

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY BY THE Milwaukee Social Democratic Publishing Co.

Directors:—S. H. Thomas, Pres.; Victor L. Berger, Vice-Pres.; Chas. T. H. Westphal, Secy., and Treas.; Seymour Steinman, John Doerflinger, Sr., Dr. Theo. Burmeister, Edmund T. Melius, Eugene H. Kooney, Jacob Winnes.

Official Paper of the Federated Trade Council of Milwaukee and of the Wisconsin State Federation of Labor.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—One year, 50 cents. In clubs of three, $1.25. Six months, 25 cents. No papers sent to any one on credit. If, without having subscribed, you receive it, then it has been subscribed for by a friend and no bill will follow. Foreign subscriptions, $1.00.

BUNDLE RATES. Less than 100 copies, per copy . . . . .01 100 copies or more, per 100 . . . . .75 200 copies or more, per copy . . . . .75c

Weekly Bundles. Five copies, 3 months, to one address . . . . .50 Ten copies, 3 months, to one address . . . . .90 Five copies, one year, to one address . . . . .1.50 Ten copies, one year, to one address . . . . .2.50 Twenty-five copies, one year, to one address . . . . .6.00 Fifty copies, one year, to one address . . . . .10.00

Advertising Rates furnished on application. We reserve the right to terminate any advertising contract without notice.

Receipts of Remittances for Subscriptions are acknowledged by the number on the wrapper. Separate receipts are never sent.

Address all communications, money orders, etc., to the Milwaukee Social Democratic Publishing Co. 614 State St., Milwaukee, Wis. Tel. Main 2894. H. W. BURROUGHS, Bus. Mgr.

246 is the number of this paper. If the number on your wrapper is 247 your subscription expires with the next week's paper. Please renew promptly.

Entered at Milwaukee Post-office as Second-class Matter, Aug. 20, 1901. MILWAUKEE, SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 1903.

If you are receiving this paper without having subscribed for it, we ask you to remember that it has been paid for by a friend.

ROLL OF HONOR.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Amount. Includes Union Secretaries Fund, Previously reported $298.80, A. Jones 1.00, Montana 70, Charles A. Schaub 30, Peter J. Schneider 50, Wm. E. M., Chicago 1.00. Total $297.70.

Fair Warning!

The business department asks us to impress it upon Herald readers that the supply of Wilshire postals is now about exhausted and that if anyone wants to get in on the Herald-Wilshire combination they must speak right away! When the supply runs out we will simply have to return your money, if you continue sending it.

COMRADES, VOTE FOR CHICAGO!

Our branch members who are affiliated nationally are urged to note carefully the communication from National Secretary Malloy on the last page of this issue relative to the referendum on national headquarters. We urge the comrades to vote for Chicago as against Omaha, as Chicago is within the radius of industrial activity of the United States, where the Socialist movement, by the natural logic of events, must come into closest contact with capitalism. This is no disparagement of the agrarian activity, for the Herald has long been known as an advocate of the importance of converting the farmers and of a farmers' programme. One Socialist paper has advocated putting the headquarters in some obscure place, but we are not cowards. We believe our cause is righteous and imperative and we believe in facing the enemy squarely. Another reason why Chicago should be selected is that a national campaign is coming on and the campaign work should be directed from a central point accessible to all leading railroads and near at hand in emergencies.

NOTES BY THE WAY.

I am no longer surprised at any injunction issued. I believe the issuing of such writs as Judge Adams' brings the administration of justice into contempt. It breeds discontent, and we will reap the whirlwind of injunction—in their favor. It is time to call a halt.—Judge Tuley.

The Scientific American in its issue of February 14, shows that in fifteen consecutive days this year American railroads have killed seventy-seven passengers. The British railroads, carrying more passengers and running its trains at a higher rate of speed, have not taken a single life in fifteen consecutive months.

"I feel that we are nearing the end of our fight, because this magnificent gathering tells me the workers are at last awakening to a sense of their duty. It is only when our masters see us politically organized that they fear us and realize our power. As long as we are content with an industrial organization the capitalists can get injunctions against us and can send troops to shoot us down. But when we gain control of the government they will not have the power to shoot us. We will be the government."—Mother Jones, at big Auditorium meeting, Chicago.

Justice Truax says bigamy is too much of a bad nowadays, says the People. It is a fact that only the wealthy can indulge in such a most workingman and it difficult to support one wife, let alone two.

A great social revolution is in sight, says the Rev. Henry V. Dyke, professor of English literature in Princeton University.

The Tobacco Trust last year had net earnings of $2,000,000. As the total net earnings of the entire tobacco industry in this country was estimated at $50,000,000 last year, the trust seems to have gotten a pretty good clutch on the field.

What to do next—make use of those "Are Socialists Practical?" leaflets while they last. 500, 60 cents.

Look at Our Book List. And Remember that we furnish any Book on the Market. Literary Agency, Social Democratic Party, 614 State Street, Milwaukee.

BURIED THE OLD PARTIES IN MONTANA.

Butte, Mont., April 8.—I have just returned to Butte from Anaconda, after having had the pleasant duty of officiating at a double funeral. Attending funerals is not always the most pleasant duty; however, this was an exception, as the vast majority of those attending were not only pleased and jubilant. "As the services proceeded," and when all was over, a shout of victory went up from the vast multitudes which made copper hills ring.

Last night we held a ratification meeting in the Family Theater at Anaconda. Great crowds turned out and packed the building to its utmost capacity. Hundreds could not gain access. We buried the old parties in the jaws of an aroused public opinion, and as we lowered their carcasses into the grave of political oblivion, and sealed them tight, the band played the Marseillaise, while the comrades shouted cheers of victory.

Out of a total of 2600, the Democratic nominee for mayor received about 600 votes, the Republican nominee about 800 votes, while the Socialists elected their mayor, polling over 1200 votes, the city treasurer, police magistrate and also three aldermen out of the six that were elected.

The comrades are greatly encouraged and are out after "more game." The new campaign opens in good shape and the boys are determined to push the fight to a finish. Steps are already under way for a thorough organization of the city. The Anaconda and Butte comrades are loyal workers. The result of the vote cast in Butte shows that the old parties lacked 400 votes of election, and our candidate for mayor, the so-called Labor party is dead, their candidate receiving 256 votes only. The Republicans and Democrats have joined hands, and now we have the line of battle as we have long hoped—Capitalism versus Socialism.

Keep your eyes on Butte, Anaconda and Montana, as the comrades march to greater victory in 1904!

EDITORIAL SHEARINGS.

