Advertising Department, The Call, 6 Park Place, New York.

The Call Purchasers' League

Almost every day we receive letters and postal cards containing names and addresses of prospective advertisers. Those who send information have generally introduced The Call and acquainted advertiser with its character and superiority as an advertising medium.

Such information is very valuable to us and we therefore want you of it. While our representatives may not be able to get an advertisement in every place where our friends have recommended The Call yet the chances are much better than if nobody had said anything about this paper.

Another way to prepare the field for the advertising department is to send letters to firms you deal with, but who are not yet advertising in The Call.

The most important part of the work, however, is to join the P. L. and induce others to do so. It need hardly be repeated here that patronizing our present advertisers is the thing that tells.

WHY NO SOCIALISM?

It is talking in bad in your line, there are tons of literature at your disposal at the party's headquarters. Make it your business to see that every voter you know gets some of it.

Solicit money for the Socialists. Do not get any contributions from the trusts, and whatever funds are collected must come in direct contributions.

A million votes for Socialism means a great step forward in the progress of the nation, another stride towards woman's rights.

Steps, just because we are unable to exercise our power on election day, we must work the harder for indirect ways require the greatest expenditure of energy. Forward, then! And from now on may your slogan be: "Long live the Socialist Party, the Champion of Human Freedom!"

SOCIALISM AND WORLD PEACE

In proportion as the exploitation of one individual by another is put an end to, the exploitation of one nation by another will also be put an end to. In proportion as the antagonism between classes within the nation vanishes, the hostility of one nation to another will come to an end.—Karl Marx.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY

The Democratic party, like the Republican party, has no word to say of our great unemployed problem; it has no sort of an idea of a remedy for the great poverty problem by which we are confronted. And Mr. Bryan has told us that he is content to wear the mummy bandaged by the Taggart, the Conners, the Haskell and the Conners in his party—that he will be bought by the silence of his platform, his ambitions, just as surely as by its utterances.

"The Judas Kiss."

Perhaps the most saddening feature of the whole campaign has been the effort of a few men holding responsible positions in the labor movement to fasten the clutches of this party upon the throats of the workers. They have gone stealthily and pressed upon the cheek of sleeping Labor the Judas kiss with which to betray him to the Haskell, the Conners, the Conners and to the whole tribe of the Southern Bourbons of the Bloody Shirt. That they will fail, and that we shall see them brought to the end such conduct merits, I believe with all my heart.

The great message which Eugene V. Debs and a countless host of other comrades are bearing in this campaign will inspire the workers to vote for their own interests under the Socialist emblem. Twenty years ago there were 2,067 votes cast for Socialism in this country; this year more than a million will be cast for Socialism. The future, my comrades, is ours! Let us not look behind, but press right on.
