LONG ISLAND TRAIN CRASHES INTO WAGON

Bodies of Two Department Store Employees Carried Into Station by Engine.

Frank Bates and R. C. Cogan, each about 20 years old, of Garden City, L. I., were killed shortly after 9 o'clock yesterday morning when a Long Island Railroad express train hit the two-horse covered wagon in which they were crossing the tracks at Queens avenue, Prospect.

The collision occurred two blocks west of the station, and as the train swept up to the platform, the pilot of the locomotive was still carrying the bodies of the two men on the wagon seat, unimpeded packages, and debris from the vehicle wedged into the forward part of the locomotive.

Both men had fractured skulls. Cogan was killed instantly, but Bates lived a few minutes after he had been taken to the police station.

The wagon, owned by a Broadway department store, was filled with packages for delivery, and the bodies were scattered after the crash by the tracks as well as the pilot of the locomotive. The parts of the wagon which became wedged in the locomotive were driven in so hard that it took a heavy iron pin to pry them apart.

The train, an eastbound Amagansett express, in charge of Engineer O'Brien and Conductor Warren, was composed of all steel coaches.

Another fatal crossing accident occurred in Freeport on October 1 last, when a taxicab was run down by a Long Island Railroad train at the Grove street crossing. In the motor car were Mrs. R. J. Darnell, of Memphis, Tenn., her daughter, Beatrice, 21 years old, another daughter, Pauline, 15 years old, William Darnell, son of W. C. Collier, of Ocean Grove, Freeport, and John Mott, chauffeur for the Freeport Taxicab Company. Mrs. Darnell was badly injured. The other occupants of the taxicab were also hurt. The Darnells had been visiting at the Collier home and were on their way to the railroad station to take the train for New York when the mishap occurred.

THREAT TO EXTEND HOTEL STRIKE HERE

Unless Boston Hostels Grant Union Conditions Walkout May Spread to Other Cities.

Sept. 12.—A general strike in New York, Philadelphia and several other large cities will soon be called, according to Edward Bloch, director of New York, an organizer of the International Hotel Workers Union, unless Boston hotel proprietors agree to the demands of the 400 women hotel workers who are on strike here. According to strike leaders there are at present 100 professional strikebreakers from New York and Philadelphia receiving from $14 to $15 per day for work in Boston hotels that heretofore has been paid for at the rate of $13 to $15 per month.

Bloch declared today that unless the local owners come to terms with the union in other cities will make it necessary for the strikebreakers here to be recalled to the cities from which they were imported.

Hotel proprietors and managers here have today denying stories told last night by women hotel workers to a crowd that filled Fehoull Hall, One Chambermaid, Bridge, Halloran, declared that she worked a week, less than 75 1/2 hours a week, despite a State law which makes the average work week 54 hours long.

Her story was corroborated by Polish and Slav girls, who declared they are given no days off, that they work from 5 to 5 1/2 hours a week, and that besides being given poor food, they are forced to sleep never less than two in a bed and five in a room, which generally is either a carriage chamber at the top of the building or a damp room under the level of the street. For this sort, these girls declared they receive from $12 to $15 per month.

GIBSON DECLARES HE IS INNOCENT

Arrested Here and Taken to Middletown, He Gives Out Long Statement.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Burton W. Gibson, brought into the court, where he must answer to a charge of the murder of Mrs. Rose Menschik Szabo, tonight very calmly went over his whole relationship with the woman, described the tragedy, asserted that he had a perfect defense and expressed entire confidence that he will soon be at liberty. His long statement summarized is as follows:

The Mrs. Szabo who was drowned was not the Tennessee Mrs. Szabo, and he will prove it by the mother, who is now in New York City. He will prove that the woman he produced is the woman introduced to him by his client as her mother, by several witnesses. His relationship toward her was that of lawyer and client. He went to Greenwood Lake with her to assist her in selecting a quiet resort where she might spend several weeks.

Mrs. Szabo, or Mrs. Ritter, as Gibson calls her, did not fall out of the boat on the first trip but jumped out into two feet of water, frightened by a thunder storm, which was a little later, he can swim very little. She crossed in the boat which was round bottomed and fell overboard and he went over with her.

When he went to her assistance she grasped with him, and with her arms around his neck and her legs around his waist he went to the bottom of the lake to free himself, and he does not remember whether she came to the surface afterward.

He did not strike her a blow which would have inflicted any fatal or incapacitating injury. The only blow he gave the woman had that day was a net bag which had contained her bathing suit. He does not know anything about her J. J. Liza. He cannot say whether she tore his bathing suit in the struggle. He did attend to her affairs in New York immediately afterward, and did ship her trunks to Rutherford in order that he might take care of them until time to turn them over to the legatee.

He did call on the Mrs. Menschik mentioned in the New York directory in order to be sure there was no other Mrs. of the woman in the country.