The middle class people are willing to do anything for the worker except "to get off his back." This was never more aptly illustrated than in the case of W. R. Hearst, prince of fakers, whom a lot of other fakers are booming for President on a "Labor-Democratic ticket." Hearst is loud in his protestations of friendship for the working class; yet he works his engineers in New York twelve hours a day. See?—American Labor Union Journal.

Mr. Darrow made a clever move in supporting Harrison. He knew that he himself could not get the support of that paper, the American, which is supposed to be the workman's friend, but which was painfully silent on the big Socialist gathering at the Auditorium, because the American could not consistently support an Independent labor ticket now and at the same time expect the support of the Democrats when Will's Randy Hearst is pushed on to the people as the next Democratic nominee for President. Mr. Darrow, like the two-faced American and Examiner, is playing both ends against the middle. They want the support of the working class; yet he is the dyed-in-the-wool capitalist hereafter. How any man who wages slave can fail to see the duplicity in Hearst's papers in advertising the labor parties all they possibly could and then ask the working class to vote the Democratic ticket is incomprehensible.—Chicago Socialist.

Why is the government making "riot bullets"? Warranted to kill or cripple large numbers of Americans will be every discharge. Each state will be supplied with all they need. Who designed it? This performance of the war department which seems to have passed almost unnoticed in our country, gives grounds for humiliating contrasts. Foreigners cannot understand it except on the theory that we are in a state of violent and secret disorder and they are commenting in their papers, accordingly.—The Labor Advocate.

The man who deliberately seabs is low and despicable enough. God knows! But what can be said of the thing that hires out to play the spy and the traitor on his fellows and does his worst to defeat their just demands and fair conditions and a reasonable compensation. The American language contains no expressions vile enough to describe such a vulture.—Pueblo Courier.

The robber barons who lived in castles in centuries gone by and who swooped in on travelers and collected toll with the sword, were mere petty larceny highwaymen compared with the Morgans and Rockefeller. The stock market gamblers of the Twentieth century could give the old barons cards in spades and tell them the name of the game.—Miners' Magazine.

When a person learns the first principles of Socialism they are so reasonable and plain that he accepts it and thinks he understands Socialism. He does; but after he has read or studied a year or two he finds that he is just beginning to get hold of the subject. He may keep this up for a great many years and still see more to learn. That is because Socialism is a science and related to every other part of life and its problems.—Colorado Chronicle.

Are You Distributing Literature?

The Social Democratic Herald in bundles at 1 cent a copy, 100 copies for 75 cents. Five copies to your address for three months for 50 cents!

SUPERIOR COURT, MILWAUKEE COUNTY.—Mary Fahr, Plaintiff, vs. Jacob Fahr, Defendant. The State of Wisconsin, to the said defendant: You are hereby summoned to appear with-in twenty days for service of the summons, exclusive of the day of service, and defend the above entitled action in the court aforesaid; and in case of your failure so to do judgment will be rendered against you according to the demand of the plaintiff, of which a copy is herewith served upon you.

RICHARD ELSNER, Plaintiff's Attorney. P. O. address, 140 North Avenue, Milwaukee, Milwaukee Co., Wis.

OUR BOOK LIST.

- 5-Cent Pamphlets. Why Physicians Should be Socialists. Father Hagerty. Socialism and Slavery, Hyndman. Socialism and the Intellectuals, Lafargue. The Living Wage, Blatchford. The Social Problem, May Wood Simons. The Evolution of the Class Struggle. Noyes. Packington, Simons. Slave Tax vs. Socialism, Simons. Socialism and the Farmers, Simons. Socialism and the Home, May W. Kerr. Socialism vs. Anarchy, Simons. The Philosophy of Socialism, Simons. The Man Under the Machine, Simons. Wage, Labor, and Capital, Marx. The Mission of the Working Class, Vail. The Trust Question. What? Vail. Rational Prohibition, Young. Intemperance and Poverty, Twining. Trusts and Imperialism, H. W. Wilshire. Money, Paper, Bonds, Books. What is Capital, Leacock. Social Democracy Red Book, Heath. The Passing of Capitalism, Ladoff. Britain for the British, Blatchford. Six Centuries of Work and Wages, Rogers. Beyond the Black Ocean, McGrady. Equality, Bellamy. The Co-operative Commonwealth. Grounding of Socialism. Collectivism and Industrial Evolution. (Cloth, 50 cents.)

Send for price-list on quantities of 5-cent pamphlets.

Send All Orders to LITERARY AGENCY SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY, 614 State St., Milwaukee.

BOOKS FREE.

Social Problems FREE. Address, ECONOMY SUPPLY CO., P. O. Box 27, Station C, Milwaukee, Wis.

Is Political Economy a Science? Milwaukee, Feb. 20.—Editor Herald: Political economy is a science when properly understood, but I defy any man or woman to prove it to be a science under the present miscellaneous confused system. From close study of the subject I am convinced that the present political economy to be classified as a science under the present confounding system of trading or the method now practiced in transacting general business; i. e., if we come down to its legitimate object to be truthfully guided by supply and demand; to buy in the cheapest market and sell in the dearest, which remarks of the shrewd announcement of Boname in saying "that Britain was merely a nation of shopkeepers." The present system of buying and selling goods is indeed a most pitiable method of competition, which engenders hatred, theft, jealousy, deceit and distrust among mankind, and frequently leads to national warfare, pitting nation against nation and shedding torrents of innocent human blood. Beside it creates an alarming amount of wasteful and unnecessary labor, which under the present competitive system overstocks the supply, drags the market and produces desperate and alarming crises, amounting to a crime of inhumanity, which for a period stops the buzz of machinery; clogs the wheels of commerce, and launches the laborer into the dreary and hopeless wilderness of the "Irish World" has the following to say of it:

Father McGrady is a comparatively young priest, full of humanitarianism, as well as zeal for souls. Early in his ministry the people around him in the sunny South, Texas and Kentucky, set him thinking and studying the labor question, the money question, and political economy in general. His publishers say he got hold of the wrong books first. The British school of economics as expounded by Malthus and Ricardo and Cobden, which talks of overproduction and overpopulation as causes of poverty. (Just think of it!)

The old free-trade and foreign-market school, with its plausible theories about cultivating natural advantages, turns rich countries like India and Ireland into purely agricultural countries, destroying and deporting their skilled labor and paying the laborer through that whole "dismal science" only muddles and disheartens the searcher after truth.

Out of this gloom Father McGrady came up to Henry George's single-tax panacea for poverty and crime, and for a while was captivated and cheered; but his active mind carried him beyond the single-tax theory, and was forced to recognize the view of the relations of labor and capital. His abolition of private capital, governmental ownership of everything in sight, its elimination of all competition by the common ownership of all the means of production, its nice balancing of hours of labor and rates of wages won him over completely. His enthusiasm finds an outlet in this story of commodities in which all these economies are finally triumphant. As a story it is a little too heavy for the average reader.

