

"To Organize the Slaves of Capital to Vote Their Own Emancipation."

NO. 272 --- SIXTH YEAR

Socialist Working Class Only Organized and Intelligent Force

Forced to depend upon capitalist pressure from Russia, we cannot do better than quote from the dispatches to give some idea of the situation here. It would seem as if the revolutionists have things well in hand and that it is only a matter of time when the government will be compelled to capitulate. The sudden rising of the peasants is remarkable. What is needed most by the revolutionists is ARMS and their needs should be promptly met. St. Petersburg, Dec. 4, via Yethub, Ohio. East Russia. The swift organization of the peasants into a union of former peasants' union proves even more startling than the revolutionary organizations of the workers in the towns. The great districts and provinces in southwest Russia are joining the union and thousands of instances the peasants prove that they are much less simple and poor than they usually are said to be. They are largely able to buy their own food. They are organized in electric district committees. Their attitude toward the government is similar to that of the urban artisans, but while the latter are trying to destroy services during strikes, mass meetings, and agitation in the great towns, the peasants are trying to boycott all state owned businesses, and refuse either to pay taxes or supply the annual rolls of the military conscripts. The enlistment department of the war office has been nearly completely paralyzed. The lists of the conscripts have been nearly completely destroyed. The lists of the conscripts have been nearly completely destroyed.

He Only Fans the Fire

Preach an Armed Revolution. The workers' unions, in welcoming the cooperation of the peasants in their struggle, are struggling under the banner of Socialism, and that only when armed revolution is the nation is able to repulse reaction and reach democracy's ideal. The chief personages of the empire was held at Pskov-Selo. The czar was threatened with a coup d'etat by the military and telegraph operators. It is understood that he and his family are being held in the telegraph operators' hands. The czar is threatened with a coup d'etat by the military and telegraph operators. St. Petersburg, Dec. 4.—It is reported from Cronstadt that a German ship has been sighted in the Baltic sea near the Russian coast. Rumor attributes the appearance of the squadron in preparatory to the flight of the Russian imperial family.

The city remains quiet, but extreme tension prevails. Armed patrols of cavalry and infantry are in the streets, especially in the neighborhood of the telegraph office. The telegraph and telephone operators are being held in the city. The telegraph and telephone operators are being held in the city. The telegraph and telephone operators are being held in the city.

Count de Witte strongly objected on the ground that there are 300,000 Russian government employees. The czar is threatened with a coup d'etat by the military and telegraph operators. It is understood that he and his family are being held in the telegraph operators' hands.

Count de Witte is now convinced that the czar is according to the demand for universal suffrage, may still find a common ground with the government and the moderates and the extreme elements can stand by. It is a matter of time when the czar will be forced to accept the demands of the revolutionists. It is a matter of time when the czar will be forced to accept the demands of the revolutionists.

More Troops Revolt

Berlin, Dec. 4.—A dispatch to the London Anzeiger from Kiev, via the Podo-wolsky, Austrian frontier, filed at the latter place at 10:15 a. m. today, says: "The troops at Kharhoff refuse to take the oath of fealty to the colors. Great turbulence prevails at Kharhoff. The precise character of the events there is not yet known, but the Thirty-third artillery brigade is reported to have mutinied."

A strike has again broken out on the railway to Pskov, Moscow, and Voronezh.

Why should Chauncey Dewey resign from the United States Senate? He has only just proved his qualifications to be a member of that body.

It looks as if the Toledo papers were competing in giving the new boys to sell the most of the respective papers.

The owners of the vessels that were lost on the lake last week may have risked something but you will notice that they did not risk as much as the men who will never come back to dry land again.

Perhaps one good reason why the working poor do not show appreciation for art can be found in the fact that seats to the grand opera in New York sell as low as $50 apiece.

The Socialist office has moved. We had to have more room so we have rented a nice large store at 419 Jefferson street, and at the same time enable us to run a book store in front. The location is centrally placed in the city and we propose to establish a center for Socialist and progressive literature of all kinds. By this means it is hoped that an additional revenue will be provided to furnish what we desired at the shortest notice and in the most efficient manner. They will be given a cordial welcome and the store is open every evening and Sundays.

That mine disaster in Wyoming reminds us again that the cheapest way to solve the problem we are discussing is to let the workers themselves place the lowest estimate on their own lives.

OHIO

State Secretary, Edward Gardner, Dayton street, Cincinnati.

Prof. Todd, principal of the High School at Springfield, deceased.

Socialism at the Men's club of the city.

His paper showed a very superficial knowledge of his subject, but one of the local Socialists was extended to the professor an invitation to take a visit of his library to secure a further understanding of the subject.

WASHINGTON

State Secretary, E. E. Martin, Box 212, Washington.

State Secretary Martin's October statistical report shows 42 locals reporting in 12 of which show all members on their rolls paid up to the 31st of local report 42 new members during the month paid up to date, 542 arrears, 226 total on rolls, 1273.

Local Spokane doubled its payment on dues in October, due to a circular letter having been sent to those members who had let their dues fall behind.

When they were told that their names were being dropped from the rolls until they did so.

"I hope we will be able some day to do more for the party in the state of Washington, to master up strength in Eastern Washington to depose the present impossibilities who have charge of our state party machinery."
