

International Steamfitters. Maybe he has befriended printers, but he has been the enemy of our union.

At the conclusion of Moyer's denunciation, a part of the Federation broke into applause; but as much approval greeted Lynch's defense.

The report of the committee condemning the lockout at the Homestake Mines contained no mention of Hearst's name, and the attack by Moyer came unexpectedly.

The convention adopted a resolution calling on Gompers to investigate and report upon the strike of the garbage teamsters in New York City.

It was stated that the municipal authorities of New York have refused to listen to a proposition to arbitrate the differences with the teamsters, and have proceeded to secure strike-breakers.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 20.—When the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor got down to business today for the second week of its session, it was generally predicted that President Gompers and his fellow officers would be re-elected with big majorities.

The Socialist resolution demanding the resignation of American Federation of Labor officials from the National Civic Federation will be adversely reported tomorrow and there will be a fight on the floor.

It now seems certain that either Richmond, Va., or Rochester, N. Y., will get the next convention. The meeting will not go West until the Panama Exposition is held in San Francisco in 1915.

A joint committee from the United Mine Workers and the Western Federation of Miners was appointed today to draft plans for the organization of a mine department in the American Federation of Labor representing 100,000 men.

A resolution providing financial aid for great lakes sailors in their fight against the Steel Trust was pigeonholed by the convention this afternoon.

of the strike of the Western miners in the Black Hills of South Dakota. Delegate Mead, representing the workers of Hudson County, told of Hearst having used "scab" steamfitters in New York and of Arthur Brisbane, editor of the New York Journal, having done the same thing in having work done on his summer residence.

Lynch, of the printers, wanted a careful investigation made and doubted the alleged Hearst connection with the Homestake strike, Hearst in 1906 having asked the miners there for their endorsement as a friend of the laboring men and the union.

By J. L. ENGBAHL. (Correspondence to The Call.) AUDITORIUM ARMORY, ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 19.—Another gauntlet has been thrown into the arena of the American Federation of Labor convention by the Western Federation of Miners as a challenge to the reactionaries.

It is proposed to inaugurate a plan that will result in a system of universal transfer cards between all unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

This is a direct blow at high initiation fees and one that will tear down the craft lines that now exist, brushing aside jurisdictional squabbles and paving the way to industrial unionism.

The resolution covering this matter has been introduced by delegate Joseph D. Cannon, of the Western Federation of Miners, and has been referred to the Committee on Organization. This resolution will rival in importance the industrial unionism resolution introduced by Delegate Duncan McDonald, of the United Mine Workers, since it maps out a certain program to be put under way at once.

Whereas modern industrial concerns are constantly being brought into closer inter-relationship with each other, and this result of the industrial trend of the age makes the workers in the different crafts and trades to a greater extent interdependent upon each other, craft lines are more closely drawn, and in most trades there are constant infringements of jurisdictional boundaries.

Whereas our crude form of system of federation this makes it necessary for workers securing such employment to pay large initiation fees upon each such change of employment, thereby rendering it more difficult for our members to live and provide for their families under this regime of "full dinner pail" and ever-increasing "high cost of living"; it is, in effect, equivalent to the placing of a premium upon nonunionism and a discount upon our members who keep their cards in good standing; it is the placing of a cruel and unnecessary hardship upon those who make it possible for us to maintain our various unions; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this matter be referred to the proper committee or to the Executive Council, with instructions to prepare a clause for the constitution of the American Federation of Labor which will provide for an equitable exchange of paid-up cards between all affiliated unions.

The convention of the American Federation of Labor will have been in session for three weeks before it finally adjourns, in the belief of well-informed delegates here.

eration. Followed by Resolution to Change Election. "Socialists Lining Up for War on Gompers—Demand for Resignations From National Civic Federation an Echo of Socialistic Opposition."

In order to give them more standing the local squad of newspaper scribes approached Gompers, told him that the New York papers had decided to resign from the National Civic Federation, and what he had to say about it.

"Tell the New York papers to go to hell," answered Gompers, and the local scribes thought the war was on for fair.