Father McGrady is an enthusiast, with a burning desire to rescue the masses from the grip of our modern "free trade." He would wipe out the whole system, root and branch, which the gigantic materialists have twisted to their own sordid designs, and he would erect in its stead a commonwealth under which the grub-a-lac could not if they wished to go on with their plundering schemes. He would not only prohibit them from robbing the fruit of the prohibited tree, but would cut down the tree itself, and then cheer the devil of his due.

The book should be read as widely as possible. It can be had for 50 cents in paper, or $1 in cloth binding, prepaid, by means of a check or money order, sent to the Standard Publishing Co., Terre Haute, Ind.

Our attention is now given to the term supply and demand. The word demand implies imperative authority and becomes absolute, therefore, according to the competitive method, instead of factory work being regulated by a general demand for goods; it continues operating on the doubtful scale of chance sales. Thus in every city throughout the United States and abroad, we perceive that the dry goods stores, shoe stores and stores containing common necessities are heaped up with manufactured goods that glut the market and in the course of time become obsolete or really unsalable, or becoming unfashionable. By the same reason, stored machinery which from the fact of improvements is driven out of the market and loses all claim to any demand. Still as the labor market is now unsystematically operated by private owners, we cannot close our eyes to the fact that thousands of individuals, yes, thousands of families, are in need of really in need of these made-up garments, shoes, etc., but do not possess the means (money) to demand them.

Does it not sound unreasonable when common sense teaches us that labor creates all wealth, that no wealth can be accumulated by means of labor, that we have to hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as "the only good laborer is the man, or common sailor." Then let me inform you that by a legitimate political economy, by a legitimate supply and demand of the earth's commodities, the laborer's family would be in possession of all the common necessities of life, before any person, monarch or otherwise, would be permitted to squander wealth or waste it in luxurious or in ostentatious display. Yet how often we hear the laborer despised by an unthoughtful upstart who never solled a finger and never earned a crust. Yet he hesitates not in uttering an uncouth ejaculation as

The Duty of Loyalty Begins with Loyalty to Self.—Like "Patriotism," Modern Bourgeois Loyalty is the Refuge of Scoundrels.

No truer words were ever written than "To thine own self be true." And it must follow as the night the day that those who are not true to themselves cannot be true to any man.

rebellious people, and yet the present day Englishmen would never surrender the privileges then asked for in vain. Who were disloyal in this case? The people who demanded what they saw to be good for the country or the people who broke their heads?

What We Social Democrats Are After.

The Socialist party, in national convention assembled, reaffirms its adherence to the principles of International Socialism, and declares its aim to be the organization of the working class, and those in sympathy with it, into a political party, with the object of conquering the powers of government and using them for the purpose of transforming the present system of private ownership of the means of production and distribution into collective ownership by the entire people.

Formerly the tools of production were simple and owned by the individual worker. Today the machine, which is but an improved and more developed tool of production, is owned by the capitalists and not by the workers. This ownership enables the capitalists to control the product and keep the workers dependent upon them.

Private ownership of the means of production and distribution is responsible for the ever-increasing uncertainty of livelihood and the poverty and misery of the working class, and it divides society into two hostile classes—the capitalists and wage-workers. The once powerful middle class is rapidly disappearing in the mill of competition. The struggle is now between the capitalist class and the working class. The possession of the means of livelihood gives to the capitalists the control of the government, the press, the pulpit and the schools, and enables them to reduce the workingmen to a state of intellectual, physical and social inferiority, political subservience and virtual slavery.

The economic interests of the capitalist class dominate our entire social system; the lives of the working class are recklessly sacrificed for profit, wars are fomented between nations, indiscriminate slaughter is encouraged and the destruction of whole races is sanctioned in order that the capitalists may extend their commercial dominion abroad and enhance their supremacy at home.

But the same economic causes which developed capitalism are leading to Socialism, which will abolish both the capitalist class and the class of wage-workers. And the active force in bringing about this new and higher order of society is the working class. All other classes, despite their apparent or actual conflicts, are alike interested in the upholding of the system of private ownership of the instruments of wealth production. The Democratic, Republican, the bourgeois public ownership parties, and all other parties which do not stand for the complete overthrow of the capitalist system of production, are alike political representatives of the capitalist class.

The workers can most effectively act as a class in their struggle against the collective powers of capitalism by constituting themselves into a political party, distinct from and opposed to all parties formed by the propertied classes.

While we declare that the development of economic conditions tends to the overthrow of the capitalist system, we recognize that the time and manner of the transition to Socialism also depends upon the stage of development reached by the proletariat. We, therefore, consider it of the utmost importance for the Socialist party to support all active efforts of the working class to better its condition and to elect Socialists to political offices, in order to facilitate the attainment of this end.

As such means we advocate: 1. The collective ownership of all means of transportation and communication and all other public utilities as well as of all industries controlled by monopolies, trusts and combines. No part of the revenue of such industries to be applied to the reduction of taxes on property of the capitalist class, but to be applied wholly to the increase of wages and shortening of the hours of labor of the employees, to the improvement of the service and diminishing the rates to the consumers.

2. The progressive reduction of the hours of labor and the increase of wages in order to decrease the share of the capitalist and increase the share of the worker in the product of labor.

3. State or national insurance of working people in case of accidents, lack of employment, sickness and want in old age; the funds for this purpose to be furnished by the government and to be administered under the control of the working class.

4. The inauguration of a system of public industries, public credit to be used for that purpose in order that the workers be secured the full product of their labor.

5. The education of all children up to the age of 18 years, and state and municipal aid for books, clothing and food.

6. Equal civil and political rights for men and women.

7. The initiative and referendum, proportional representation and the right of recall of representatives by their constituents.

But in advocating these measures as steps in the overthrow of capitalism and the establishment of the co-operative commonwealth, we warn the working class against the so-called public ownership movements as an attempt of the capitalist class to secure governmental control of public utilities for the purpose of obtaining greater security in the exploitation of other industries and not for the amelioration of the conditions of the working class.