Gibson will insist on a full hearing tomorrow in order that he may know exactly against what he must defend himself. In this connection it may be said that as the witness for the prosecution are not here, District Attorney Thomas C. Rogers will in all likelihood ask for an adjournment until Monday in order to get those he needs up from New York and down from Greenwood Lake.

Gibson has not retained a lawyer to defend him and will not do this until after the case has progressed further. Gibson does not believe that the case will go beyond the preliminary hearing. At least he has made arrangements in his office for next week. Gibson was in Middletown at 5:30 o'clock this evening.

SEIDEL SPEAKS TO OVERFLOW CROWD

Socialist Candidate Addresses Packed Hall in Tampa, Fla.—Large Audience Holds Big Meeting Outside.

TAMPA, Fla., Sept. 12.—The first speech in this State of Emil Seidel, Socialist candidate for the Vice Presidency, was made in this city tonight. Considerable before the former Mayor of Milwaukee put in an appearance the hall in which the meeting was held was packed to the very doors.

When Seidel appeared before the audience, the vast throng seemed to burst into a roar of spontaneous applause, which lasted for several minutes. Seidel made several attempts to speak before the enthusiasm subsided.

While the Socialist candidate was speaking to the crowd inside the hall, the hundreds who were gathered on the outside and who were unable to gain admittance, held an overflow meeting.

In no place did Seidel receive a more respectful and attentive hearing than here. The receptiveness of the audience was a splendid indication of the manner in which the Socialist philosophy is taking a grip on the workers of the Southland.

Each rally of Seidel at the capitalist parties was met by the audience with loud approbation. The Socialist candidate analyzed the capitalist system and demonstrated to his hearers the necessity of organizing into and supporting exclusively the only party of the working class, the Socialist party.

Seidel arrived in this city after a 300-mile trip from Charleston, S. C. He speaks tomorrow in Jacksonville.

THREATEN TO ARREST WM. D. HAYWOOD

He Will Speak Tomorrow at Mass Meeting on Lawrence Common.

Sept. 12.—The statement of State Police Captain W. H. Proctor that he will arrest William D. Haywood and will not permit him to appear as the principal speaker at the meeting on the Lawrence Common next Sunday amuses the members of the National Ettore-Giovanitti Defense Committee. In their opinion, Proctor's threatened action will contrast so strongly with the indulgence shown "Billy" Wood at the time of his arrest as to prove beneficial to the Ettore-Giovanitti defense. The committee is willing to have Proctor arrest Haywood and make a martyr of him for the propaganda that can be got out of it.

The members of the Defense Committee recall the fact that William Wood was notified of his impending arrest in advance. He was given time to consult counsel and arrange bail. He was arrested, gave bail, and was permitted to go about his business, without spending one single minute in jail. But the vindictive Proctor intimates that "Billy" Haywood is in for different treatment, that he will be unceremoniously "jugged" and prevented from talking on the Common.

The local situation continues to grow more intense. The idea of a general strike in favor of the two men is being discussed in the local mills, and is causing much comment, not only among the mill workers, but also among the business people, who are opposed to the idea. The general strike poster, representing the spirit of Lincoln, is much in demand. Requests for copies for local distribution are numerous. The poster is being widely distributed.

Another local manifestation of note is the holding of spontaneous outdoor demonstrations. These demonstrations take the form of parades at night with the paraders singing the "Internationale." One of these unorganized manifestations took place in the Italian quarters last night and included several hundred participants of both sexes and all ages.

Local interest in the big mass meeting next Saturday afternoon continues to grow.

The meeting in Andover, Billy Wood's home town, was held last night. The police demanded a permit of the chairman, but allowed it to go on without one, when given to understand that a permit was deemed unnecessary under the Constitution, which guarantees the right of free speech and free assembly. Rev. Paul H. Drake addressed an audience of over 1,000 persons. His references to Massachusetts justice, as exhibited in the arrest of Billy Wood, were received with laughter. Drake was urged to come again on pay day, when a bigger and better fixed crowd would be present.

Governor Ames has had a conference with counsel for the defense and District Attorney Atwill. He urged them to go to trial immediately, as he is being swamped with resolutions and letters of protest against the continued imprisonment of Ettore and Giovanitti, and he has been compelled to increase his clerical force considerably.

The local Defense Conference has issued a ringing appeal to the workers everywhere to rise in their might against the further detention in jail of Ettore and Giovanitti. The appeal urges the workers to demand the immediate and unconditional liberation of these labor leaders and to be satisfied with nothing less. It recounts the history of the strike, the causes that brought it about, and the manner in which Anna La Pizze, who was one of the 22,000 strikers last winter, met her death, probably at the hands of a policeman whose name is Benoit.

