"In June, the celestial soldiers will descent to conquer the rotten and the malicious; they will use a long rope 100,000 Chinese feet to tie up the fabulous roc."

With the personal concern of our great leader Chairman Mao and his close comrade in arms Vice Chairman Lin Piao, and with the great support of the CCP Central Committee, the Military Affairs Committee of the CCP Central Committee, the Cultural Revolution Group of the CCP Central Committee, and the proletarian revolutionaries throughout China, the proletarian revolutionaries of the Wuhan area are crushing with mountain-moving and ocean-upsetting momentum the frantic attacks by the class enemies.

In the course of the great struggle between the two classes, they have won a new victory. The proletarian revolutionary fighters have become more courageous, stronger, and wiser in this fight. The hoodwinked masses have risen to join the rebellion one group after another. The handful of persons in authority in the Party and Army taking the capitalist road and the handful of bad leaders of the "Million Heroic Troops" under their control have become more and more isolated. The great power of Chairman Mao's proletarian revolutionary line has shaken the tricity of Wuhan. This is a very good situation worthy of our acclamation.

To win final victory, the proletarian revolutionaries of the Wuhan area must still undergo a difficult and tremendous struggle. The proletarian revolutionary comrades should by no means relax their effort in this struggle and neglect the strategy of the struggle on account of the improving situation. Policy and strategy are the lifeline of the Party. The basic guarantee for the victory of the proletarian revolutionaries lies in resolutely following the instructions of Chairman Mao and the policy of the Party. More attention should be paid to this point as the struggle grows more acute and complex.

One of the most important missions facing the proletarian revolutionaries in the Wuhan area today is to win over and reeducate the hoodwinked masses. The hoodwinked masses are still our class brothers, whose mistakes were committed on the spur of the moment because of the deception and blindness imposed on them by the handful of persons in authority taking the capitalist road. We should concentrate our hatred on the handful of persons in authority in the Party and the army taking the capitalist road and the handful of bad leaders of the "Million Heroic Troops" who persist in the bourgeois reactionary line. We should welcome the rebellion of the hoodwinked masses. Being hoodwinked is no crime, but joining the rebellion with arms is a merit.

The rebellion of the hoodwinked masses will be one of the most important contributing factors for the complete isolation, collapse, and destruction of the handful of persons in authority in the Party and the Army taking the capitalist road.

We should carry out penetrating and delicate political and ideological work among the hoodwinked masses. Only by carrying out this work properly, thereby winning over the hoodwinked masses, can we completely isolate the enemies and have them drown in the vast sea. In unity there is strength. Under conditions where the revolution is being carried out victoriously, the proletarian revolutionaries should pay special attention to the work of strengthening their internal unity. The enemies are not yet completely destroyed; they are still putting up a desperate struggle. The proletarian revolutionaries should be united more properly in order to concentrate their efforts in hitting hard at the enemy.

The great masses of commanders and fighters of the Army stationed in the Wuhan area who are standing on the side of the proletarian revolutionaries of the Wuhan area and are resolutely giving them support! You have done well and done correctly. You are the good soldiers of Chairman Mao. You have won new merits for the people. In the future, you should heart to heart and shoulder to shoulder with the proletarian revolutionaries in the Wuhan area, and be united with them in combat and in victory. You should resolutely protect the proletarian revolutionaries in the Wuhan area, give them political and ideological support, and join hands with them in resolutely punishing the handful of persons in authority in the Party and the Army taking the capitalist road. You should not give up until total victory.

Proletarian revolutionary comrades in the Wuhan area and the great masses of comrade and fighters stationed in the Wuhan area! Let us ride on victory and advance under the guidance of Chairman Mao's proletarian revolutionary line and win a great and new victory in the great proletarian cultural revolution!