Resolution on Trades Unions. The Socialist party will continue to give its aid and assistance to the economic struggles of organized labor regardless of the affiliation of the trade unions engaged in the struggle, and will take no sides in any dissensions or strikes within the trade union movement. The party will also continue to extend the sympathy and support of all trade organizations of labor without allowing itself to be made the ally of any one division of the trade union movement as against another.

thoughtfulness, of keen knowledge of humanity, of humility and strength combined, and above all of that feeling that prompts you to wrong no one but to seek the good of all. And yet which are the characters chosen by the world today, the social world, the business world, the political world? Beyond contradiction it is the base and brutal, the selfish plunderers who are filling the positions that should be filled by statesmen and men of honor. Look through the world today, and where do you find a nation that approaches the ideal of true greatness? Perhaps some mad tyrant like Great Britain, or some open her ports like China. If so, why did China open her ports to the opium trade? If so, why have millions starved in India under British rule at the same time that six billion dollars were being spent to secure a further addition to the domain of the empire, and an easier way for a lot of plunderers, royal and plebeian, Gentile and Jew, to exploit the resources of that new domain? Do you call a nation great that allows a few men (who happen to be eldest sons), to lay waste vast stretches of Scotland, driving out their own clansmen as one would drive out a lot of stray cur, in order to make game preserves? If you do, I do not.

Or perhaps your mind turns to the United States. If the United States were a great nation would the Philippine war have lasted one minute after the Spanish flag was lowered? Would the lynchings and torturings continue? Would the oppressions we daily read of continue in these great countries. If Russia, think of the famished thousands of Finland, if Germany and Austria were great nations would Poland be treated as she is treated? I say none of these are great nations, and why? Because those who have been chosen to guide the ship of state are untrue to the best interests of their country, have been disloyal. How could you expect those who did not believe in the opium war to be loyal to those responsible for it? How can you expect the starving Hindoo to be loyal to a nation that lets him die when two bits would keep him alive for a month, and then gets up a durbar or proxy coronation with seven and a half miles of elephants literally blazing with gold and silver and precious stones? I am using the word loyal now in the sense of obedience. How can you expect those who see in the opium-cursed Chinaman and the starving Hindoo and Finn fellow men to be "loyal"? How can you expect "loyalty" from the Scotch Crofter? If he could see past the man who evicted him there wouldn't be much patriotism about him. How can you expect the Filipino to be loyal to the country which now owns him, having bought and paid for him? He at any rate cannot brag of "his" country. How can the despised negro feel "loyal" to those who deprive him by force or fraud of his franchise, but greater than all, because a greater number are affected, is the question: How can the working class of these nations be "loyal"? That kind of loyalty that spells blind obedience, even blind worship? Consider their misery, their bare lives, consisting of a bare three meals a day (if they are lucky enough to have a master), and a few hours' sleep. Often the meals dwindle down to an almost invisible point, and the sleep to miserable unconsciousness secured in the most miserable shelter. Even at the best how many of the working class really live full, complete lives? Judges have granted injunctions almost beyond credence in some cases. One instance. During a great strike the world sent strikers from all over the world sent them money to buy food. Food was bought, loaded on cars, and shipped to the strikers. The traffic companies endeavored to sidetrack and lose or hold until the perishable goods spoiled, but granted an injunction forbidding the owners of the goods to distribute them. Would you be loyal in such a case? I doubt it. Thousands of such cases showing that the authorities back up the oppressors have been mentioned in the press, without condemnation, and even the pulpit glosses over the acts of the oppressor.

against the capitalists, in a gigantic struggle, the one for power and its results, the other for justice and its results. And who are urging this? The Socialist party, and no other party, can lay claim to loyalty on the grounds laid down. The Socialist party of the world, the only party whose slogan is the same the world over. "Workers of the world, unite; you have a world to gain and nothing to lose but your chains." The only party whose working programme is the same the world over, whose demand is the abolition of the power of one class to oppress another class, and who to accomplish this emphasize with all their power the fact that these classes are not, can not be, working in harmony, but are engaged in a struggle, the one for power, the other for freedom, and who insist that until the workers know and see that their interests are being trampled upon by the non-workers, who are also their rulers, and organize into a class conscious political party having for its object the abolition of the competitive system with its wage slavery, they will continue to be ruled by those who are truly disloyal, who cause the whole world to seethe with strife.—O. Lee Charlton, Victoria, B. C.

YOUNG MAN WANTED—When we guarantee a position we mean business, no atmospheric promise. Graduates working on eight roads and in commercial work. Day and evening instructions. MILWAUKEE TELEGRAPH SCHOOL, fourth floor, Germania building.

It's Always Pure. O. R. PIEPER WHOLESALE-RETAIL. "Good Things To Eat". 302-304 WEST WATER ST. Get Our Complete Price List. DRINK Edelweiss P. SCHOENHOFEN BREWING CO., PHONE SOUTH 104. Office, Barclay and Scott Sts.

FISH COMRADES! "Not in a Trust." Order Your Holland Herring, Fresh Fish, Etc., from Phone, Blue 484. F. TEWS, 373 First Ave.

F. G. FRISCH, GROVE ST. MILWAUKEE, WIS. Grinding of Razors and Shears special.

C. WIPPERT The Lowest Price Shoe House UNION MADE GOODS. Artistic Shoemaking Phone Black 8083. 615 East Water Street - Milwaukee, Wis.

THEO. SCHELLE, 310 WEST WATER STREET, JEWELRY, Good Reliable Workmanship's Watches at $4.75, $6.50, $10.00.

AND. BUEHLER, PRINTER. 614-616 East Water St. Milwaukee, Wis. Telephone White 601.

The Federated Trades Council of Milwaukee HEADQUARTERS: 318 State Street, SECOND FLOOR. The Regular Meetings of the Council are held first and third Wednesdays, at 8 o'clock, at 398 Fourth Street, second floor.

BEER BOTTLE'S UNION No. 213 Meets Second and Fourth Wednesdays Sixth and Chestnut Street. Office, 331 Chestnut St. HERMAN A. HEIN, Secretary. Agent for the Herald and Forwards

BARTENDERS' UNION No. 64. Meets every Friday at LEO BLANK'S, 318 State Street, P. M. Any order in connection requiring any Bartender leave orders at office of Federated Trades Council, 318 State Street.

BRASS MOULDERS' LOCAL 141 Meets every first and third Thursday of the month at Lipp's Hall, northwest corner Third and Prairie Streets. Joseph A. Brefke, Secy.

HORSE SHOERS' UNION No. 11 Meets Second and Fourth Tuesday, Fraternity Hall, 222-224 Grand Ave. Nic. SCHWIND, Secretary 432 Eighth Street.

BICYCLES $12.00 Have Them Made Now and then you'll be ready for the good wheeling that's coming. Get the old one put in shape also. We're here to do that for you at moderate cost.

Plain Enameling.....$1.25 Morgan & Wright Inner Tubes..... .59 Goodyear Single Tube Tires, pair, 1.95 Hartford Single Tube Tires, pair..... 3.75 Goodrich Double Tube Tires, pair..... 3.95 Newark Saddles..... .35 Genesee Pedals, pair..... .50 Bicycle Chains..... .10 Telephone So. 379.