The story is told of how thugs and plug uglies were imported from Boston and elsewhere to provoke the strikers into violence, or to themselves commit violence, the responsibility for which could later be placed upon the shoulders of the strikers.

The plot to "get" Ettore and Giovanitti is retold.

"Our Comrades have already been sentenced to death to all intents and purposes," declares the appeal. "Behind the servants of prostituted justice stand the silk hat plotters, tierce-like, heking their chess for the blood of Ettore and Giovanitti."

"Nothing but the vigilance of the working class can save them."

2,000 HEAR DEBS IN NEW ORLEANS

Packed Hall Gives Socialist Candidate An Enthusiastic Reception—Holds Audience Spellbound.

(Special to The Call.)
NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 12.—More than 2,000 persons gave Eugene V. Debs, Socialist Presidential candidate, a rousing reception in the local Winter Garden tonight.

The Socialist candidate held his large audience spellbound while he stayed in characteristically eloquent language the anti-working class political parties. Frequently, he was interrupted by loud and prolonged applause from his hearers.

Tomorrow Debs speaks in Mobile, Ala.

(Special to The Call.)
HOUSTON, Tex., Sept. 12.—More than 2,000 persons cheered to the echo Eugene V. Debs, Socialist candidate for the Presidency, when he addressed a meeting which was remarkable for its enthusiasm in the local Beach Auditorium, last night. Groups came to the meeting from distances 200 miles away and fully 1,000 persons were unable to hear the Socialist candidate because the capacity of the auditorium was early taxed to its very limit.

So intense is the impression that Debs made upon his receptive hearers that his meeting will be the big topic of conversation around these parts for many days to come. The eloquent "Gene" was in fine spirit and time and again he moved his audience into great outbursts of enthusiasm.

He pointed out in his inimitable manner the absolute identity of the old political parties and the alleged Progressive party. All of them, he declared, can be unquestionably trusted to subvert the best interests of the plutocracy. Wall Street fears the election of none of them.

The success at the polls of only one party, the Socialist party, said Debs, would send a stab of disappointment to the hearts of the capitalists.

The Socialist party, he said, is the workers' party, first, last and always, and he urged his hearers to be true to their interests as workmen and vote the ticket of their class.

SOLDIERS PROTECT STRIKEBREAKERS IN KANAWHA DISTRICT

Militiamen Arrest Forty-two Striking Coal Miners.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 12.—The West Virginia State Militia will protect strikebreakers imported by the coal operators in the Kanawha district, now under martial law.

This became apparent today when Lieut. Adam T. Gaul and a detachment of eight privates arrested forty-two striking miners at Dorothy. The miners were charged with having armed themselves with pick handles, clubs and rocks to prevent strikebreakers from entering a mine at Dorothy. The prisoners were taken on a special train to Paint Creek Junction, where they will be tried by the Military Commission.

When the operators advertised for strikebreakers, they began their first active opposition to the striking miners since martial law removed the armed guards.

Vice President Frank J. Hayes, of the United Mine Workers, notified Governor Glasscock today that to permit strikebreakers to enter the abandoned mines would cause an industrial upheaval in West Virginia, and that the union could not be responsible for the consequences. Similar warning was given the Governor by former State Senator Montgomery, expert adviser of the Governor's Commission, which today undertook investigation of the Kanawha situation.

While the striking miners of the Cabin and Paint Creek districts protested the presence of the State militia to that of the private detective thugs, who the mine proprietors had imported shortly after the strike broke out and who a few days after their arrival had succeeded in precipitating theretofore unknown disorders, they had felt right along that in a pinch the soldiers would abandon their role of neutrality and take sides with the bosses.

The leaders of the miners declare that they are not surprised at the latest action of the soldiers. In fact, they declare that they expected that development right along. They point to other strikes of the miners where the militia acted practically as the agents of the mine owners.

The fact that the mine proprietors have taken to importing professional strikebreakers is regarded with alarm not only by the miners and their officials, but by all those who are familiar with the character of these scabs.

Nearly always they are either furnished by private detective agencies or corralled from the most irresponsible sections of society.

The Military Commission in the Kanawha coal fields which has been sitting as a court has cleaned up its docket. Several sentences were pronounced because they have arrested the Governor for approval.

Felix L. Long, artificer of Company B, 1st Infantry, who shot and killed Samuel Altman, an aged provocateur, at Sharon, has been tried by court-martial and acquitted.

John Seachrist, a sentry, was given two years in the penitentiary for striking Maj. James I. Pratt.

Minor sentences were imposed upon several miners and mine guards for refusing to give information about the alleged shipping of arms into the martial law zone.

Mother Jones has left Charleston for Parkersburg, Clarkburg and Fairmont to speak against the guard system.

MONICLAIR TRAIN DECAPITATES BOY

An unidentified boy about 18 years old was run down and decapitated yesterday by a Lackawanna Railroad train full of commuters coming from Montclair on the big bridge over the Erie tracks near the Hoboken tunnel.

