to drive into the open at the new trial that is being demanded.

Of course, the alliance of the Sargent-Butler-Coolidge department of justice with the shoe factory-textile mill owned local prosecutors, strives just as energetically to prevent the new trial because the promised revelations will do more than anything else to expose before the whole American workingclass the real nature of the criminal capitalist sys-. . .

Attorney Thompson also reported to Judge Thayer an original statement by a Pinkerton operative that Miss Splaine, who testified at the Sacco-Vanzetti trial as a government witness, had previously identified a picture of "Tony the Wop," alias Anthony Palmisani, as the man she saw in the automobile; that Albert Frantello also thought "The Wop" was the man she saw; that Messrs. Wade and Hans Behrisin selected a picture of Palmisani, that the witness Bostock selected the

Thus even the government's witnesses had failed to identify either Sacco or Vanzetti as members of the bandit party that got the payroll after committing murder at South Braintree.

But the frame-up squad of the New England gang, by various methods best known to themselves, got witnesses to perjure themselves in order to secure the conviction of Sacco and Vanzetti. The courts still have the power to make this wholesale perjury stick and to send both Sacco and Vanzetti to their doom. Only the power of protest of labor can save them.

Tomorrow - Government agents sent to interview Celestino Madeiros are told by him that his statement absolving Sacco and Vanzetti from any part in the South Braintree shooting and robbery is true.

FLORIDA STORM DAMAGED POOR PERSONS MOST

Rich Homes are O. K., Plutes are Assured

BALTIMORE, Oct. 18.-How the poor bore the brunt of suffering in Glorida's great hurricane disaster is graphically told by the Seaboard Air Line railway management in a fullpage advertisement in the Baltimore Sun, urging tourists to come back to the Florida hotels in December.

Hides Red Cross Exposure.

"It is regrettable," says the Seaboard Air Line, "that the good faith of certain public officials in Florida has been questioned by a high official of the American Red Cross because of their statements limiting the storm damage to actual conditions . . . It is unfortunate that calls for money for helping those in distress were not confined to the directions in which relief was required."

With this rebuke to John Barton Payne and the Red Cross national convention for exposing the attempt of the real estate and raiload and hotel interests to stop collection of funds for families whose little homes had been destroyed, because it "hurt business," the railroad makes these assertions of fact:

"Only" Poor Hurt.

1. At Miami, dwellings and other buildings of flimsy construction were damaged to the extent of 70 per cent. Hotels and other modern built structures were damaged only slightly, altho 85 per cent of them sustained some injury.

2. The storm fell hardest on the poorer classes of the communities" and on 125 automobile camps in the storm area.

3., Rehabilitation is going forward rapidly, and the principal streets of Miami and Coral Gables now give little outward evidences of the storm. 4. Polo, golf, tennis and other amusement grounds will be ready for the coming season including the race

With these assurances, the railroad invites the prosperous classes to return to the "world's winter playground."

Goodyear Company in Legal War Over Finance Juggling

AKRON, Ohio, Oct. 18 .- On October 9, before Judge Kenfield in common pleas court, the common stockholders and the officials of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company will begin a battle over the future of the company. The question to be determined is, whether the re-financing plans of the Goodyear Company made in 1921 are valid.

Suits that were begun by Laura Weiss and which attacked the legality of the re-financing plan are to be re-opened. At that time the management of Goodyear was taken out of the hands of stockholders and put into the control of bankers who furnished capital when Goodyear was bady in need of it.

A few days ago, Paul Litchfield, president of the Goodyear Company, offered a compromise plan whereby $50,000,000 worth of bonds maturing in 1941, and bearing 8% interest, would be converted into bonds maturing in 1956 and bearing 51/2% interest. Frank Seiberling, chairman of the voting trustees, and their spokesman -and also head of the Seiberling Rubber and Tire Company, a competing concern-led the assault that brought about the rejection of the

The demonstration was to have ended in a march to city hall to interview the mayor, but his absence from the city caused that part of the program to be withdrawn.

At the close of the mass meeting, strike leaders resumed conferences with the representatives of the Cloak, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers' Industrial Council. These conferences continued thru the afternoon and talk of an early settlement of the strike has been given impetus by the additional evidence that the labor movement is standing firmly behind the cloakmakers and has adopted the policy of nullification of the injunction on which the employers depended.

The New South Wales Labor government has sent a cable to England warning miners intending to immiago it said in its columns the followgrate that there is much unemployment.

MELBOURNE-(FP)-During 1925, the tendency of wages was upwards, the net average increase for all workers being 66c per week. The greatest increase was in the Labor state of Queensland, where 184,595 workers received an average weekly increase of $1.14. Working hours of men during the year averaged 46 hours per week (all workers), while for women the average number was 45% per week.

WELLINGTON- (FP)- The New Zealand parliament has passed the and a new socialist-republican party family allowances bill, which provides for a bonus of 50c per week for each child in a family after the third child. The Labor party urged that the amount be $1.25 per week, but the ginning to realize that the Communist government contended it had too little money. The parents of approximately 60,000 children will benefit.