HUSEBY CO. 454 Grove, Cor. Scott St. 447 11th Ave., Cor. Scott

THE HOME TEA CO. 393 Grove St., Milwaukee, Wis. Surely have the best TEAS and COFFEES at the best possible prices. Also carry a full line of Groceries.

Vogenitz & Ruhnke, Props. FINE TABLE BOARD. CHICAGO HOUSE. OTTO GROSSE, Prop. Nicely Furnished Rooms, Steam Heating, Boarding by Day or Week. 524-526 East Water St. MILWAUKEE. Open all Night.

No Reason Why You Can't Get The UNION LABEL On All Your Made-to-order Garments. MIES YOUR TAILOR at 784 Kinnickinnic Ave. Will Fix You Up.

ROBERT BUECH, Lincoln Avenue Barrel House, 945 Clinton St., Cor. Lincoln Ave., Fine Wines, Liquors and Cigars. MILWAUKEE Telephone No. 8833 Blue.

THE UNION BARBER SHOPS. Before getting shaved or having your hair cut, see that this card is displayed.

Fine Line of Domestic & Imported Cigars AL. F. DRESSEN, Hair Cutting and Shaving Parlor, 141 Lincoln Ave.

J. N. GAUER, Shaving Parlor, 865 Kinnickinnic Avenue, opposite South Bay St.

PHIL. C. KAMMERER, The Southern. First-class work guaranteed. 452 Reed St., corner Scott.

FRED. H. LEIST, Wig Maker and Hair Dresser. Human Hair Goods. 430 Greenfield Ave.

WM. L. SMITH, The only Union Social Democratic Hair Cutting and Shaving Parlor at 835 Kinnickinnic Avenue.

JOHN VOLK, Skillful Workmanship. Fine Hot and Cold Baths. 383 First Ave.

United Hatters of North America. This is the Union Label of the United Hatters of North America. When you are buying a FUR HAT, either soft or stiff, see to it that the Genuine Union Label is sewed in it. If a retailer has loose labels in his possession and offers to put one in a hat for you, do not patronize him. He has not any right to have loose labels. Loose Labels in retail stores are counterfeits. Do not listen to any explanation as to why the hat has no label. The Genuine Union Label is perforated on four edges exactly sometimes only two. Keep a sharp lookout for the counterfeits. Unperforated labels are using them in order to get rid of their scab-made hats. The John B. Stetson Co., of Philadelphia, Pa., is a non-union concern. JOHN A. MOFFITT, President, Orange, N. J. JOHN PHILLIPS, Secretary, 77 Bedford Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

THE FEDERATED TRADES COUNCIL OF MILWAUKEE. Demand this Label on all Packages of Beer, Ale or Porter.

When purchasing cigars see that this label is on the box. Union-made Cigars. It is a guarantee that the cigars are not made by the trust.

Union-made Cigars. It is a guarantee that the cigars are not made by the trust.

Union-made Cigars. It is a guarantee that the cigars are not made by the trust.

Union-made Cigars. It is a guarantee that the cigars are not made by the trust.

Union-made Cigars. It is a guarantee that the cigars are not made by the trust.

Union-made Cigars. It is a guarantee that the cigars are not made by the trust.

Union-made Cigars. It is a guarantee that the cigars are not made by the trust.

Union-made Cigars. It is a guarantee that the cigars are not made by the trust.

Hold On I want to speak to you a minute about my special offer. For a short time in order to get out a few thousand more catalogues at once, I will mail to every person sending me 10c, either coin or stamps, one of my catalogues, quoting prices on 1,000 standard watches, besides jewelry, clocks, silverware, etc., and any one of the following 25c articles. Two gold filled collar buttons (back and front), handsome stick pin, watch guard with gold plated mountings. If you can replace any of the above articles for less than 25c after receiving them, drop me a card stating the fact and I will return your money immediately. My catalogue quotes the lowest prices on standard goods in my line of any in America, and I want every body to have one, hence this unprecedented offer. A. B. CONKLIN, 83 S. Clark St., Chicago, Ill., Socialist Watch Distributor. Be sure to mention this paper when answering this ad.

JACOB HUNGER, PRINTER. 602 Chestnut St., cor 6th. Milwaukee Wis.

Union Barber Shops. Before getting shaved or having your hair cut, see that this card is displayed.

Fine Line of Domestic & Imported Cigars AL. F. DRESSEN, Hair Cutting and Shaving Parlor, 141 Lincoln Ave.

J. N. GAUER, Shaving Parlor, 865 Kinnickinnic Avenue, opposite South Bay St.

PHIL. C. KAMMERER, The Southern. First-class work guaranteed. 452 Reed St., corner Scott.

FRED. H. LEIST, Wig Maker and Hair Dresser. Human Hair Goods. 430 Greenfield Ave.

WM. L. SMITH, The only Union Social Democratic Hair Cutting and Shaving Parlor at 835 Kinnickinnic Avenue.

JOHN VOLK, Skillful Workmanship. Fine Hot and Cold Baths. 383 First Ave.

United Hatters of North America. This is the Union Label of the United Hatters of North America.

When you are buying a FUR HAT, either soft or stiff, see to it that the Genuine Union Label is sewed in it. If a retailer has loose labels in his possession and offers to put one in a hat for you, do not patronize him. He has not any right to have loose labels. Loose Labels in retail stores are counterfeits. Do not listen to any explanation as to why the hat has no label. The Genuine Union Label is perforated on four edges exactly sometimes only two. Keep a sharp lookout for the counterfeits. Unperforated labels are using them in order to get rid of their scab-made hats. The John B. Stetson Co., of Philadelphia, Pa., is a non-union concern. JOHN A. MOFFITT, President, Orange, N. J. JOHN PHILLIPS, Secretary, 77 Bedford Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

THE FEDERATED TRADES COUNCIL OF MILWAUKEE. Demand this Label on all Packages of Beer, Ale or Porter.

When purchasing cigars see that this label is on the box. Union-made Cigars. It is a guarantee that the cigars are not made by the trust.

Union-made Cigars. It is a guarantee that the cigars are not made by the trust.

Union-made Cigars. It is a guarantee that the cigars are not made by the trust.

Union-made Cigars. It is a guarantee that the cigars are not made by the trust.

Union-made Cigars. It is a guarantee that the cigars are not made by the trust.

Union-made Cigars. It is a guarantee that the cigars are not made by the trust.

Union-made Cigars. It is a guarantee that the cigars are not made by the trust.

Union-made Cigars. It is a guarantee that the cigars are not made by the trust.

Union-made Cigars. It is a guarantee that the cigars are not made by the trust.

Union-made Cigars. It is a guarantee that the cigars are not made by the trust.