The boy, which left Montclair at 8:30, had just crossed the Hackensack meadow and was proceeding over the bridge at reduced speed, when a sudden grinding of the brakes came from the rear of the train and the train came to an abrupt stop on the center of the bridge. Word was quickly passed along the car that a boy had been killed. Immediately several women on the train became hysterical.

The train was backed several feet and the crew disengaged the mangled body from the engine. It was placed in the luggage car and the train sent through as quickly as possible to Hoboken.

ENGINEER RUN DOWN AND KILLED BY AUTO

Charles Wilson, a stationary engineer living at 21 Hudson street, Brooklyn, was instantly killed early yesterday when he was run over at Delancey and Allen streets by a touring car owned and operated by Frank Hamilton, an automobile dealer, of 142 East 152d street, the Bronx. Three men, two children and a woman were in the car at the time of the accident.

Hamilton's machine was one of a long line of automobiles returning from the Mardi Gras festival. He drove off from Williamsburg Bridge, at moderate speed and swung into Allen street just as Wilson stepped from the sidewalk in the direct path of the car. The victim, knocked down, received a fractured skull.

MAYOR LUNN WILL RUN FOR CONGRESS

Schenectady, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Socialist Mayor George R. Lunn, of this city, who several days ago declined the Congressional nomination in the 13th Congressional District, in a letter addressed to Paul H. Dohy, chairman of the Congressional Committee of the Socialist party, has reconsidered his decision and will enter the Congressional race.

In accounting for his change of mind, Mayor Lunn tonight declared: "A mass meeting of Local Schenectady of the Socialist party urged that I withdraw my declination of the Congressional nomination. I have been forced to run, and I will make the best possible fight for Socialism."

The local Socialists believe that they can send Mayor Lunn to Congress. In order to do so they have made preparations to wage a thorough campaign. Lunn's mayoralty record is an exceptional one. The local Socialist administration has set an example in clean and efficient municipal management. These facts, it is hoped, will dispose the voters in favor of the Socialist candidate.

BROTHER ARRESTED FOR DEATH OF WRESTLER

WALDEN, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Testimony brought out today at a Coroner's inquest following the death of Jack Grace, a wrestler known in Boston and New York athletic clubs, who was found murdered yesterday in the rooms of the Walden Social Club, resulted in the arrest of his brother, William Grace, a painter, and his imprisonment for further examination Monday. William Grace was married yesterday and was taken before the Coroner when he returned to Walden from New York today.

The hearing was held before Coroner Buss in the offices of Congressman Thomas W. Bradley. After all the witnesses had been heard, telegrams were shown from the Chief of Police at Fall River, Mass., stating that William Grace had two wives living, one at Fall River and another at Lowell, Mass. County Detective Moore left tonight for Fall River to bring the wives on or at least get their depositions and marriage certificates.

DULUTH WALKS AS CAR MEN GO ON STRIKE

DULUTH, Minn., Sept. 12.—Duluth citizens walked to work today because of the strike of the local car men. The walkout has so effectively paralyzed the traction system that not a single car was run through the entire city.

Stories to the effect that the strikers had been violent last night were today denied by both the local authorities and the officials of the traction company. There was no cause for the strikers to start trouble because not a single car had been moved and there are no scabs to be had.

City officials and civic societies have today started a movement to have the demands of the car men arbitrated despite the statements of the company officials that they had nothing to arbitrate.

FRENCH TEACHERS DISBAND

PARIS, Sept. 12.—All but one of the teachers' professional unions or syndicates have voted to disband. The Paris Union refused to disintegrate, and the Cabinet today decided to prosecute it for violation of the law of 1884.

The government ordered the unions to dissolve because of the action of the Congress of Teachers' Societies, held at Chambéry in August last, at which resolutions approving of anti-militarism propaganda were adopted.

ENGINEER LOSES ARM IN TRAIN COLLISION

Engineer Richard Farrell, 36 years old, of 61 Borden avenue, Long Island City, had his left arm cut off at his elbow and may lose his right hand as a result of a collision between locomotives at the Monticlaire off on the Long Island Railroad yesterday.

With two cars loaded with beef in tow, Engineer Farrell was bringing his drill engine down the incline to the main tracks just as the newspaper train, in charge of Engineer Bowley, came along under high speed. Both engines crashed on the extreme point of the V where the incline joins the main track.

Farrell jumped into the air and was caught in the wreckage, his left arm being completely severed and his right hand smashed. He was attended by Ambulance Surgeon Brown and removed to St. John's Hospital.

HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER

Joseph Nadel, of 317 Kearny avenue, Arlington, N. J., owner and driver of the automobile that killed Bernard Short, at Central avenue and 43rd street, East Newark, late Wednesday night, was arraigned yesterday, and held on a charge of manslaughter. Short was 50 years old. He was a stone contractor and last night attended a meeting of stone masons.