BULGARIAN GOVERNMENT LAUNCHES NEW "WAVE OF TERROR" AGAINST THE WORKERS, WHOLESALE ARRESTS MADE

BULGARIA, Oct. 18-The bourgeois press recently reported that in Bulgaria a new "conspiracy" had been revealed, that arrests had taken place and that the innocent people among the arrested had been released again.

In truth, however, these arrests were only a pretext in order to strengthen the white terror in Bulgaria. Even the newspaper Slowo had to admit that the so-called "conspiracy" had been a perfectly harmless affair.

As for the Angel City "Evening Booster" and "Evening Howler" and "Evening Roarer," the situation confronting them was this: if they could connect the Bolshevik conspiracy in PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 18.—The embittered toward Governor Ed Jack-workers (Communist) Party election for not pardoning him. Jackson was known to have been in a danger-street, they would have several hundred dollars' additional sales; Southern Pacific University with the bomb explosion in Wall campaign is now in full swing in the was one of his many pawns who did ous condition when the workers were while if they failed to make the connection, they would lose this amount to some more clever rival. This being the case, it took the "Evening Howler" about one hour to remember that "The The miners declared in the state- Investigator" had featured Harry Seager, and to ascertain from ment that they feel an effort has been the agents of the American Defense League that at a recent mass meeting this Seager had fiercely denounced the firm of Morgan and Company, and predicted a dire fate for them. So, in its third edition, on the streets about one o'clock, the "Evening Howler" told the world:

That was taking a chance, as the headline writer of the 'Evening Howler' would have admitted with a grin; but he He is now seeking re-election. The shaft Pabst mine of the Oliver Iron knew his business, and sure enough, before the day was by, & war veteran came into the editorial office with confirmation. Two days ago he had ridden on a public stage with Harry Seager, and had got into conversation and heard the sentence: "You mark my words and watch the papers, within three days you will read that the House of Morgan has paid for its crimes in this war." It is only fair to the shell-shocked soldier to add that he may "We feel that an effort has been have been sincere in his statement, for it happened that the two made to smother any investigation of men in their conversation had touched upon the Polish invasion this accident, and we commend the of Russia, then at its height, and Seager had uttered the sen-Ashland Daily Press for its efforts to tence, "You mark my words and watch the papers, within three days you will read that the Poles are back of where they are now.

Prior to this incident, the office door of the Seager Business College had been chewed to a ragged edge by the chisels of detectives and other patriots breaking their way in at night; but on the night after this "bomb expose" they used an axe, and when Seager arrived in the morning he found every desk-drawer in the place not merely his own, but the students', dumped onto the floor, and trampled beneath the hob-nailed boots of patriotism. So the fools were badgered and browbeaten on every hand; they were summoned to the Dean's office one by one and there racked and cross-questioned—and not merely by President Cowper and Dean Squirge, but by various stern gentlemen representing the district attorney and the city prosecutor and the federal secret service and the patriotic newspapers and the defense societies and the information service of the once-upon-a-time ambassador of a no-longerexisting Russian government.

When Bunny Ross realized that this was happening, there was another explosion. Being a rich man's son, he was accustomed to having his rights, and more. So of the first of his questioners he demanded, "Who are you, and what brings you

"Now, Ross," said Dean Squirge, "if there are evil men threatening our country's welfare, you certainly do not wish to

"All we want to know is, what you know about a man called Paul Watkins."

So there it was; either Bunny must submit to being crossthe corporations had boosted the game Charles Cline, famous class-war pri- relief committee $270 in cash. Every questioned by detectives, or else he must have everybody decide that he was hiding some dark secrets about Paul. Said he: "Paul Watkins is my best friend. I have known him for seven or eight years. He is the straightest man I have ever known, bar none. He has come home sick, after a year and a half in the army in Siberia. He could claim an allowance from the government if he wasn't too proud. What he did to me was to tell me what he saw with his own eyes, and I believe every word of it. And I am, going to tell it to other people, inside the university or out, and no one is going to stop me."

So that was that, and Bunny was excused for the present. They would tackle the less wealthy conspirators—beginning with Peter Nagle, most guilty of all, because his name had appeared on the paper as editor. Peter was commanded forthwith to recant his impoliteness to God, and he swore by God that he wouldn't; so the "Evening Howler" carried a two-column head:

Student Red Let Out

And Peter grinned and said for the rest of the bunch not to worry, he was going into the plumbing business and get his revenge on society; and when he had made some money he would publish a paper of his own and kid the life out of God every week.