RICHARD ELSNER, LAWYER. OFFICE, 140 NORTH AVE. Money at 4 1/2 per cent. and 4 per cent. 50 Cheap Properties for sale, at $300 first payment, and easy terms.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL TOBACCOS YOU BUY. Whether Smoking, Chewing or Snuff. NONE GENUINELY UNION MADE WITHOUT IT. DEMAND THIS LABEL.

AMALGAMATED WOOD WORKERS INTERNATIONAL UNION OF AMERICA. Furniture, Bar and Office Fixtures, Building Material and Packing Boxes are UNION MADE when they bear the label. DEMAND THE LABEL.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL BOXES.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL BOXES.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL BOXES.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL BOXES.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL BOXES.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL BOXES.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL BOXES.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL BOXES.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL BOXES.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL BOXES.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL BOXES.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL BOXES.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL BOXES.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL BOXES.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL BOXES.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL BOXES.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL BOXES.

SEE THAT THIS LABEL IS ON ALL BOXES.

L. SACHS, THE JEWELER. WATCHES, CLOCKS, JEWELRY AND OPTICAL GOODS. Eyes examined free. All work is guaranteed in every respect. 418 National Avenue, Milwaukee, Wis.

J. GOLDSTEIN, A Co-Operative Store, 346 Grand St., New York, N. Y. Photograph taken for the S. D. Herald.

SCHWEITZER BROS. Walkways and Cement Collar Floors. Let us figure before you let your contract. 528 First Ave., Milwaukee, Wis. PHONE BLUE 3333.

We prescribe and make glasses for the sight. A. REINHARD, Optician, 206 Grand Avenue, Milwaukee.

W. PECK & SON WHOLESALE MEAT DEALERS. 833 19th St.

A PROFESSION That Pays. Intelligent, earnest and ambitious young men and women, 16 years and over, gives practical, modern, American business training and assisted to positions. No kindergarten. Our students finish quicker and get better positions than those of large schools. No big classes. Winter term January 5th. Day and night school open all the year. Day school $8.00 a month, night school $4.00 a month. Postal for prospectus. WILMOT BUSINESS COLLEGE, Hathaway Building, MASON STREET AND BROADWAY. MILWAUKEE

Tripod and Aquarium Co. DEALERS IN Japanese and Chinese Gold Fish and Aquarium Plants. Mgr. Evans designed the tripod which has been presented to, and accepted by Prince Henry, W. C. EVANS, Mgr. Cheapest place in this city. 448 Eleventh St.

ZAHN & STROESSER Tailors... 316 STATE STREET, Four doors west of Third St.

Cleanings From Busy Socialistic Fields!

Good Grain Being Harvested by Our Hands in the Field. How the Advance to the Co-operative Commonwealth Progresses. You are invited to get in Line.

NOTES FROM YANKEE-LAND.

Colorado City, Colo., has a local organization of over 100 members. Comrade Ben Wilson, one of the Crusaders, is speaking in Montana to big meetings.

The Democrats made an unsuccessful attempt to lure the Socialists into fusion at Livingston, Mont.

Comrade M. W. Wilkins will begin his Northwestern tour in Oregon during the coming week.

An Episcopal clergyman of Fort Worth, Tex., Rev. R. H. Cotton, is agitating for Socialism.

Comrade John C. Chase began his Texas tour at Dennison on April 8, and will continue in that state until May, going from there into Oklahoma Territory.

Comrade John M. Ray will devote three weeks to organizing work in Alabama, for the national party, giving special attention to Birmingham district, where a city campaign is in progress.

The annual state convention of the Socialist party of New Hampshire will be held in Concord, at the local headquarters, on Thursday, April 23, and plans will be made for uplifting the party in that state.

Comrade H. Gaylord Wilshire is in California, accompanied by W. English Walling, the grandson of the late W. H. English, the former Democratic candidate for vice president of the United States. Comrade Walling gives his time and means to Socialism.

Comrade Gertrude Breslau Hunt of Chicago will speak twice in Milwaukee, May 3 and 4. Mrs. Hunt was the nominee for university trustee on the Socialist ticket in Illinois and has achieved success as a lecturer, giving her talk piquancy by incidents from her experiences as a newspaper woman in New York and Chicago, and also as a worker-up of evidence in personal injury cases for a law firm.

Comrade John W. Slayton is booked to speak as follows: In April: Thursday, 16, McMechen, W. Va.; Monday, 20, East Liverpool, O.; Central Trades Council; Tuesday, 21, Wayneburg, Pa.; Carpenters' Union; Wednesday, 27, Carnegie, Pa.; Carpenters' Union; Thursday, 23, Reynoldsville, Pa.; Trades Council; Friday, 24, Ridgeway, Pa.; Central Trades Council; Saturday, 25, Lorain, O.; Carpenters' Union; Tuesday, 28, Newport News, Va.; Building Trades Council; Wednesday, 29, Norfolk, Va.; Socialist party. Slayton will spend May and June in Ohio, Wisconsin and Missouri.

Wisconsin Notes. Word comes from State Organizer Gaylord, just as we go to press, of a remarkable revival at Fond du Lac. He almost turned the town upside down. A store building was rented for four nights on Main street, 100 chairs were put in and the cigar makers "may their tribe increase," writes Gaylord, peppered the city with cards. Then along comes Comrade Grethen, with his violin, from the jubilee at Sheboygan, and Thursday evening the thing began with a violin and guitar concert in the street and the populace almost choking up the street. Then the crowd was led inside and a fine meeting was held. Every night it was the same, even in spite of rain, and then a Fourth ward branch was organized, a city central committee constituted and permanent meeting and reading rooms leased. Good for Fond du Lac!

The following written by Comrade Thompson before he left the state is still interesting:

One story I hear almost everywhere—the young people in the colleges, universities, normal schools and the public schools are going to debate and the one unvarying question is, Resolved, that the government should own the railroads, coal mines or something of the sort. These students send delegations to my lectures to get our arguments. But what interests me is the fact that this principle of collectivism is being threshed out by the young men and women in the public institutions. A new source of strength and a new field of propaganda is before us in this respect.

I would like to announce to all the public school and high school debaters who are looking for information upon these points that Comrade W. R. Gaylord has in stock at the lowest possible figures books and pamphlets of the highest authority which treat completely this subject of public ownership. Address him at 614 State street, Milwaukee, Wis., and he will supply you with all the data.

Moreover I urge the debaters that want to win a certain victory for their schools to challenge their opponents to debate the question, "Resolved, that the American people would be benefited by the inauguration of Socialism," and they to take the affirmative. If they will take that question we can guarantee them facts and arguments that will win any debate.