ARRESTED IN NEW YORK OFFICE

Burton W. Gibson was arrested yesterday on a warrant charging him with the murder of Mrs. Rosa Menschik Szabo. The warrant was issued by Herbert F. Royce, County Judge of Orange County.

Gibson was in his office in the Liberty Tower, 55 Liberty street, calmly awaiting the arrest when at a few minutes before 11 o'clock Detectives Thomas and Flood, together with Deputy Sheriff De Graw, of Orange County, entered to serve the warrant. At the time he was conversing with his stenographer.

De Graw, careful not to lose a particle of the dramatic opportunities of the occasion, advanced rapidly and clutched Gibson's arm. Gibson shook him loose and invited the detectives into his private office.

Flood immediately told him he had a warrant for his arrest, charging him with murder in the first degree. He then read the warrant to Gibson, who told them he was quite ready to go with them, although he had understood that he would not be served until noon, as he had several important matters to attend.

He was told to take his time about the business he had in hand, and the detectives proceeded to make themselves at home. Gibson worked "under cover" for about an hour, going over mail, checking up accounts and discussing various transactions with his stenographer.

At the end of that time he announced that he was ready to go, and even expressed a desire to leave the office as soon as possible.

Gibson was taken to Middletown over the New York Central by way of Pishkill and Newburgh, leaving the Grand Central Station at 1:50 o'clock. The trip from Newburgh to Middletown was made by auto. While waiting Gibson telephoned to his wife in Rutherford, telling her not to worry.

NEILL MAY ARBITRATE TRAINMEN'S DEMANDS

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 12.—Refusing to yield their position or to abandon their fight for higher wages and better working conditions, sixty-five trainmen and conductors employed by the Norfolk and Western, Chesapeake and Ohio and Virginia railroads are still in conference with officials of these three roads.

Recognizing the hopelessness of the situation, Commissioner Charles P. Neill, of the United States Bureau of Labor, is expected here tomorrow to act as arbitrator. Unless the men get what they demand, a strike on the three roads will follow, and it is to prevent this that Neill has been called in.

John Steinmetz and Joseph Letts, brakemen of Bordentown, who were riding in the caboose, were injured about the head.

FIVE LOSE LIVES IN MINE EXPLOSION

BERLIN, Sept. 12.—Five miners were today killed in an explosion in a coal mine at Duisburg, in Rhenish Prussia. The blow-up was the result of the negligence of the officials of the mine to pump out the gases that have filled the mine.

There was a panic near the mine after an explosion occurred. Many women and children hearing the explosion gathered about the coal pit and clamored for admission to see whether their dear ones were among those who lost their lives. The police officials had hard time to keep the crowds from breaking into the mine.

DEATH PUTS BAN ON ARMY MONOPLANES

LONDON, Sept. 12.—On account of recent casualties to aviators of the British Army flying corps, four lieutenants having been killed within a week, the War Office has suspended the use of monoplanes in the service.

Army aviators consider that biplanes are safer and more stable than monoplanes. Machines of the latter type have been used, however, because they are simpler.

STRIKE CRIPPLES BIG PLASTER MILL

Coopers and Machinists' Walkout in Sympathy With Laborers Ties Up Plant.

About 350 laborers employed by the Rock Plaster Manufacturing Company, 150th street and East River, struck yesterday because of an attempt of the firm to replace them with new men. As soon as the laborers walked out fifty coopers and twenty machinists in the employ of the firm struck in sympathy with the laborers.

For some time there has been a movement among the men to organize for the purpose of enforcing better working conditions and higher wages. The firm having received word that the men were restless granted them an increase in wages of 10 cents per day for the purpose of quelling the organization movement.

The men formerly received $1.65 per day and the firm gave them $1.75 per day. Several days after the wage increase went into effect the workers who the company began employing new men whom they paid the former rate of wages. New men were employed daily under the old scale of wages, and this made the workers suspicious that the company was trying to freeze them out.

After the company had employed a number of new men and was about to discharge several of the old employees who had been employed by the company for some time, a delegation was sent to the firm to demand that the new men be discharged and that the newly established wage prevail for all the laborers whether newly hired or those who have been at work for some time. When the company turned down the request the men met and decided to quit work.

They then applied to Hugh Frazer, organizer of the American Federation of Labor in this city, with a request that they be assisted in the formation of a union, and organizers are now at work trying to band them together into an organization.

The workers now demand an eight hour day instead of the twelve hours they have been working previous to the strike and that they be paid $2 per day instead of $1.75. They are confident they will soon win their demands, as the firm will be unable to find men to take the places of the strikers.