And then came the turn of Rachel Menzies. She had been warned by Bunny as to the secret agents, and had promised to give them a piece of her mind; but they had a way to break her nerve. Just what had been her father's share in this conspiracy? They had ascertained that Papa Menzies had been born in Poland, and under the new deportation laws it didn't matter what you believed or what you had done, they could cancel your naturalization papers, and grab you and ship you away, leaving your family behind to starve, if it so happened. You had no trial, and 5.00 no recourse of any sort. And furthermore, if a man was dumped

Something New-Negro Women Strikers

The strike of some 150 or 200 Negro women employed by a Chicago confectionary concern in protest against a wage-cut is one of the encouraging signs of movement among unorganized workers in low-paid and unskilled occupations.

The number of workers involved in this struggle is insignificant, but the strike is important first, because it is a strike of Negroes and second, because it is a strike of Negro women workers the most exploited and harassed section of the Negro masses.

Able to make a maximum of $14 per week only by the most intensive and sustained labor at piece-work, an attempt to reduce this miserable wage still further resulted in the strike. Unorganized, these women secured aid from the American Negro Labor Congress, the sympathy of every worker who Habeas Corpus Hearing set up a temporary organization and have now the support of the Chicago Federation of Labor and the Women's Trade Union League.

The manner in which the labor movement has responded to the appeal of these workers makes one of the few bright spots in recent | She told how the fight was not only

The Chicago Federation of Labor unanimously pledged its support at its Sunday meeting and this support must not be allowed to dissipate itself in the passing of resolutions but be expressed in charge of the strike the mill barons concrete organizational steps.

China is a nation in arms, a nation of 440,000,000 people, 400,000,000 of whom are workers and peasants. The weakness of China has been the internal divisions encouraged and capitalized by the would-be conquerors of China. Today the alignment is that of the nationalist movement under the leadership of the Kuomingtang against Chang Tso-lin-the sole remaining effective military force opposing the armies of liberation.

Sun Chuan Fang has no mass support and must retreat to Shanghai or surrender.

In this manner have all the theories about the inability of the Chinese people to understand or maintain national unity been proven fallacious-as all such theories must fail which view history week end, with another victim claimed statically and fail to take into account the influence of industrial by the gangsters, and four others development and such epoch-marking events as the Russian revolution and the establishment of the workers' and peasants' government of the Soviet Union as a beacon light marking for all the oppressed punctured by five bullets, was found peoples the way they must travel.

The final hour of Sunday's session of the Chicago Federation of Labor was enlivened by an appeal for the support of the Passaic textile strikers, nade by Rebecca Grecht of the United Textile Workers.

ST. LOUIS-(FP)-The Missouri Association for Criminal Justice, composed of silk hat lawyers, has just completed an alleged survey of crime conditions and drafted a program of proposed legislation which will be urged upon the next state legislature.

Sweeping changes in court procedure are recommended, but the one in which labor is most vitally interested is a state constabulary. The Missouri State Federation of Second, to make an attack on the Russian Revolution, sufficiently disguised to fool even friends.

It is not the first time that Max Eastman has manipulated with this material. A year and a half ago he was already on the rampage-"to help Trotsky against the conspiracy of the central committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union." The thanks he received from Trotsky for this "service" should have warned him against further campaigns of that sort. COMRADE KRUPSKAYA, whose party interest Eastman pretended to defend a year and a half ago, and whose interest he is now again pretending to defend in an attempt to cover up his real mercenary interests in the matter, declared of Eastman's ise of Comrade Lenin's "will:"

"Eastman invents various fictions about Lenin's letters to the party congresses - calling them 'testaments.' Eastman fails absolutely to understand the spirit of our party . . . The real testament of Lenin is contained in the last articles he wrote and relates to fundamental questions of party and Soviet work. All his articles have been published. But Eastof the Russian Communist Party to calumniate and discredit the central committee by alleging that the 'testament' has been 'concealed.' " rade Krupskaya characterizes Eastman's ravings as follows:

"The author is only concerned to gather up and smack his lips over every scrap of gossip and color it with his petty bourgeois anarchist leanings."

THE capitalist world is hard up for material to slander the Russian Revolution. The facts of revolutionary reconstruction in Russia speak so loud that the proletariat of the world is gradually becoming convinced that of all the national groups of the working class of Europe the Russian workers have selected the best road out of the utter economic and political bankruptcy into which the rule of the bourgeoisie had thrown them. The standard of living of the Russian worker is constantly going up. The economic security of the Soviet Union is increasing hourly. ### Baltimore Republican City Employes Insist on Helping Democrats

BALTIMORE, Oct. 8 .- (FP) - In an ronical editorial the Baltimore Sun describes the bleeding of city charwomen and watchmen to the amount of $2 and $5 respectively by the democratic campaign committee, on a

'voluntary" basis. "What can Howard Bruce, chairman of the democratic committee, do in the circumstances?" it asks. "He does not wish these poor people to contribute even on the easy installment plan; more, he insists that he tions . . . But the charwomen, and the little republican jobholders, and the aged republican watchmen, are irresistible in their passion to give to the funds of the democratic party . . . If the collectors should seriously re sist, doubtless each collector would be knocked flat on his back by some io-year-old charwoman who would