I have never seen a more interesting and pleasing situation than one recently where the owner of a considerable manufacturing concern is so much a Socialist that he not only allows but encourages his men to work for Socialism. Moreover he even contributes liberally to the cause. It is a new and a delightful experience to be conducted through a concern and meet numbers of men in every room who are Socialists, who are glad to be known to be Socialists and who know that in being such they have the approval and sympathy of their employer. Verily! the new day begins to dawn.

Wisconsin Organization Fund. Mecheke Bros., Plymouth..... $4.00 Gust Hogahn, Milwaukee..... .30 $4.30

Our literary department is prepared to get any book for you that anyone else can get. Reading maketh the man!

ACROSS THE HERRING POND.

The Irish Socialist party has this motto: "The great appeal goes to us only because we are on our knees; let us rise."

Socialist members of French Parliament are pushing a bill for government ownership of the oil industry and it is thought the plan will be adopted.

Karl Liebknecht, son of the late Liebknecht, the "grand old man" of German Socialism, is a Socialist parliamentary candidate in the Fatherland.

In the Leicester, England, by-election for guardians, the Independent Labor party's candidate, Amos Sherriff, was elected, overcoming a previous Liberal majority. In Bath, England, the Labor candidate defeated the Conservative incumbent.

A victory has been won by the Socialists of Hagsfeld, near Karlsruhe, in the municipal elections. In the third class nine Socialists, in the second class eight and in the first class three—twenty Socialists in all—were elected, obtaining a majority in the common council.

Concerning the National Referendum. To Local Branches and State Secretaries of the Socialist Party—Comrades: Apparent misunderstanding in different quarters as to the provisions under which the referendum on the location of national headquarters shall be conducted make it imperative that your attention be again called to the following instructions:

INSTRUCTIONS TO SECRETARIES. The vote closes on May 1, 1903, and local secretaries shall not count votes cast after that date.

Local secretaries in organized states must file the vote of their locals or branches, signed by the chairman and secretary, with the state secretaries in the respective states before May 5, 1903. Secretaries of branches where central committees exist should make returns to the secretary of the central committee. Local secretaries in unorganized states must file the vote of their locals, signed by the chairman and secretary, with the national secretary before May 15, 1903. State secretaries shall compile and file with the national secretary a complete tabulated statement of the vote of locals in the respective states before May 15, 1903. William Malloy, National Secy.

Milwaukee Federated Trades Council.

Meeting of April 15. Delegate Arnold in chair. Delegate Scuman vice chairman. New delegates from Patternmakers, Leather Workers No. 57, Wood Carvers, Beer Bottlers, Blacksmiths, Bookbinders, Flour and Cereal mill employes, Millwrights, Business agent reported organizing the Bookmaker Helpers. Warned union against State Treasury Agent Weis, who illegally collected fees for dance entertainments. Word had come from Madison that he would be dropped for cause. At the instance of the Bookbinders the boycott on Milwaukee ball park was raised, and other cities to be notified. From Typographical Union of Rochester, N. Y., recommending Wm. S. Waudby for the position now held by Carroll D. Wright. Resolutions adopted to ask President to appoint him. From sewing machine

WATCHES! WATCHES!

OUR SPECIALTY. THE LARGEST ASSORTMENT. THE FINEST QUALITY. THE LOWEST PRICES. August H. Stecher.....JEWELER..... Corner Third & State St.

THIRD ANNUAL BALL

GIVEN BY THE 19th Ward Branch, S. D. P. SATURDAY, APRIL 26, 1903.

AT MEIXNER'S HALL, (2704 Vliet Street.) TICKETS, 10 cts. Ladies Free.

builders of Elizabeth, N. J., saying Singer Sewing Machine Co. was still against organized labor. Quarterly report of Wis. State Fed. of Labor read, showing receipts of $391.95 and expenditures of $321.48. Adam Michel, grocer and saloonkeeper of Greenfield and American avenues, placed on unfair list by request of Carpenters, and 1000 circulars to be printed. Teamsters announced strike at Enterprise Box & Lumber Company. A delegate from Journeymen Tailors' Union explained the labels and pointed out bogus ones, bringing up an interesting discussion. Receipts for evening $30.38. Disbursements $64.85. The sum of $5 was voted for literature. Frederic Heath, Rec. Secy.

Comrades! Get up a club of four subscribers and get your paper free. Five subscriptions for $2.00.

THE DOERFLINGER LEG PATENT'D, best in the world, with new ANKLE JOINT, new FOOT OF FELT, new form of SOCKET and SLIP SOCKET. Comfortable, noiseless, durable. ARMS and HANDS for practical use. STEEL BRACES, TRUSSES, ELASTIC SUPPORTERS, HOSE, etc., etc. Catalogues free. Doerflinger Artificial Limb Co., 452 City Hall Square, Milwaukee, Wis.

Fifty Cents a Year. ORIGINAL! INTERESTING! INDISPENSABLE!

AMERICAN LABOR UNION JOURNAL.

Published weekly by the American Labor Union. A big, bright, handsome, Labor-Socialist weekly paper. Eight pages of sensible, scientific, class conscious discussion of the great questions of vital interest to the working class.

SUBSCRIBE NOW American Labor Union Journal, Box 1067, Butte, Montana. Fifty Cents a Year. Fifty Cents a Year.

GEO. P. SCHMITT, Wheels Built to Order and Repairing. Machine Work, Gun and Lock Repairing. Keys Fitted and all kinds of Repairing done. Phone No. 9053 White. 450 Eleventh St. MILWAUKEE.

JOHN LUELL, MANUFACTURER OF FINE CIGARS, 536 Second Ave., Milwaukee, Wis. MY BRANDS—Santiago de Cuba, G. L. 10c Cigar, Golden Harvest, Lone Star, No. 355 5c Cigar.

I run the largest and best equipped Dental Offices in the city. Do strictly first-class, up-to-date work at prices within the reach of all. We charge but $5.00 for the best teeth, $5.00 for the finest crowns and bridge teeth, and extract teeth painlessly for 25c. Consultation and honest, intelligent advice free. We want your patronage and will make it an object to you. DR. YOUNG, 418-14-15-16 Germania Bldg. Hours: 8:30 to 6. Sundays, 9 to 12. Phone 8813 Black.

DR. TH. BURMEISTER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, NOTARY PUBLIC, 404 CHESTNUT ST., MILWAUKEE, WIS.

DR. H. C. BERGER, Physician, OFFICE HOURS—10 to 11 A. M., 2 to 3 P. M., 7 to 8 Evenings. Office: 12th St. and Garfield Ave. Residence: 752 Eighth St., Telephone 10.

JOHN DOERFLER SALOON, 701 Winnebago Street.

I ADVERTISE SMALL WHY BECAUSE I SELL CLOTHING, GENTS FURNISHING GOODS AT THE SMALLEST PROFIT CALL AND COMPARE WITH LUDWIG BERG, 373 S. WISCONSIN ST.