Unless a speedy settlement is reached with the firm it is expected that the teamsters will strike in sympathy with the other workers who are already out on strike. Should the teamsters go out on strike it will cripple the entire plant of the company and victory for the workers will be a certainty.

The strikers held a meeting at 14th street and Mott avenue yesterday afternoon and were addressed by Howard T. Keating, organizer of the A. F. of L., and Pasquale Di Neri and George Roguszewski, special organizers of the A. F. of L.

TRACES TYPHOID TO OYSTERS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The deadly menace of the typhoid-bearing oyster is the subject of a report issued today by the Department of Agriculture. Oysters from Jamaica Bay, L. I., that were served at a banquet are indicted as the cause of seventeen cases of typhoid, according to an investigation made by George W. Stiles, a government expert. Sixteen other cases of illness are traced to the same source. Millions of gallons of sewage are discharged into the bay daily all around and even directly over the oyster beds, the report says.

DERAILED FLYER INJURES SCORE

Striking Open Switch at Morton, N. Y., Train Leaves Track—Fireman Scalded May Die.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 12.—A score of persons, including four members of the train crew, were injured and heavy property loss was caused at 6:40 o'clock this morning when train 28, known as the Washburn Flyer, one of the fast New York, Ontario and Western trains running on the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg, ran into an open switch 300 feet west of the station at Morton, N. Y., thirty miles west of this city.

The train was composed of five coaches, and all with the exception of the last one, a Pullman sleeper, left the rails and were turned over.

The train is said to have been traveling faster than fifty miles an hour. That no one was killed outright seems almost miraculous.

Just as the station was passed the train ran into the open switch, which runs alongside of Murphy Brothers' fruit house, the coal shed of E. P. Williams and the cement factory of H. J. Schank. The train made the turn into the switch with such force that the cars toppled over and badly damaged the walls of the three buildings.

The locomotive plowed through the shed for some distance, finally bringing up at the fruit house. Here the locomotive was badly wrecked. Engineer George Murdock and fireman House, of Oswego, were badly injured. House was severely scalded by steam and will probably die. Both men were taken aboard a special train and brought to this city.

The passengers who were injured, none of them seriously, were taken to Morton and treated by physicians.

LANDSLIDES HAMPER WORK ON THE CANAL

Tremendously Increase Difficulty of Excavation—Due to Weakness of Underlying Layer of Rock.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—How serious an impediment to the excavations for the Panama Canal have been the slides in the Culebra cut is shown in a report received by the canal commission here today. Of the total excavating that remains to be done in the Culebra cut nearly one-third is due to slides.

The amount of excavating due to slides has increased rapidly since 1909. From 1904 to 1909 only 7.87 per cent of the total excavation was due to slides. In 1910 it amounted to 14.85 per cent, in 1911 to 26.30 per cent, and in 1912 it has reached the high figure of 34.50 per cent. Of this excavating that now remains in the Culebra cut before this section of the canal is completed, 8,253,540 cubic yards is independent of slides, while 2,995,000 cubic yards is due entirely to that source.

The most extensive slide, or break, with which the engineers now have to contend is on the west bank at Culebra. This slide covers an area of sixty-three acres, and has broken back to a point threatening the Culebra Club House foundations.

Up to June 30, 1912, a total of 6,765,500 cubic yards had been removed and it is now estimated that 1,500,000 cubic yards remain to be excavated from the slide. This slide began in 1907 and has been growing ever since.

Most of the so-called slides during the past year, it is stated, were really breaks in the banks of the cut due to the inability of an underlying layer of rock of poor quality to support the enormous pressure superinduced by the weight above it. The breaks are being fought by terracing the banks of the cut where the slides have occurred.

WOMAN CHARGES SWINDLE.

Says Friends Concocted Plot to Get Possession of Her Property.

Mrs. Julia Toumin, who is 77 years old and nearly blind, yesterday filed suit against Lemuel L. Phipps and Theresa S. Phipps, charging that they have gained possession of all her property through a plot, concocted by them. Mrs. Toumin lives on St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn.

She says the property which the defendants have secured are a piece of land near Second avenue and 19th street, Manhattan; land on Gates avenue, Brooklyn; and land on St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn.

Under socialism there will be no incentive to work—that is, to work ten, twelve or fourteen hours a day for a bare living.

MISS PANKHURST APPEARS AT LAST

Woman Suffrage Leader, in Hiding Since March, Is in France.

PARIS, Sept. 12.—Miss Christabel Pankhurst, daughter of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the suffragette leader, for whom the London police have been looking ever since the big window smashing crusade in that city some time ago, has come out of retirement and revealed herself to the public for the first time since she disappeared at the beginning of last March. She is staying at a quaint little hotel in what is really the Apache district and is looking radiant, healthy and rosy after her enforced rest and outdoor life.