It can only be looked upon as a reflection against the capitalist newspapers of the East, New York and Chicago especially, that the only newspaper man here at all informed on labor subjects is the representative of the San Francisco Bulletin, George T. Ely, who has come across the continent to "cover" the gathering of labor here.

McDonald Before Committee. The oft-repeated claim that there would be no news in an A. F. of L. convention if the Socialists did not get busy and start something, is borne out in what is taking place here.

The only matters that are creating any interest at all are the National Civic Federation question, the referendum method of electing officials, the question of industrial unionism and matters pertaining to the defense of the McNamara brothers.

All this was pointed out in these columns several days ago. The Civic Federation tangle is creating considerable discussion before the Committee on Resolutions, to which it was referred.

This committee consists of James Duncan, John P. Frey, R. A. Langer, D. P. Mulcahy, John T. Smith, Thomas Flynn, Edward J. McGivern, Joseph N. Weber, M. F. Ryan, W. D. Mahon, A. P. Sovey, Edward P. Ward, Sol Southeimer, Charles P. Fahey and John A. Voll, a set of reactionaries after Gompers' own heart.

Duncan McDonald, of the miners, who introduced the Civic Federation resolution, was among the first to be called before the committee. He gave a general statement as to the action that had been taken by the miners and as to the views held concerning this "chameleon organization."

Most of the men explained that they quit on account of the night work, which was a great hardship on them, while the other answers varied. Though the men were asked to call to be tried at 8 o'clock in the morning, Edwards did not appear at the building until after 10 o'clock.

SECRET TRIAL FOR STRIKING DRIVERS Russian Methods Are Adopted by "Big Bill" Edwards.

Another chapter to strikebreaking history in this city was added when Commissioner Edwards went through the farce of trying the striking street cleaners at his offices yesterday. The trials, if they can be called trials, took place behind closed doors and not until late in the afternoon were reporters admitted to see and hear what was going on.

Edwards disposed of the cases very quickly and made a record of trying more cases in one day than are tried in all the city courts in one week. The men are not permitted to use the elevators of the Park Row Building where the "trials" took place, but under a police escort were marched up to the fifth floor, where they were called in a batch by stables.

When asked whether the City Hall had a hand in excluding the press from the trials, Edwards said that it had nothing to do with the excluding of reporters, but after the press representatives made several attempts to get in and get a line on how the men were tried, Edwards whispered to one of his deputies to call up Adamson, Gaynor's secretary. Edwards disposed of nearly 250 cases an hour.

Trials in Secret. The men were grouped by stables, and one group after the other was ushered into the trial room, where the doors were closed on them and the farce performed by "Big Bill" Edwards was on the bench all by himself and no one, with the exception of a police lieutenant, was in attendance at the time the men were called in to explain why they struck.

The first question asked was why they did not go to work on November 8, and one question after the other was then asked of them.

Most of the men explained that they quit on account of the night work, which was a great hardship on them, while the other answers varied. Though the men were asked to call to be tried at 8 o'clock in the morning, Edwards did not appear at the building until after 10 o'clock.

NINTH VENIRE NOW IN McNAMARA TRIAL Fredericks May Not Be Allowed to Produce 'Bomb' as Evidence.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20.—Unless the State can produce the wreckage of the bomb which it alleges was used by James B. McNamara in destroying the Los Angeles Times, and show it was identical with that which the police allege was found by them at the home of Secretary Zeehadler, of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association, the latter bomb will not be allowed in evidence against the defendants.

This is the belief of the defense attorneys in the McNamara trial today. In addition, it is unlikely that any of the clocks, bombs, etc., "found" according to Detective Burns' story, at Indianapolis, will be admitted by Judge Bordwell here.

Associate counsel, who have been working on the case for District Attorney Fredericks, are said to have told the prosecutor that there is no chance of getting Judge Bordwell to consent to letting any of this evidence in.

They are still searching for a legal decision in the hope of finding some way to get around the precedent, but admit that it is extremely difficult.