ARTHUR J. BRETT, UNDERTAKER, 281 REED STREET.

DR. JOSH. OPTICIAN, SCHWARTZ, 1108 VLIET ST.

C. KASDORF, DEALER IN DELICACIES AND ALL KINDS OF Smoked Meats and Sausage, Confectionery, Cigars and Tobacco. 1711 Fond du Lac Avenue, MILWAUKEE, WIS.

DRINK Schlitz The Beer that Made Milwaukee Famous. The main difference between good beer and bad beer is in the after-effect. You notice that pure beer, Schlitz beer, does not make you bilious. Pure beer is good for you; bad beer is unhealthful. You may be absolutely certain of its healthfulness when you drink Schlitz Beer.

John Leuenberger, DEALER IN Reliable Boots, Shoes & Rubbers, No. 25 Juneau Ave., Milwaukee, Wis. Store closed Sundays. Make Boots and Shoes in all Styles to order.

JULIUS LANDO Optical Institute, 419 East Water St. and get fitted to a pair of his Celebrated Glasses. Artificial Eyes inserted without pain.

GUSTAV BESTIAN, MANUFACTURER OF FINE CIGARS, 882 Seventh St., "Elan" 10c. "Old Judge" 5c. MILWAUKEE, WIS.

John Heim's Orchestra, Music Furnished for all Occasions. 1086 25th Avenue. Telephone Connection.

ROBT. J. MILLER, Art Photographer, 278 W. Water Street. 10 per cent. of all orders from November 1, 1902, will go to the S. D. P. Campaign Fund.

ROBERT LAMBERT, SAMPLE ROOM, 428 FOWLER ST., MILWAUKEE, WIS.

C. Gruenewald, SALOON, 538 2nd Ave., cor. Orchard St. Milwaukee, Wis. Milwaukee Brewing Co.'s Beer. Fine Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Warm Lunch from 9 to 11.

OPTICIAN A. G. SIMMERT, optician, 30 years' experience; eyes carefully examined free of charge; artificial eyes inserted; repairs promptly done. 312 Third Street, Steinmeyer Building. Phone Black, 525.

NORTH AVENUE BOTTLE HOUSE, NISK PETERSEN, Proprietor, 2714 North Ave. Telephone West 2684.

COMRADES! This to announce that you are again to be exploited(?) We are rather frank and open about this matter, aren't we? But isn't it better to be exploited for Socialism than for Capitalism? Certainly! So we let you know that we are hard up; in fact, "dead broke," and want you all to help us out. It's easy, too. Just buy a ticket for the GRAND MAY BALL GIVEN BY THE EIGHTH WARD BRANCH, S. D. P. at UTECH'S HALL, Ninth and Greenfield Aves., SATURDAY EVE., MAY 9, 1903. It will only cost you fifteen cents. After you have the ticket DON'T FAIL TO ATTEND.

YOUR SPRING ATTIRE. No matter how complete and well selected your spring outfit may be, you won't feel dressed up unless your feet are well dressed. If you'll come here for your foot outfit you'll go out "fitted"; and properly fitted out as far as your feet are concerned. Our stock this season is the biggest and best we ever had; which means the best this city ever saw. LAMERS BROS. ...SHOES... 354 Grove St. MILWAUKEE. REPAIRING DONE.

HALF-HOURS IN THE HERALD SANCTUM. With the Workers. Here's a welcome for an old friend of the Herald: Dear Comrades: I am in receipt of a copy of the Social Democratic Herald, probably sent me by some of the comrades. It is the first I have seen since you moved from Chicago. In those days I took all of our Socialist papers, but now I can't keep track of all that are being published, let alone taking or reading them, but I guess I will have to renew our old acquaintance and place you back on my list. I always had high regard for the paper and its backer, but we differed some in tactics, so I dropped it, but those days are passed and I believe we are more united for the experience. I know, for my part, I have greater faith for the cause and more tolerance and love for all comrades. You can therefore put me down for the Herald and Wilshire's at 60 cents, for which find stamps enclosed. We are somewhat in a tangle here in California, but guess we will pull through. Already I believe the fusionists are seeing the error of their ways. Wishing you and our cause great success, I remain fraternal-ly, California, March 31. L. E. Leonard. Dear Herald: Had a magnificent meeting here last night. Five hundred and fifty people packed auditorium in a village of 1300. Organized a local with twenty-five members. At Fairbairn Tuesday we cast 150 Socialist votes out of 550, thus securing official standing there. We will have a great work in Minnesota. Splendid meetings everywhere. A wonderful field is opening up in Northern Minnesota, west of Duluth. I shall open that entire region. Be ready to back me up. Carl D. Thompson. Waterville, Minn., April 8. Comrades: Send me the Herald. Enclosed find amount. Have just heard of magnificent victory in Sheboygan. Congratulations. J. M. Crook. Chicago, April 8. The Social Democratic Herald: A little later on I will send for a supply of books and papers to be used where they will do the most good—both my English and German "Merrie England" are in the hands of persons who will profit by reading such books. In doing missionary work one must use good judgment, so as not to prejudice the person approached. In my own case, I have to be a little more guarded than perhaps some on account that I have been rather outspoken on many subjects that were not very popular at the time, but which are now accepted by a number of people as right. What loss to those I have regained I want to hold, and while I do not intend to be less uncompromising, I shall, if I can, be more tactful. Father [Established 1882.] BRUETT'S METHODS are simple, straightforward and true-selling thoroughly. Reliable Clothing at fair prices is the secret of our success. TRY US. J. BRUETT & SON, FOND DU LAC AVE. Cor. 16th and Lloyd Streets. MILWAUKEE.

TRADE AT BARRETT'S WEST WATER STREET DEPARTMENT STORE, MILWAUKEE. You Will Save Money on Every Purchase ...in... Dry Goods, Shoes, Suits, China and House Furnishings. BARRETT'S Wants Your Trade.

Make Your Dates ...FOR... Pabst Park Season 1903. Telephone Black 955. ADOLPH HEUMANN'S Deutsches Gasthaus, BEER HALL AND SAMPLE ROOM. 402 Sycamore St., Cor. Fourth. Opp. Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Passenger Depot. Milwaukee, Wis. WHERE TO EAT. LAWRENCE'S ORIGINAL 3c. LUNCH ROOM OPEN ALL NIGHT. Headquarters for a good lunch or meal at moderate prices. OUR MOTTO: CLEANLINESS. QUICK SERVICE. J. E. CAMPBELL, Manager. FRED. THIMMELS MANUFACTURER OF FINE CIGARS 1401 VLIET ST. Milwaukee. Smoke "OUR FRITZ" Cigar.