Miss Pankhurst has evidently accomplished some shopping, for she is wearing the latest French fashions. "I came to Paris a few days ago," she said. "Before that I had been staying on the French coast, I prefer not to say where, but I could see old England on clear days. I received visits from my mother constantly and kept in touch with the suffragette movement, sending messages weekly to our paper. I now intend staying quietly here and will continue my work. I do not expect to take part in the French feminist movement, but have not any definite plans.

"I has not been difficult to avoid. It has not been difficult to avoid. The night after the warrant for my arrest was issued I took a boat across the channel. I was not disguised except that I did not wear the green costume and motor veil, which is the uniform of our union. I came to Paris first and stayed here several weeks, when I went to the French coast. People who saw and know me did not make the fact public. The police located me in England, America and everywhere except where I was.

"I have made a careful investigation before announcing my whereabouts and find the British Government cannot touch me here, as the offense with which I am charged is not one for which I can be extradited. Anyway, England, who has shielded so many political refugees, would be in an absurd position if she interfered with France's right to do the same.

"The 'votes for women' movement," Miss Pankhurst went on to say, "was never in a more flourishing condition. It seems to have been born again since the great manifestation in March. The women are joining in greater numbers and are volunteering for any kind of service. We shall continue our present methods until we compel the government to introduce a bill granting us the suffrage. They have made promises which were quite worthless. They pretend to be impartial, yet they constantly intrigue against us and undermine our chances with the members of Parliament.

"The situation is serious," concluded Miss Pankhurst, "for the women will never surrender. The only solution is to give us the vote. Possibly the Liberal Government will not last long enough to do so, but with the Tories we could not fare any worse than we have been doing. They might pass a suffrage bill; it would not be the first time that the Tories have adopted a Liberal measure. Whatever happens, however, we shall fight till our cause is won. We are all thriving on it; it is invigorating our women and keeping them strong and healthy."

TO REOPEN CASE OF IMMIGRANT GIRL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Baby fingers stretched across the seas today and reached the heart of a Cabinet officer, Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel, in behalf of the child's mother, who was deported from New York as an undesirable alien.

Mary Terrell, a 23-year-old Irish girl, was the subject of clemency. She left a fatherless baby in Ireland with her parents and came to the United States with the intention of living with a sister in Los Angeles. On August 28 the immigration officers at New York turned her back on the ground that she might become a public charge.

Offers from prominent persons to assist the girl and care for her and her baby caused Secretary Nagel today to reopen the case to determine if the young woman shall be given another opportunity to become an American.

U. S. IS BUILDING 46 WAR VESSELS

In work on the big ships, the New York Navy Yard constructors have far surpassed the private shipbuilders, having advanced the big battleship New York 4.8 per cent, or to a total of 53 per cent, during August.

DROP CHARGES AGAINST DETROIT "GRAFTERS"

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 12.—That not all of the Aldermen accused of grafting will be prosecuted was indicated by the action of Prosecutor Shepherd when he recommended that the charges of having promised to accept a bribe against Aldermen Patrick O'Brien and William Koening be dismissed. The two complainants, however, still face a conspiracy charge.

They, with fifteen other Aldermen and E. R. Schreier, former Council Clerk, will appear before Justice Jeffries tomorrow to answer to the conspiracy charge. Prosecutor Shepherd admitted today that the evidence against Aldermen O'Brien and Koening was very flimsy.

It was announced at the prosecutor's office this afternoon that the cases against Aldermen Zoeller, Watson, Ellis, Skrzycki, and Merritt, charged with agreeing to accept a bribe, will also be dismissed because of lack of corroborative evidence.

COPPER MINERS FACE A GIANT STRUGGLE

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 12.—President Charles Moyer, of the Western Federation of Miners, left for Bingham, Utah, today, to take charge of the strike of 3,000 miners in the pits of the Utah Copper Company. The men demand an increase of 25 cents a day and recognition of the union.

The strike promises to spread to a dozen other camps in the vicinity of Bingham, and federation officials predicted 25,000 men would be involved within a short time unless the company meets the demands of the miners. The greatest strike since the Cripple Creek walkout was predicted.

BOX AND TEXTILE MEN WALK OUT IN PHILA.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12.—Two hundred striking box workers, aided by 250 striking weavers and several hundred sympathizers, succeeded today in tying up the work of box factories in Kensington, a suburb. In both the box and textile shops the workers are out for an increase in wages, and a bitter fight is expected.

The employers are taking an arrogant stand against the demands of the workers and say they will starve their slaves into submission. The workers, however, say that they would sooner starve than return to work under the old conditions.

Quite a number of the strikers are mere children, and it is claimed that their wages never exceeded $4 a week.

Strikebreakers attempted to drive wagons and make deliveries, but in nearly every instance were forced to give up. The strikers drove the cabs from their wagons, and some of them fled, leaving the trucks in the middle of the streets.