Judge Bordwell qualified the ninth venire today, and the work of filling the five vacant seats in the box was immediately begun. It is hoped to have them filled by the latter part of the week, so that the third exercising of peremptory challenges can be had.

Sides down to the limit, and insists a jury must be completed not later than December 15.

Because Mrs. William Nicholson, wife of Juror Nicholson, who was passed by both sides last week, is suffering from appendicitis, Nicholson was excused from service.

After Judge Bordwell had personally interrogated Tammam Fred Mayer, a real estate dealer, he allowed the defense's challenge for bias.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20.—The state of a taleman's stomach, as well as the state of his mind, has become an issue in the McNamara trial. Sidney Butler, of the county Board of Supervisors, estimates that the trial has cost the county thus far $1,521.70 for commissary expenses and automobile hire carrying talemen from the Hall of Records to their meals and back.

Promoter Stole $140,000 Deposited With Carnegie Trust Company.

The jury that has been hearing evidence at the trial of William J. Cummins for nearly six weeks considered the matter for about the same number of hours yesterday and then returned the verdict. Cummins, who was executive chairman of the Carnegie Trust Company at the time the institution closed its doors, charged with stealing $140,000, part of a fund deposited with the trust company.

Cummins' lawyer, Max D. Steur, asked for time in which to prepare motions as he may see fit, and Justice Vernon M. Davis, before whom the trial has been conducted, granted the request. The trial will resume on Friday as the day when Cummins was to be sentenced. Cummins was held at once to the Tombs where he will remain until sentenced. PROPOSE RADICAL LAWS IN CALIFORNIA

Socialists Working for Adoption of 8-Hour Day for All Workers.

By LAURENCE TODD. (Correspondence to The Call.) SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—Socialists in California are going to begin this year to dictate the laws of the State. They are proposing the laws...

Never has the situation been more favorable to constructive Socialist progress than now and here. We have the majority in Berkeley, and have almost captured a number of smaller cities, besides rolling up a tremendous primary vote in Los Angeles.

Will we establish the universal eight-hour day or a minimum wage in the face of a hostile Supreme Court?

THE GREAT JUDICIAL HIGH PRIEST. He was, of course, Chief Justice John Marshall. Capitalist writers have described him as the greatest of all jurists, the purest and most incorruptible of judges.

Small wonder. It was Marshall who fixed into law standing and precedents which have been applied ever since by the courts in the United States to extending and entrenching capitalist theft, rule and power and to subjugating the working class.

But suppose you learned that Marshall as a lawyer acquired a defunct estate of dubious validity, which was later validated by a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States when he was Chief Justice.

This is what actually happened, as will be shown from the documents in the next installments of Gustavus Myers' "History of the Supreme Court of the United States" in next Sunday's Call.

Furthermore, the contest for this estate was the real basis of the most important decisions on Constitutional law ever rendered down by the Supreme Court.

The chapters on Chief Justice Marshall are sure to make a sensation. They will unfold secret motives and actions, and present the most comprehensive story of the further development of capitalist power. They will detail extraordinary facts never made public.

If you have not read any of the previous installments, you are urged to read and digest what Myers has to tell in the forthcoming numbers of The Call.

VARIED OPINIONS ON VARIED SUBJECTS

SUPPORT THE STRIKERS!

Editor of The Call:

In the strike of the drivers, the entire capitalist press and the Tammany Hall city administration has turned against the men. This must lead to an endless fight by the Socialists to aid the drivers who refuse to work during the winter's unbearable nights when the biting cold freezes the hands and bodies of even mere pedestrians.

Labor is being crucified and all must rally to its liberation.

JULIUS HOPP, Trudeau, N. Y., Nov. 1.

FACTS AS TO SHOAF.

Editor of The Call: I do not believe that it is the desire of The Call to be unfair to any one in any way connected with the Shoaf incident, and it is for this reason that I call your attention to the two misstatements in your issue of November 16.