Two box factories and four cloth mills are tied up.

COOPERS TO ORGANIZE STANDARD OIL PLANTS

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 12.—Declaring that the substitution by the Standard Oil Company of steel for wooden barrels would throw thousands of coopers out of employment, the Coopers' International Union of North America, which is holding its biennial convention here, at its session today passed resolutions calling on the incoming officers to make an effort to unionize all the cooperage shops of the Standard Oil Company.

It was the unanimous opinion of the convention that something should be done immediately to organize the Standard Oil plants and fight against the efforts to substitute steel barrels for wooden ones. Resolutions condemning prohibition were also passed at the convention.

TRACK MEN STRIKE FOR HIGHER WAGES

FAYETTE CITY, Pa., Sept. 12.—Following the refusal of a demand for a 25 a day wage, track men on the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad at Newell went on strike today. They received $1.75 a day.

The men from Newell marched to this city, and their forces were augmented by additional track men and freight handlers. Two hundred construction men employed in the new yards being built for the Western Maryland terminal also laid down their tools here. The strikers, about 600 strong, then marched to Bellevue and Monessen.

EPIDEMIC DUE TO MILK.

Caused Spread of Typhoid in Allentown, Pa.—Two Deaths Reported.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Sept. 12.—Inquiry into the typhoid epidemic that has suddenly broken out in the new 14th Ward of this city. Nine or ten new cases developed during the night. Two deaths have already occurred.

Upon the appearance of the epidemic the Board of Health condemned the water supply of the affected district. Investigation shows a common origin of the milk used in the families where the cases are.

TWO-TON GIRDER FALLS THROUGH ROOF; I HURT

A two-ton steel girder fell yesterday from the twelfth story of a loft building, being erected at 115 West 41st street, and crashing through the roof of 120 West 41st street, sent splinters and debris in every direction.

James Dyer, a mason, of 413 West 32d street, was struck by a piece of flying wood and his left arm broken. He was taken to Flower Hospital. A half dozen other workmen escaped serious injury.

It was said that the girder had slipped from a steel cable while being hoisted to its place on the new building.

So great was the crowd that gathered that the police had to force the people back with their clubs. Several ambulances were hurried to the scene in the belief that many had been killed or injured.

CURFEW NOW ON BROADWAY.

Fines for Those Who Stay After Midnight Without Excuse.

As the result of a crusade launched by Police Inspector Dwyer to keep Broadway clear after the stroke of midnight, fifteen prisoners were arraigned yesterday before Magistrate Cornell in the West Side Court. Those who could not give reasonable excuses were hurried to the scene in the belief that many had been killed or injured.

The police allege that they have received complaints from hotel proprietors who say that the loiterers in front of their establishments annoy their guests.

SOCIALIST NEWS OF THE DAY

GRAND TRUNK STRIKE STILL IN PROGRESS

"Blanket Stiffs" Will Not Return to Misery of Construction Camps.

PRINCE RUPERT, British Columbia, Sept. 6.—The strike of the workmen on the construction camps of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railroad is still in progress. The contractors under whose direction the road is being built are practically at a loss to replace the men who have quit. When they do succeed in importing men, almost immediately after they arrive in the camps and become acquainted with the miserable conditions which prevail in them, they make for liberty, almost always walking many miles to reach the nearest city.

In many cases men are employed on the construction work at the point of the strike. It has been made to appear by some persons that the slow construction of the Grand Trunk is due to a lack of security. This security will be created like does in the camps.

The strikers, who are organized in the Industrial Workers of the World, maintain a system of scouts, who keep tabs on the efforts of the company to obtain strikebreakers and upon the progress of the construction work. According to their reports, the camps are practically without men, and in view of the solidarity of the strikers, it is only a question of a very short time when success will crown their efforts.

In a case which came to the notice of the strikers a few days ago, fifty men had been imported from Vancouver to work on the construction camps. All but eighteen of them remained in camp. The eighteen went up the line to work. Before leaving Vancouver some of them were filled up with champagne. They were placed on a train bound for Hazelton. When the effects of the drugged liquor began to wear off and the men realized that they had been tricked, they began to fight with the train guards. So fierce was the conflict, according to passengers who were on the train and who are now making affidavits to that effect, and in which they demand better protection while traveling, that blood was spilled. The windows in the train were broken, seats were smashed and cars were literally dyed crimson.

Some of the men jumped off the train and walked back here over a distance of ninety miles.

OPEN BROOKLYN SUBWAY BIDS.

The Public Service Commission yesterday opened bids for sections 1 and 2 of the Fort Hamilton extension to the Fourth Avenue subway in Brooklyn, which will ultimately form the line connecting with Staten Island. The Dock Contractor Company of Hoboken was the lowest bidder on both sections, the low bids being respectively $1,440,000 and $1,700,000.