First—You say "the facts in this case have just come to light." In the Appeal of October 14 we stated "that we had definite information which makes it certain that George H. Shoaf is not dead, or injured, neither was he kidnapped. That his disappearance had nothing whatever to do with the McNamara case or with his duties for the Appeal, being merely a personal matter with himself." The only additional light you have thrown on the case in your article is the name of the young woman.

We withheld this at the urgent request of the young girl's father, in the hope that she and her family would be saved the unenviable notoriety that would follow.

Second—You say Shoaf "is not and has not been in years a member of the Socialist party." Shoaf joined the Girard Local in 1905 and 1906. He withdrew his membership in 1908 and was readmitted as a member of Local New Orleans, September 7, 1908. He severed his connection with that local in January, 1909, and was readmitted to membership in Girard Local on January 25 of the same year.

Local Secretary Fuller informs me that he was one year in arrears with his dues up to the time of his disappearance, but this was in no wise his fault, as he left instructions with the Appeal to keep his membership paid up.

Shoaf has been connected with the Appeal for nearly five years. There never was a week when he left his work for the Appeal and taken a job on a capitalist paper at the same wages he received and with better chances of advancement. The charge that he was in the Socialist movement for mercenary motives cannot be substantiated by the facts.

I think you should have these facts before you in writing your future articles dealing with Shoaf. FRED D. WARREN, Girard, Kan., Nov. 18.

CENTRAL COMMITTEE MINUTES.

Editor of The Call: The minutes of the Central Committee published in today's Call are inaccurate and misleading as far as the following paragraph is concerned: "Moved, That the question of naturalization in all its phases—naturalization in night courts, be made a special order of business for the next Central Committee meeting. Carried."

The facts are that I offered a motion requesting the State Committee to consider the preparation of a bill to be introduced in the State Legislature by our own Assemblyman, conferring the vote on all adult persons having resided in the State for at least one year.

My motion was seconded, and I briefly stated facts in support of it. There was no opposition, but another delegate suggested or moved that an additional step be taken, aiming at the creation of a night court devoted exclusively to naturalization work. Both matters before the house seemed so relevant to the increase of political power for the working class that it was moved and carried to make them a special order for the next meeting of the Central Committee.

Of course, the defective minutes can be corrected when read in the usual routine order. But it strikes me that the branches and the membership in general should know what this special order really means. Comrade Wall's does not carry that information by any means.

MOSES OPPENHEIMER, New York, Nov. 18, 1911.

MANY NOT NATURALIZED.

Naturalization Aid Society Helping Them to Become Citizens. The office of the Naturalization Aid Society, 1461 Third avenue, will be open this evening from 8:15 to 10 o'clock. The society is meeting with great success in its efforts to induce the workers of this city to become naturalized American citizens, but there are still thousands of Socialists and progressive workmen here who are not citizens and cannot vote.

Every effort is being made to reduce the non-citizens to their duty in this regard. It is planned to have the office open two nights in the month for women, with Margaret H. Sanger, women's organizer of Local New York, Socialist party, in charge.

The only kick the society has is against some of the branches of Local New York, which are not supporting the work as they should. Success in naturalizing the workers will prove of great value to the Socialist party, and every effort should be made to aid the society.

FORMING CREMATION SOCIETY. The attention of all people in Harlem opposed to the present method of disposing of the dead is directed to the fact that an English speaking branch of the Cremation Society is being organized in Harlem. For information, call or write to Dr. M. S. Calman, 26 East 106th street.

SOCIALIST SPEAKER APPEALS CASE

Fitzgibbon, Arrested for Addressing Open Air Meeting in Brooklyn, Given Suspended Sentence.

The case of Gerald M. P. Fitzgibbon, the Socialist street speaker, who was arrested last Friday in Brooklyn, while addressing an open air meeting at Johnson and Washington streets, came up for trial in the Adams Police Court before Magistrate McGuire yesterday. The charge was disorderly conduct.

Officer West, who was the first witness, failed to prove to the court that Fitzgibbon obstructed the street. Sol Schwartz, attorney for Fitzgibbon, pointed out that according to the law it was not Fitzgibbon's business to see that the street is kept clear, but the officer's.
